Tampa Bay Devil Rays Send Teachers on International Earthwatch Expeditions

The Tampa Bay Devil Rays have renewed their partnership for a second year with the Earthwatch Institute in Maynard, Massachusetts to sponsor expedition fellowships for six K-12 educators from Pinellas and Hillsborough Counties. Educators will have a once-in-a-lifetime chance to work alongside leading field scientists on fascinating research expeditions in North and South America.

Last year's fellows traveled to various locations in the Americas from the Arctic's Edge in Manitoba, Canada to study the effects of climate change to observing dolphins in Cananéia Estuary, Brazil. The partnership with Earthwatch is the first involving a professional sports franchise.

STUART L. STERNBERG

Principal Owner

Stuart L. Sternberg is the Principal Owner of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. The youngest of three children, he was born and raised in the Canarsie section of Brooklyn, NY.

Sternberg's passion for baseball developed as a child while playing the game in the streets and playgrounds of his neighborhood. Sternberg has played in various organized baseball leagues and has especially enjoyed coaching his two sons' Little League teams for the past ten years. One of Sternberg's most cherished memories is of watching Sandy Koufax pitch while attending his first Major League game, with his father, at Shea Stadium in 1965.

During the twenty-five years that he spent in the financial securities industry, Sternberg demonstrated an ability to develop and lead businesses to realize their maximum potential. In 1978, he began his professional career trading equity options at the American Stock Exchange. Sternberg went on to become a partner at Spear, Leeds & Kellogg, and then moved to The Goldman Sachs Group Inc., retiring as a partner in 2002. He has served on various committees and advisory boards in the financial securities industry.

In February, Stuart was named to H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center & Research Institute's National Board of Advisors, chaired by veteran ABC News correspondent Sam Donaldson. Sternberg resides in Rye, NY with his wife and four children.

IMPORTANT DATES IN RECENT RAYS HISTORY

October 6, 2005 » Stuart Sternberg becomes the principal owner of the Rays, assuming control of the operations of the organization. Matt Silverman is named president. That same day, Sternberg announces that the organization will offer free parking at all Rays home games, making the Rays the only Major League Baseball franchise to offer free parking on all team-owned lots.

October 19, 2005 » The Rays formally announce the beginning of a field renovation program that will see the organization rebuild and renovate youth fields throughout the Tampa Bay area from as far south as Charlotte County and as far north as Citrus County. The Rays target historic Oliver Field at Campbell Park in St. Petersburg as the first field to be refurbished. Seven months later the project is completed, and on May 20, the field is rededicated with Sharon Robinson, daughter of Jackie Robinson, on hand for the festivities.

October 26, 2005 » The Rays and concessionaire Centerplate announce a change in its food policy effective for the 2006 season. For the first time in team history, fans will be permitted to bring food and certain drinks into Tropicana Field for Rays home games.

November 3, 2005 » The Rays name Andrew Friedman its Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations. In this position, Andrew oversees the Rays baseball operations efforts. Former National League Executive of the Year Gerry Hunsicker joins the organization as Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations to assist Friedman.

November 10, 2005 » The Rays sign outfielder Rocco Baldelli to a multi-year contract that could keep him in Tampa Bay through 2011. This comes six months after Carl Crawford signs a long-term deal.

November 15, 2005 » The Rays name Joe Maddon as field manager. Maddon had spent all of his 31 years in professional baseball with the Angels, with most of the previous 10 years as bench coach.

December, 2005 » The Rays begin a $10 million refurbishment of Tropicana Field. These improvements are all designed to heighten the fan experience. Bathrooms are renovated, 35,000 seats are cleaned and painted, concrete walls are covered with stucco and drywall, the suite and club sections are upgraded, a new upscale club is added along the first base side concourse, new directional signs and outdoor awnings are added and a new sound system is installed. Concourses are converted into interactive fun zones for all fans.

January 9, 2006 » The Rays begin a major expansion of its international scouting and player development program by adding Carlos Alfonso as director of international operations. Five weeks later, the highly respected Andres Reiner is hired as a special assistant in international scouting and player development.

February 17, 2006 » The Rays partner with the Pinellas and Hillsborough County Education Foundations to create the "Rays the Grades" student performance program designed for all kindergarten through eighth grade public school students in the two counties. The program is intended to challenge every student to improve in school by providing free tickets to Rays home games at Tropicana Field. In 2007, the program is expanded into Pasco County bringing the total of students targeted by this program to 300,000.

February 23, 2006 » The Ted Williams Museum and Hitters Hall of Fame opens a new location at Tropicana Field. More than 50,000 persons visited the Museum in 2006, which is expanding its square footage from 3,000 to 10,000 square feet for 2007.

March 28, 2006 » The Rays announce that for the first time, fans attending Tampa Bay Devil Rays home games may tailgate in the parking lots at Tropicana Field.

March 30, 2006 » The Rays announce that it will share an academy with the Los Angeles Dodgers in Campo Las Palmas, in the Dominican Republic.

June 6, 2006 » The Rays draft and sign first round draft pick Evan Longoria, a third baseman from Long Beach. Longoria is the third player selected in the draft.

July 21, 2006 » The Rays unveil the Rays Touch Tank, an exciting new addition to Tropicana Field featuring 30 Cownose Rays from the Florida Aquarium. The experience is free to all fans attending home games and is presented by the St. Petersburg/Clearwater Convention and Visitor's Bureau.

August 24, 2006 » The Rays and the St. Petersburg Times announce a multi-year, exclusive sponsorship affiliation. As a component of this agreement, the Times will become the presenting sponsor of the team's official website devilrays.com, the first such sponsorship in all of MLB.

September 13, 2006 » The Rays announce that the organization will partner with Pirelli Tire and open a baseball academy in Guacara, Venezuela.

September 20, 2006 » The Rays and the Board of County Commissioners of Charlotte County, Florida formally sign a 20-year agreement for the Rays to conduct spring training at a renovated Charlotte Sports Park beginning in February 2009.

September 28, 2006 » The Rays announce that it will move its Visalia (A) affiliation from the California League to Vero Beach in the Florida State League for the 2007 season, furthering the team's regionalization efforts.

November 15, 2006 » The Rays win the right to negotiate with Yakult Swallows infielder Akinori Iwamura, a five-time All-Star and six-time Gold Glove recipient in Japan's Central League. On December 15, the Rays sign him to a three year contract.

December 14, 2006 » In another step toward creating a more regional presence for the team, the Rays announce the team will host the Texas Rangers for three regular season games, May 15-17, at The Ballpark at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex.

January, 2007 » For the second consecutive year, improvements are made to Tropicana Field. The changes include a new look to the exterior of the stadium and a state-of-the-art 36' by 64' full color scoreboard. Three other smaller, but cutting edge technology scoreboards are also to be added. This round of improvements extends to the playing surface. The FieldTurf surface installed before the 2000 season is replaced by the very latest FieldTurf product.

February 16, 2007 » The Rays are awarded a grant from the Pinellas County Environmental Fund (PCEF) for a landscaping project to include the planting of nearly 50 different species of native vegetation along the exterior of Tropicana Field.

March, 2007 » The Rays and International Plaza and Bay Street, a regional shopping center located in Tampa, agree to a unique, multi-year sponsorship and marketing partnership that designates the Rays as the exclusive sports team partner of International Plaza. The centerpiece of the agreement is the Rays sponsorship of a new baseball- themed children's play area at International Plaza integrating Looney Tunes characters and the Devil Rays.

March 1, 2007 » Carl Crawford and the Rays announce the team's field renovation program will target West Tampa Little League as its second project. Crawford will help support the project as will J.O. DeLotto and Sons, MetroPCS and Bryant Heating and Cooling Systems.

MATT SILVERMAN

President

As President of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, Matt Silverman is responsible for leading the organization's daily operations. He became President in October of 2005 after serving as Vice President of Planning and Development for two years.

Prior to joining the Rays full-time, Silverman worked closely with Stuart Sternberg to orchestrate Sternberg's purchase of a controlling interest in the franchise.

Silverman's previous experience includes several years at The Goldman Sachs Group Inc., in its Merchant Banking Division and Firmwide Strategy Group. During this period, in which he first worked with Sternberg, Silverman worked on a variety of merger and acquisition opportunities across diversified industries. While with the firm, Silverman also co-founded and served as CFO for a real estate software company.

A lifelong baseball fan, Silverman also enjoys running and writing in his free time. He received a bachelor of economics degree from Harvard University. A native of Dallas, he currently resides in Tampa, Florida. He is a member of the board of the Pinellas Education Foundation and the Hillsborough Education Foundation and serves as the Rays board member for the Tampa Bay Partnership.

Rays Expand Rays The Grades Program For 2007

The Tampa Bay Devil Rays have expanded the Rays the Grades student performance program to include the Pasco County Education Foundation. The Rays the Grades program was launched in 2006 in partnership with the Pinellas and Hillsborough County Education Foundations, both of which will continue to participate in the program this year. Rays the Grades is intended to challenge every student, grades K-8, to improve in school by providing free tickets to Rays home games at Tropicana Field. Nearly 300,000 students will be included in the second-year program.

RAYS THE GRADES

ANDREW FRIEDMAN

Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations

As Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, Andrew Friedman is responsible for overseeing and directing baseball operations.

Prior to assuming his current role, Friedman spent two years with the Rays serving as Director of Baseball Development. Friedman's previous experience includes two years as an analyst with New York City-based investment firm Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. and three years as an associate for the private equity firm MidMark Capital.

A native of Houston, Texas, Friedman currently resides in Tampa, Florida.

GERRY HUNSICKER

Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations

As Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, Gerry Hunsicker assists in all areas of baseball operations.

Hunsicker has more than twenty years of Major League Baseball experience. Prior to joining the Rays, Hunsicker served as an advisor for the Houston Astros during the 2005 season. Previously, he served as General Manager of the Astros for nine seasons. He was instrumental in building the team that advanced to the franchise's first ever World Series in 2005.

After being named General Manager of the Astros in 1996, it took Hunsicker only two seasons to transform the franchise into a perennial winner. During this time he formed a nucleus that carried the team to four National League Central Division championships in five seasons. In addition to the four division titles, the club finished second in four of his other five seasons and reached the playoffs as the National League Wild Card in 2004.

In 1998, Hunsicker was named The Sporting News' Executive of the Year after assembling an Astros team that won a franchise-best 102 games during the season.

Hunsicker returned to the Houston Astros after working as the number two person in the baseball operations area of the New York Mets, where his duties were to assist the general manager in all phases of the organization's baseball operations. Hunsicker began his MLB career in 1978 with the Astros. Previously, he had been the assistant athletic director and assistant baseball coach at Florida International University.

A native of Collegeville, Penn., Hunsicker attended St. Joseph's University on a baseball scholarship and was named to the All-Mid-Atlantic Conference team. He also holds an M.S. in management from Florida International University. In recent years he was inducted into St. Joseph's University's Baseball Hall of Fame and Athletic Hall of Fame, as well as the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame. Hunsicker also received the prestigious Torch Award from FIU, recognizing distinguished alumni of the university.

Hunsicker and his wife, Irene, have one daughter, Kelly.

RAYS COMMUNITY RELATIONS

RAYS BASEBALL FOUNDATION

Mission Statement

"The Rays Baseball Foundation supports youth and education programs in the Tampa Bay community that make a measurable difference in the lives of children and families."

The Rays refocused community efforts took shape in 2006 with the creation of the Rays Baseball Foundation. The Foundation was formed as a way for the Rays to make a positive impact in the community. It supports youth and education programs in the Tampa Bay community that make a measurable difference in the lives of children and families.

The Rays Field Renovation Program became the first part of the Foundation. The program began last year with the renovation of Oliver Field at Campbell Park. Located in the shadows of Tropicana Field, the park underwent an extensive overhaul including new sod, paint and a chain-link fence surrounding the field. A new metal panel roof system was also erected over the bleachers and a chain-link backstop was installed.

The program continued in 2007 as the Rays announced they would renovate West Tampa Little League Field, thanks to the contributions of outfielder Carl Crawford and presenting sponsors DeLotto Construction, Bryant Heating and Cooling, and Metro PCS.

The Rays are also engaged in numerous other community efforts outside of the Rays Baseball Foundation. In 2006, the organization introduced the Rays the Grades program. Originally available to kindegartners through eighth graders in Hillsborough and Pinellas Counties, the program has been expanded in 2007 to include the Pasco County students as well.

Rays the Grades is intended to challenge every student to improve in school by providing free tickets to Rays home games at Tropicana Field. Nearly 300,000 students will be included in the second-year program.

Rays the Grades is scheduled to run during the month of March. Officials from each school will determine which area of student performance they would like to target for their students. At the end of the month, each school will report the results and accomplishments to their respective education foundations and select schools will receive special recognition from the Rays.

The Rays also connect with the community giving away thousands of items each year through in-kind donation requests. The organization has a speakers bureau, provides unique game day experiences for children in need, is actively engaged in community fundraising, and makes numerous stops to schools and hospitals on its annual winter caravan.

In addition, Rays executives serve on numerous charitable boards throughout the Tampa Bay region.

No Assists...A Rarity Except For Rays

Only 8 times in the 129-year history of major league baseball did a club not record a single assist in a game. Yet the Devil Rays accomplished that twice in a span of 180 games: May 1, 2002 at Minnesota and May 17, 2003 at Baltimore. No other team in history has done it twice. The 8 no assist games:

St Louis-AL, Aug. 8, 1943 (at CLE, G2)
Cleveland, July 4, 1945 (vs. NYY, G1)
New York-NL, June 25, 1989 (vs. PHI)
New York-AL, Sept. 11, 1995 (at CLE)
Cincinnati, Aug. 20, 1997 (vs. COL)
Baltimore, June 20, 2000 (at OAK)
Tampa Bay, May 1, 2002 (at MIN)
Tampa Bay, May 17, 2003 (at BAL)

How To Figure Baseball Statistics

Earned Run Average » (ERx9)/IP
Earned runs multiplied by 9, then divided by innings pitched (0.1 innings = .333, 0.2 innings = .667).

Batting Average » H/AB
Hits divided by at-bats.

Slugging Percentage » TB/AB
Total number of bases divided by at-bats (single = 1 base, double = 2 bases, triple = 3 bases, home run = 4 bases).

Fielding Percentage » (PO+A)/(PO+A+E)
Putouts plus assists divided by total chances (putouts plus assists plus errors).

On-Base Percentage » (H+BB+HBP)/(AB+BB+HBP+SF)
Hits plus walks plus hit-by-pitch divided by at-bats plus walks plus hit-by-pitch plus sacrifice flies.

Win-Loss Percentage » Number of games won divided by total games played.

Magic Numbers » Compute the number of games remaining, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

On The Catwalk

There are four catwalks located above the playing surface at Tropicana Field. They are labeled the "A", "B", "C" and "D" rings with the lowest ring the "D" ring.

- The "D" ring ranges from 59 feet above the playing surface in CF to 121 feet behind home plate.
- The "C" ring ranges from 99 feet in CF to 146 behind home plate.
- The "B" ring ranges from 142 feet in CF to 173 feet behind home plate.
- The "A" ring ranges from 181 feet in CF to 194 feet behind home plate.

In eight seasons, 75 fair balls have struck the catwalks: 18 off the "B" ring, 44 off the "C" ring and 13 off the "D" ring. The catwalks were hit seven times in the 2006 season, four of those by Jonny Gomes. Jason Giambi is the only visiting player to hit one three times: back-to-back days, Sept. 12-13, 1999 and April 4, 2003. All told, 17 Devil Rays have hit a ball off the catwalks: Greg Vaughn (6), Jonny Gomes (5), Fred McGriff (4), Ben Grieve (3), Jose Canseco (3), Vinny Castilla (2),Travis Lee (2), Paul Sorrento (1), Bubba Trammell (1), Randy Winn (1), Jared Sandberg (1), Gerald Williams (1), Aubrey Huff (1), Rocco Baldelli (1) Eduardo Perez (1), Pete Laforest (1) and Carl Crawford (1).

What Is A Devil Ray?

Tampa Bay was granted a major league franchise on March 9, 1995. During the weeks surrounding that date, more than 7,000 suggested names were submitted by the people of Tampa Bay. Suggestions included such creative choices as Fruit Blossoms, Pteradactyls, Bigfeet, Backcrackers, Snowbirds and Toads.

The largest percentage of those suggestions included the name "Rays," an order of large, graceful fish that live primarily in the tropical waters off Florida's coast.

In a subsequent telephone contest in which more than 70,000 calls were received from Tampa Bay area residents, "Devil Rays" won out over "Manta Rays." Both names are actually used to describe the same fish. Devil Rays are the largest member of the Ray family measuring up to 23 feet long and weighing as much as 2,400 pounds. They are found in Florida waters: the Gulf of Mexico and along the Atlantic Coasts of the southern United States. They are massive, but gentle creatures, harmless to humans. The Devil Ray gets its name from the cephalic fins on the head that look like devil's horns. Although they are quite large, Devil Rays are known to leap from the water and can sail up to 20 feet in the air. Females of the species actually lay their eggs in flight and their offspring are known as "Pup Rays." Devil Rays are virtually impossible to keep in captivity.

Ron, 42, will begin his 11th season with the Devil Rays, second as Head Athletic Trainer. He previously served as major league assistant trainer for three years after six seasons as minor league medical and rehabilitation coordinator.

Prior to joining the Rays, Porterfield served as athletic trainer in the Houston Astros organization for nine years. He began in 1988 with the Auburn Astros of the New York-Penn League and finished with three seasons at Triple-A Tucson. Along the way he spent seasons in Kissimmee, Fla. (Rookie), Auburn, NY (A), Columbus, Geo. (AA) and Jackson, Miss. (AA).

A native of Santa Fe, N.M., Ron is a graduate of New Mexico State University and is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA).

He and wife, Barbara, have a son Alec (11), and a daughter Abbey (7), and reside in Parrish, Fla.

PAUL HARKER

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Paul, 38, enters his second year as the Rays Assistant Major League Athletic Trainer after spending the last three years as Tampa Bay's Minor League Athletic Training & Rehabilitation Coordinator. He owns 15 years working as an athletic trainer in the minor leagues including 10 with the Tampa Bay organization.

Harker began his athletic training career in professional baseball with the Seattle Mariners organization as the Athletic Trainer for the Mariners' minor league affiliates in Hampton, VA (1991-1992), Jacksonville, FL (1993-1994), and Wilmington, NC (1995-1996).

He and his wife Julie, and their children Derek, Cameron, and Paige reside in Tierra Verde, Fla.

KEVIN BARR

Strength and Conditioning Coordinator

K.B., 38, will begin his 13th season in professional baseball. He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise physiology and his master's degree in sports physiology from Ohio University. Following graduation, Kevin started as the Florida Marlins strength and conditioning intern from 1994-1995 before serving as the Kansas City Royals Major League strength and conditioning coordinator from 1996-1998. He also served as the minor league strength and conditioning coordinator for the Cincinnati Reds (1999-2000) and the Florida Marlins (2001). He played baseball at the University of Toledo (1988-91) before transferring to Ohio University.

Kevin resides in Sarasota with his wife Heather and their daughter Savannah (5) and son Christopher (3).

CHRIS FERNANDEZ
Video Coordinator

"Chico" is in his 10th season with the Devil Rays, ninth as video coordinator. He started with the organization in clubhouse operations.

Fernandez worked for the Cincinnati Reds and Toronto Blue Jays organizations before joining the Rays. Prior to that, the St. Petersburg native coached high school baseball for five years winning the Florida State Championship in 1997 with Naples Barron Collier HS.

He and wife, Merrilyn, have a son, Chad Joseph (6).

CHRIS WESTMORELAND
Equipment and Home Clubhouse Manager

Westy, 35, is entering his 11th season with the Devil Rays organization. He was promoted to major league equipment and home clubhouse manager in 2003 after six years as minor league equipment manager.

Prior to joining the Rays, Westy spent two seasons as minor league equipment manager for the Montreal Expos and two seasons as clubhouse manager for the Double-A Knoxville Smokies of the Toronto Blue Jays organization. He also spent a spring as a clubhouse assistant for the Texas Rangers as well as the major league All-Star Game at The Ballpark in Arlington.

He attended Sante Fe Community College in Gainesville and the University of Tennessee. He resides in St. Petersburg with wife, Anita, and daughter, Sierra (4).

GUY GALLAGHER
Visiting Clubhouse Manager

Guy begins his 10th season on the major league staff after serving the organization as minor league equipment and clubhouse manager in 1996-97.

Before joining Tampa Bay, he spent 12 seasons with the Florida State University baseball program as a student assistant and equipment and clubhouse manager. He graduated from FSU in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in physical education. A native of St. James, NY, Guy and his wife, Michelle, live in Safety Harbor, Fla.

OUTFIELDER

5 Rocco BALDELLI

Rocco Daniel Baldelli

Bats/Throws: R/R
Height/Weight: 6-4/200
Opening Day Age: 25
Tenure: 4 years
Born: 9/25/81 in Woonsocket, RI
Resides: St. Pete Beach, FL
Contract Status: Second year of a three-year contract plus one club option for the 2009 season and a second club option for 2010 and 2011 seasons
Acquired: Selected in the first round (6th overall) in the 2000 June Draft
Signing Scout: Matt Dodd (Devil Rays)

X-RAY REPORT

» Rocco was the Rays 2006 Roberto Clemente Award nominee. He started the Rocco Baldelli Foundation to help fund private education for students who are both academically and athletically gifted but cannot afford tuition.

» Rocco has a website – roccobaldelli.com – which sells autographed cards, bats, caps, etc. and the proceeds go toward providing deserving youngsters scholarships to Bishop Hendricken in Warwick, Rhode Island – his former high school.

» He is also involved with the Food Allergy and Anaphlaxis Network (FAAN). Rocco's youngest brother, Dante, has severe allergies including an allergy to peanuts. He has been able to watch Rocco play a handful of times at Tropicana Field, Boston and Cleveland. All proceeds from Rocco's public appearances benefit FAAN.

» He was an all-state player in baseball, volleyball and basketball at Bishop Hendricken... Informed college recruiters as a junior that he was going to play baseball...Had decided on Wake Forest over Princeton had he not signed with the Rays...Was also a president's list student at Bishop Hendricken and often tutored students in physics...Rocco's grade-point average was 4.25.

» Bishop Hendricken retired his jersey no. 22 last November in a ceremony at the new Hendricken auditorium, the 5th retired number in the school's 47-year history.

» Rocco explored the world of art during his extended stay on the disabled list last season. Using a sunflower seed as a stylus, Rocco created the likeness of three of his then-teammates – Mark Hendrickson, Julio Lugo and Toby Hall - on the side of Styrofoam cups. Rocco donated the cups to the Arts Center in St. Petersburg, a non-profit organization, which raffled them off, raising $1,100 for the Art Center's childrens programs.

» Rocco was nominated for the 2006 Tony Conigliaro Award given by the Boston BBWAA to the major league player who has overcome adversity through the attributes of spirit, determination and courage, trademarks of the former Red Sox star outfielder.

» Several years back, Rocco's father, Dan, constructed a batting cage for Rocco in the basement of his business building – the Hava Java Coffee Shop, ABAL Check Cashing and Mr. Pawn- all under one roof.

» Is said to have a 40-inch vertical jump...Has high-jumped 6-2 and ran a 5.5 in the 55 yard run in high school.

» During a January trip to Switzerland, Rocco traveled to the top of the Matterhorn, one of the world's tallest mountains (14,691 feet high).

2006 SEASON

» Enjoyed a remarkable comeback season after missing 221 games including all of 2005 due to two major injuries: tore the ACL in his left knee in October of 2004 and tore the ulnar colateral ligament in his right elbow while rehabbing from the knee injury in June of 2005 ...Was on target to open the season with the Rays then strained his left hamstring in spring training and landed back on the DL for the first two months of the season.

» Returned on June 7 and started 85 of the Rays remaining 103 games...From that point forward he was the Rays leader in runs (59), doubles (24), RBI (57) and home runs (16)....Over a full season, his numbers translate to 134 games played, 37 doubles, 25 home runs, 93 runs scored, 90 RBI and 71 extra base hits.

» Batted .355 (27-76) in June, his best month since the first month of his career (.364, April 2003).

» Of his 57 RBI, 26 were go-ahead or game-tying, a percentage of 45.6...Only 4 major leaguers had a better ratio (min 50 RBI).

» After Aug 18, only one American Leaguer had a better slugging average than Rocco's .667 mark: David Ortiz (.684)...Also batted .340 (52-153) after Aug 18, 9th best in the AL.

» His 10 home runs starting Aug 30 were bettered by only 3 major leaguers: Albert Pujols (11), Frank Thomas (11) and Mark Teixeira (11).

» His 9 home runs in September set a Rays record for that month surpassing the old mark of 8 held by Aubrey Huff in 2003.

» Batted .330 (30-91) with runners in scoring position, 3rd best season in club history.

» Moved primarily into the leadoff spot after Julio Lugo was traded to the Dodgers on July 31...Batted leadoff 42 times and hit .339 (62-183) with 11 home runs...Despite limited time at the top of the lineup, hit 5 homers leading off the first inning, tied with the Yankees' Johnny Damon for 2nd most in the AL behind Detroit's Curtis Granderson (6)...also tied the club record for a career– with Carl Crawford and Randy Winn.

Rays Best Seasons, Batting with Runners in Scoring Position

Carl Crawford, 2006	.348 (48-138)
Marlon Anderson, 2003	.341 (43-126)
Rocco Baldelli, 2006	.330 (30-91)
Jorge Cantu, 2005	.325 (53-163)
Carl Crawford, 2005	.324 (48-148)

» Didn't go back-to-back games without a hit after July 25 and didn't go three straight games without a hit all season.

» Had the first multi-homer game of his career Sep 14 at Yankee Stadium (both off Jeff Karstens) on his mom's (Michelle) birthday.

» Had a 4-hit game – tying his career high (3rd time) in just his 4th game back – at KC on June 11.

» Batted .373 (19-51) in Interleague play, 6th best season in club history (min 25 ABs).

» Had a 6-game stretch, Sep 13-18, where he batted .414 (12-29) with 10 runs scored, five homers and 7 RBI.

» Only six position players in the last 20 years missed more consecutive games and returned to play, none matched Rocco's numbers on their return...The others:

- 3B Herbert Perry, Cleveland-Tampa Bay, 1996-98, 341 games (right and left knees)
- C Ed Hearn, Kansas City, 1987-88, 285 games (shoulder)
- SS Shawon Dunston, Chicago-NL, 1992-93, 271 games (back)
- C Eddie Perez, Atlanta, 2000-01, 269 games (shoulder)
- OF Mike Colangelo, Anaheim, 1999-2000, 262 games (thumb)
- OF George Lombard, Atlanta, 2001-02, 232 games (foot)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

» Rehabbed his knee during most of the first half of the 2005 season, then injured his right elbow in mid-June while working out at the Rays minor league complex...tore the ulnar collateral ligament...was preparing to return to the Rays immediately after the All-Star Break... underwent "Tommy John" surgery on June 23...surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham...the procedure used a tendon from Baldelli's right wrist to replace the torn ligament...was expected to be out 8-9 months.

» Following his surgery he began dressing with the team following the All-Star Break and kept the pitching chart every game the rest of the season.

» On Nov. 10, he inked a six-year contract that could be worth more than $32 million...the deal includes two options, one covering 2009 and another for the 2010 and 2011 seasons.

◆ Made 131 starts in 2004, 120 in CF and 11 as DH...Missed 15 games when he went on the disabled list for the first time in his career...Was on the DL Aug 14-Sep 1 with a strained right quadriceps muscle... Aggravated the injury running to first base in the first inning Aug. 13 at Texas...Originally sustained the injury in mid-June and missed several games that month.

» The injury hampered him in August and he batted only .200 (9-45) that month after hitting a combined .301 (87-289) in May-June-July...Rebounded to hit .287 in September with five home runs, his most ever in one month.

» Tied with Oakland's Mark Kotsay, SD's Jay Payton and St. Louis' Jim Edmonds for the most assists among major league center fielders with 11... Was attempting to become the first player to lead the AL in outfield assists in each of his first two full seasons... Was tied for the AL lead in outfield assists as late as September 19...Finished tied for 4th.

» His 26 outfield assists over 2003-04 were 3rd most in the majors behind Richard Hidalgo (36) and Jose Cruz, Jr. (28).

» Got off to a slow start...Was batting only .195 on April 18, then batted .302 (98-325) over his next 82 games before entering injury-plagued August.

» Batted .315 (47-149) during the Rays' 32-13 run, May 20-July 7...Rays had the best record in baseball during that span...Batted .313 (25-80) in June when the Rays went 20-6, best month in club history.

» Set a club record with at least one RBI in 8 consecutive games, Sep 9-17 (13 RBI total).

» Homered twice off Curt Schilling and once off Pedro Martinez, making him one of six players to homer off both Boston aces in 2004...Also Gary Sheffield, Bret Boone, Tony Clark, Eric Hinske and Javy Lopez...Hinske and Rocco were the only two to homer off both at Fenway.

» Batted .347 (16-46) vs. the National League, 3rd best on the club, as the Rays went 15-3 in Interleague play.

» Batted .331 (41-124) vs. lefthanders, 7th best in the AL.

» Of his 75 RBI, 30 were game-tying or go-ahead, 40%.

» Connected for his first career grand slam July 22 at Minnesota off Juan Rincon (tied game 5-5 in the 8th).

» On Aug 12 at Boston, he threw out 2 runners at home in the 5th inning tying an AL record held by many players...He was the first Ray to get 2 outfield assists in the same inning and was the first player to throw out runners at home on consecutive plays since Gary Sheffield did it for the Dodgers vs. Pittsburgh on April 25, 2001.

» Had 34 infield hits, 7th in the AL...Had 29 as a rookie, 4th best in the league.

» Spent June 8 in a St. Petersburg hospital with a nasty bout of food poisoning.

» CRAWDELLI: Twenty-three year-old teammates Carl Crawford and Rocco Baldelli finished the season with 429 and 329 career hits respectively. Starting with Boston's Ted Williams and Bobby Doerr in 1941, we found only 9 teammates each with that many hits at 23 years of age or younger, none since Alan Trammell and Lou Whitaker in 1980.

» Set club rookie marks for ABs, hits, runs, doubles, extra base hits, stolen bases, RBI and games played and was one HR shy of club rookie record of 12 by Bubba Trammell in 1998.

» Native of Woonsocket, RI homered over the Green Monster Sept. 17 on "Rhode Island Night" at Fenway Park...Only two Rhode Island natives have ever had more hits in a season than Rocco's 184 hits and both are in the Hall of Fame: Nap Lajoie and Hugh Duffy.

» Set a major league record for most hits by a rookie through April with 40, surpassing Ichiro, who had 39 in 2001. The National Baseball Hall of Fame immediately put the ball on display.

» Became only the 7th American Leaguer and 16th player overall to get 40 hits thru April...he's also the youngest.

» Hit #40 was delivered with his first major league home run, a 3-run shot off Minnesota's Brad Radke on April 30...also had a career-high 5 RBI, tying the club mark for most RBI by a rookie.

» His .364 April average was the highest by an AL rookie thru April since 1987 when Kevin Seitzer hit .382 for Kansas City.

» Was AL's Rookie of the Month for April & May...his .340 avg. thru the first 2 months has been bettered by only 2 rookies over the last 20 years: Ichiro (.358) and Albert Pujols (.353) – both in 2001.

» Began his career with a 13-game hit streak...went hitless April 17 at Boston in a game started by Pedro Martinez...then hit in 10 straight...The 13-game streak is a club record for a rookie (previous Randy Winn 12 in 1998) and the second-longest to begin a career by a major leaguer in the last 14 years behind Juan Pierre who hit in his first 16 in 2000 for Colorado.

» His first major league hit was a double off Pedro Martinez on Opening Day, March 31.

» In a poll conducted by Baseball America, AL managers selected Baldelli as the 3rd fastest base runner in the league behind Ichiro and Crawford.

» On June 28, Rocco hosted "This Week in Baseball" becoming only the second rookie to host the show joining Phillies' shortstop Jimmy Rollins in 2001.

◆ Named 2002 Minor League Player of the Year by Baseball America and Sportsticker... Named the Rays Minor League Player of the Year as well...Also named to Sportsticker's All-Prospect team, the Topps Class A All-Star team and was tabbed the best 20-year-old prospect by Baseball America.

» Rhode Island native was also named Minor League Player of the Year by the Boston Baseball Writers Association of America...Received the award at their January banquet.

» Played in four different leagues – including the Arizona Fall League – appearing in 157 games including postseason and batted .323 (206-637) with 20 home runs, 36 stolen bases and 93 RBI while playing center field and hitting primarily out of the leadoff spot.

» Named MVP of All-Star Game between the California League and Carolina League on June 18 at Wilmington, DE. Game ended in a 3-3 tie. Baldelli had one of the two California League's hits, stole two bases and scored a run.

◆ Hit .249 with 23 doubles, 6 triples, 8 home runs, 55 RBI and 25 stolen bases for Class-A Charleston in his first professional season in 2001.

» Tied with Bakersfield's Ramon Soler for 3rd-most thefts in the organization behind teammate Irwin Centeno (48) and Orlando's Carl Crawford (36).

» Named the number five prospect in the Rays' organiztion by Baseball America...was also rated by the publication as the organization's Best Defensive Outfielder for the 2nd straight year.

◆ When Rocco was selected by the Rays with the sixth pick in the first round of the 2000 draft, he became the first Rhode Island resident to be selected in the draft's initial round since Bill Almon was chosen first by the San Diego Padres in 1974.

» Rated the 4th-best prospect in the Appy League and the Rays' 9th-best prospect by Baseball America.

AMATEUR

» Led Bishop Hendricken High School to four consecutive state baseball titles...in his last high school game he belted two home runs out of McCoy Stadium (home of the AAA Pawtucket Red Sox) to give Hendricken the 12-1 win and state title...was named MVP of the tournament.

» Also led the school to state titles in basketball and volleyball...in addition, won the Rhode Island Class A title in the 55-meter dash for indoor track.

» Rated as the best high school athlete in the 2000 amateur draft by Baseball America.

PERSONAL/MISC

» Was a 2004 inductee into the Rhode Island Italian-American Hall of Fame.

» Recently purchased a condo on St. Pete Beach...also owns one near his parents home in Cumberland, RI.

2006 SEASON

» Split the season between Double-A Montgomery and Durham, his first action at the Triple-A level...Combined at both stops to bat .282 with 20 doubles, 9 home runs and 48 RBI.

» Compiled an All-Star first half with the Biscuits earning the starting nod at third base on the Southern League's Southern All-Star squad.

» Homered in the season opener April 6 against Tennessee (D-Backs)...went on to hit safely in 15 of his first 18 games of the year including 10 straight April 11-20.

» Had his season interrupted April 24 at Mississippi when he left the game in the 4th inning with a strained oblique...landed on the disabled list the next day.

» Missed over a month with the injury (April 25-June 7)...was batting .333 at the time he was sidelined, hit just .270 the remainder of the year...only Delmon Young (.348) and Reid Brignac (.356) had better averages in April among Rays minor leaguers.

» Hit his second HR of the year June 8 at Carolina (Marlins) in his first game back from the injury.

» Was promoted to Durham on July 13 taking over first base duties from Kevin Witt.

» Hit at a .415 clip (22-53) with 4 of his 5 HR off lefties with the Bulls...batted just .254 off right-handers.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

» Wes owns 77 career home runs in the minors, fifth most ever by a Rays minor leaguer, including eight grand slams... He has averaged 20 doubles, 15 home runs and 67 RBI per season in his first five professional campaigns.

◆ Spent the majority of the 2005 season at Montgomery where he batted .292 with 17 doubles and 12 home runs in 82 contests.

» His 6 errors were tied for the third fewest in the Southern League among all first basemen with at least 50 gms played at the position...His .991 fielding pct. also ranked third in the league.

» Had his fifth career multi-home run game July 27 at Birmingham (White Sox).

» Opened the year at Single-A Visalia after missing the first month of action with a torn left meniscus (knee)...batted .387 (24-for-62, 4-2B, 3-HR) hitting safely in 15 of his 17 games before his promotion to the Biscuits.

» Belted his seventh career grand slam on May 22 at Rancho Cucamonga (Angels)...also hit a 2-run HR, his fourth career multi-HR game...set a career high with 6 RBI in the contest.

» Was a combined 5-for-9 on the year with the bases loaded with 3 doubles, a home run and 16 RBI.

» Named the 7th best prospect in the organization by Baseball America.

◆ Named Single-A Charleston's Player of the Year in 2004 setting career highs in nearly every offensive category....Named to the SAL midseason All-Star team.

» Drove in a career-high 101 runs, tied for the fourth most in the South Atlantic League...He and fellow RiverDog Delmon Young became the first set of teammates in the SAL to each record 100 RBI in the same season since Ronald Wright (104) and Andruw Jones (101) with Macon in 1995.

» His 56 extra-base hits were tied for tops on the team and sixth most in the league.

» Also led the team with 73 walks, 42 multi-hit games and a career-high .390 on-base percentage.

» Connected for his fifth career grand slam May 20 vs. Augusta...collected his sixth career GS July 20 on an inside-the-park home run against Rome (ATL).

» Enjoyed his second career multi-homer game on May 24 at Capital City (NYM) then repeated the feat two games later at Greensboro (FLA).

» Belted a 2-run home run May 28 at Greensboro, one of 8 home runs by Charleston batters setting a league single-game record.

» Awarded the Rays' May player of the month after batting .299 with 6 homers and 30 RBI.

◆ Spent the 2003 season at Charleston.

» Named Rays June player of the month: .411 (37-for-90), six doubles, three HR and 18 RBI.

» Hit safely in 25 of 26 games between May 15 and July 2 including a career-high 16 straight.

» Belted his fourth career grand slam July 22 against Rome (ATL).

» Rated the 7th best prospect in the organization by Baseball America.

◆ Awarded Co-Player of the Year (also Jason Pridie) at Princeton (R) in 2002 in his pro debut.

» Named the Appalachian League's MVP...was the third Ray to win the honor (Jonny Gomes-2001, Jared Sandberg-1997).

» Set the Princeton club record with a league most-18 home runs surpassing Sandberg's mark of 17 set in 1997...was one of three Rays farmhands that season to lead his respective league in homers...was the fourth highest total among Rays minor leaguers that season.

» Belted a home run in five consecutive games Aug. 10-14.

» Led the Rays organization with three grand slams (July 18, Aug. 12 and 18).

» Also captured the league's RBI title with 57, including two 4-RBI and two 5-RBI games...had a streak of eight straight games with a RBI Aug. 6-14 (16 total).

» Ranked high in hits (3rd-74), extra-base hits (3rd-29) and slugging (2nd-.569).

» Named Topps Player of the Month for August after hitting .294 with nine home runs, 20 runs and 20 RBI...Also awarded the Rays' co-minor league August player of the month.

» Rated as the 2nd best prospect in the Appalachian League, 6th best prospect in the Rays' organization and an All-Star among 18-year-old players by Baseball America.

PERSONAL/MISC

» Was a three-year starter at quarterback for Plano East (TX) High School...was selected District 9-5A Offensive Player of the Year his senior season...committed to University of Texas prior to getting drafted by the Rays.

X-RAY REPORT

» Shawn enjoys hunting white tail deer and black bears in the offseason near the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia. He finds hunting relaxing and a good tool to hone his focus and poise on the mound.

» Shawn is one of four George Mason University (Fairfax, VA) alumni to play in the majors, along with C Chris Widger (1995-2005) RHP Mike Draper (1993) and OF Mike Colangelo (1999, 2001-02). Rays PR chief Rick Vaughn also pitched at George Mason (a long time ago).

2006 SEASON

» His first full season in the major leagues he set a club record with 75 appearances (prev. 72 by Roberto Hernandez in 1999)...were four more than his career total entering the season…his previous career high was 41 in 2004 for Kansas City.

» Tied for 2nd in the American League in games pitched with MIN Juan Rincon behind the Yankees' Scott Proctor (83).

» His 75.0 relief innings pitched tied the Yankees' Mariano Rivera for 11th most in the AL…entered the year with a total of 115.2 innings pitched in his career.

» His 7 relief wins tied the club record – also Lance Carter-2003, Jim Mecir-1998 and Albie Lopez-1998…only the Mariners' Julio Mateo had more among AL relievers with 9.

» Was one of 5 Rays (2 pitchers) to be active for every game – also Carl Crawford, Damon Hollins, Brian Meadows and Josh Paul.

» Saved 4 games…had just a pair in his career entering the season, both in '04.

» Pitched to a 2.66 ERA through the season's first two months (23.2-IP, 7-ER, 2-HR)…then worked to a 5.61 ERA the rest of the season (51.1-IP, 32-ER, 7-HR).

» Pitched in a career-high 3 consecutive days 6 times on the season.

» Made his Rays debut in the season opener at BAL, pitching the final 1.2, all scoreless.

» Did not allow a run on the road until June 10 at KC…went 13 apps (10.2 innings) without… had a 3.04 ERA on the road until September, when he allowed runs in each of his 5 outings away from Tropicana Field that month (6-ER, 3.1-IP) to finish with a road ERA of 4.50.

» Was unscored upon in 7 interleague games (9-IP).

» Had the most difficulty against a pair of division mates: Boston and Toronto…pitched to a 9.16 ERA against those two (18.2-IP, 35-H, 19-ER, 4-HR, .417 opp avg.) and a 3.20 ERA against everyone else (56.1-IP, 58-H, 20-ER, 5-HR, .272 opp avg.).

» Allowed the first grand slam of his career July 6 vs. Boston (David Ortiz).

» Suffered his first loss of the season Aug 8 at SEA...allowed a leadoff double to Ichiro in the 10th...scored on Sexson walk-off slam off McClung...loss #2 was also in walk-off fashion, but he was on the mound this time – allowed a 9th-inning RBI single to Ramon Hernandez, August 26 at Baltimore.

» Allowed the two longest home runs hit at Tropicana Field in 2006: Manny Ramirez, July 4, 457 ft. off the Batter's Eye Restaurant in dead center (10th longest ever hit at the Trop) and a 437 ft. blast to right field by CLE Travis Hafner on Aug. 19.

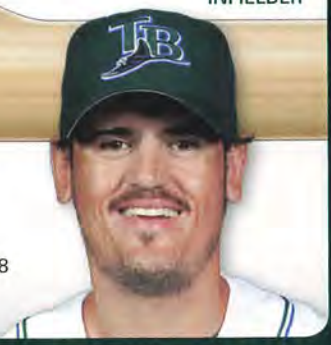
3 Jorge CANTU

Jorge Luis Cantu



Bats/Throws: R/R
Height/Weight: 6-3/200
Opening Day Age: 25
Tenure: 2 years 79 days
Born: 1/30/82 in McAllen, TX
Resides: McAllen, TX
Contract Status: Signed through 2007
Acquired: Signed as a non-drafted free agent on July 2, 1998
Signing Scout: Rudy Santin (Devil Rays)

X-RAY REPORT

» Jorge has dual citizenship – US and Mexico. He was actually born in Texas, but moved to Mexico when he was one week old and was raised there until signing a professional contract with the Devil Rays at age 16. He finished high school in Texas following the summer baseball seasons.

» A proud Jorge phoned the Mexico Little League team just prior to their 11-0 win over Latin America last August that sent them to the Little League World Series International finals against Asia. Mexico lost 3-0 in the finals.

» Jorge wants to be a full-time cowboy or "Charro" (a traditional cowboy of Mexico) when his playing days are over. He spends his off-season working on his family's 8,645-acre cattle ranch in Reynosa, Mexico. He resides in McAllen, Texas, just across the border from Reynosa.

» November 20, 2005 was a big day in Jorge's life. First there was breakfast with Mexican President Vicente Fox. Then Cantu was presented the Premio Nacional de Deportes (Mexico's national sports award) as the country's athlete of the year for baseball. Finally there was an open car ride through the streets of Mexico City in a parade that marked the Mexican Revolution.

2006 SEASON

» Batted .249 with 18 doubles, 14 home runs and 62 RBI after hitting .286 in 2005 with 40 doubles, 28 HR and a team-record 117 RBI while winning team MVP honors...did spend a 6-week stint on the disabled list.

» In addition, batted .223 (25-112) with runners in scoring position, more than 100 points below what he hit a year earlier in that spot (.325)...was lowest on the Rays and 6th lowest in the AL.

» Made his second consecutive Opening Day start at second base...knocked in the Rays first run of season with a first-inning sacrifice fly at Baltimore.

» Was batting .291 (16-55) at the time he was shelved...hit .243 the rest of the season (87-358) after being activated.

» Had a 10-game hit streak at the time he was DI'd, one shy of his career high...went 0-for-4 his first game back, then hit in another 5 straight, including a 4-hit game June 10 at Kansas City, the 2nd 4-hit game of his career (Sep 30, 2004 vs. DET-G2).

» Connected for his first career grand slam July 21 vs. Baltimore off Adam Loewen...recorded a Rays season-high 5 RBI that day tying his career high (also Aug 26, 2005 vs. the Angels).

» Made 105 starts, 103 at 2nd base and 2 at DH...committed 13 errors, 3rd most among AL 2nd basemen behind TEX Ian Kinsler (18) and SEA Jose Lopez (16).

» Hit everywhere in the lineup except leadoff and 9th.

» Hit nearly 80 points better at home (.292) than on the road (.213).

» Also batted nearly 75 points better from the 7th inning on (.299) than the first 6 innings (.225).

» Grounded into a team-high 16 double plays...set a club record in 2005 with 24...his 40 over the two-year period are 5th most in AL.

» Batted .377 vs. Baltimore (20-53), the highest of any major leaguer with 50 or more AB.

» Represented Mexico in the inaugural World Baseball Classic...batted .364 (7-for-20) with 2 HR and 6 RBI.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Named team MVP in 2005 by the Tampa Bay BBWAA...Set a club record for RBI in a season with 117, tied with St. Louis' Albert Pujols and Philadelphia's Pat Burrell for 8th in the majors.... Only 10 players since 1961 have driven in more runs in a season before the age of 24...It was the most by a player before the age of 24 since Pujols had 124 in 2003 and the most by an AL player at that age since Alex Rodriguez with Seattle in 1998.

» Batted .336 (38-113) vs. the AL West Division with 30 RBI in 29 games...Included was a career-high 5 RBI game vs. Los Angeles on Aug 27…Batted 40 points higher against right-handers than lefties (.296 to .256).

» Got RBI #100 at Yankee Stadium on Sep 8, a first-inning double off Chien-Ming Wang.

» Grounded into a club-record 24 double plays, 3rd most in the AL.

» His "walk-off" home run on May 10 off Shingo Takatsu gave the Rays a 7-6 win and assured the Rays of winning the 3-game series from Chicago, their first winning series against the World Champs since 2003.

◆ Finished 3rd in batting among AL rookies in 2004 with 150 or more plate appearances with a .301 average…His 20 doubles were also 3rd among AL rookies.

» Named Rays Most Outstanding Rookie by the Tampa Bay chapter of the BBWAA.

» Split the season at AAA Durham and with the Rays and had a combined 53 doubles, tied for the 2nd most in all of pro ball…Trailed only Josh Kroeger who had 54 with the Diamondbacks, AAA Tucson and AA El Paso…Tied with Lyle Overbay who had 53, all with the Brewers… Cantu had a combined 79 extra base hits with both clubs.

» Made two tours with the Rays and started 46 games: 2B-32, DH-3, 3B-10, SS-1.

» Was up with the Rays, July 17-31 and batted .300 (9-30, 2B-4, RBI-3) in 9 games, 8 starts… Returned August 13 and started 38 of the Rays final 46 games and batted .301 (43-143, 2B-16, HR-2, RBI-14).

» Had a 4-hit game in the season finale at Tropicana Field on Sep 30 in a 6-4 win over Detroit, tying the club record for most hits in a game by a rookie.

» Batted .370 (17-46, 6-2B, 3B, HR, 8-RBI) in his last 13 games.

» Hit his first major league home run at Yankee Stadium (Sep 6 off El Duque)…First big league hit came July 18 off Dave Borkowski, a 2nd-inning single at Baltimore.

» On Sept. 2, when Cantu (22 years old) started at second base and BJ Upton (20) started at shortstop it was the youngest keystone combination we could find since Brian Giles (23) and Jose Oquendo (19) were in the lineup together for the Mets in 1983.

» Named to the International League year-end All-Star team.

» Finished as the International League's leader in slugging percentage (.576) edging out teammate Matt Diaz (.571)…Despite missing more than 4 weeks of Durham's season he finished tied for 8th in the IL with 56 extra base hits.

◆ Split the 2003 season between AA Orlando and Durham and set then career highs with seven home runs and 47 RBI…In 2002 ranked 3rd in the Southern League with 31 doubles and 512 at-bats…tied for 3rd in all of minor league baseball with 41 errors…in 2001, was the youngest player at the AA level at the age of 19 and named to the Southern League All-Star team…his first full professional season in 2000 he split the year between Class A Charleston and St. Petersburg (A)…began his professional career in 1999 at short-season A Hudson Valley…played all 72 games at shortstop.

PERSONAL/MISC

» Although soccer is the dominant sport in Mexico, Jorge never played. He was the first of any of his family or friends to play baseball and idolized Cal Ripken, Jr. growing up.

» Jorge was spotted playing in a Junior Olympic tournament in Mexico City while in high school and offered a contract with the Devil Rays at age 16.

» In 2003, Jorge played for the Mexican national team in the regional qualifiers for the Olympics. His team defeated the U.S. team, eliminating them from the 2004 summer games in Athens. Mexico then lost to Canada, which featured then-Durham teammate Pete Laforest, and were also eliminated.

» Jorge is involved with St. Petersburg's Miracle League for youngsters with special needs.

X-RAY REPORT

» Tim's hometown of Slaughter, LA is about 100 miles northwest of New Orleans and except for some tree damage, escaped serious harm during Hurricane Katrina.

» Tim is a clubhouse favorite with his numerous impressions, including Hall of Fame broadcaster Harry Carey and actor Sean Connery.

» Is an avid Cribbage player.

2006 SEASON

» 28-year-old rookie was selected June 14 from AAA Durham with RH Tyler Walker heading to the 15-day DL.

» Made 3 appearances out of the bullpen before moving into the rotation when RH Seth McClung was optioned to AAA.

» Was 5-9 with a 4.38 ERA, in 21 games, 16 starts, with the Rays walking 48 while striking out 59…allowed 3 earned runs or less in 13 of his 16 starts.

» Among AL rookie starters, his ERA ranked 6th best, his 90.1 IP were 10th most and his .271 opponent's batting average was 7th best.

» Earned his first major league win in his first start June 24 at home vs. Atlanta… worked 5 innings (H-4, R-1, ER-1, BB-3, SO-2) in a 3-2 win over the Braves and Lance Cormier.

» Won his first 3 starts and his first 4 decisions overall becoming only the second Rays pitcher ever to begin his major league career 4-0 (James Shields also did it earlier in 2006).

» Did not win again until his final start of the season Sept 27 at Fenway Park as the Rays recorded their largest shutout ever - 11-0 over the Red Sox and Josh Beckett…Corcy tossed 6.2 shutout innings allowing 4 hits and 5 walks while striking out 7…joined Jae Seo as the only Rays starters to earn a road win in the 2nd half.

» Was Boston's worst shutout loss since a 12-0 setback on Aug. 5, 2005 at Minnesota and the worst shutout at Fenway Park since an 18-0 loss to Milwaukee on April 16, 1990.

» The win snapped a 9-game losing streak for Corcoran over 13 starts – all following the All-Star Break...was his first win as a starter since July 5 at home also against Boston (won July 9 in relief vs. NY).

» His 9-game slide was the longest losing streak in the majors over the last two seasons and tied with Joe Kennedy (2003) as the 3rd longest losing streak in club history behind Jeremi Gonzalez (11, 2003-04) and Albie Lopez (10, 2001).

» Was Corcoran's first road win since an 11-1 win June 30 at Washington when he threw a career-high 7.0 inn. of shutout ball and struck out a career-most 8 – a span of 6 starts (0-5, 7.33 ERA).

» Pre All-Star Break: 4-0, 1.57 ERA, 23.0-IP, 19-H, 4-R/ER, 9-BB, 15-SO, 1-HR, .235 opp. avg., 7 G, 3 GS.

» Post All-Star Break: 1-9, 5.35 ERA, 67.1-IP, 73-H, 44-R, 40-ER, 39-BB, 44-SO, 9-HR, .283 opp. avg. 14 G, 13 GS...Rays were 2-11 in his 13 starts after the break.

» Made 19 appearances, 3 starts, with Durham posting a 5-1 record with a save and a 1.91 ERA, (37.2 IP, 30 H, 9 BB, 32 SO)...12 of his 16 relief outings were scoreless.

» Allowed just 4 ER combined over his last 13 outings (17.1 IP), including a stretch of 9 straight outings without allowing an ER (May 11-30).

» Stepped into the Bulls rotation for 3 starts April 13-23...was 1-0 with a 1.93 ERA (14.0-IP, 3-ER).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

» Former 44th round selection of the Mets in 1996...he has twice been selected in Rule V drafts...first by the Orioles from the Mets in 2000 and pitched 3 seasons in the Orioles system, reaching AA Bowie...Rays then selected him following the 2003 season.

◆ Had two tours with the Rays in 2005, his first action at the major league level... Pitched to a 5.96 ERA (IP-22.2, ER-15) with no record in 10 games, with 12 walks and 13 strikeouts.

» Was recalled from AAA Durham June 13 when LH Trever Miller went on the DL...appeared in two games allowing one run in 4.0 innings of work...optioned back to Durham June 28 when Miller returned.

» Made his major league debut June 14 vs. Milwaukee, pitching 2.0 scoreless innings (1-H, 1-BB)...Rays were blanked by Tomo Ohka, 4-0.

» Returned Aug. 9 making eight appearances, one start, through the end of the season.

» Tied the Rays' season high with 5 strikeouts, all in a 6-batter stretch, in 3.0 hitless innings of relief Aug. 10 at Baltimore upon his return to the Rays...was first of 3 consecutive scoreless outings (6-IP, 3-H, 0-BB, 6-SO).

» One and only start came in the season finale Oct 2 vs. Baltimore...tossed four no-hit innings before giving up a 2-run home run to Sal Fasano in the 5th...Did not draw a decision in the Rays' 6-2 loss to the O's...Tim's line: 4.1-IP, 2-H, 2-R/ER, 3-BB, 2-SO...Was just his 12th start in 313 professional outings.

» Named Durham's Pitcher of the Year after going 5-1 with a team-best 2.89 ERA (IP-56.0, ER-18)... held opponents to a .230 average and was especially tough on righties holding them to a .188 mark...appeared 29 times out of the 'pen, 20 of which were scoreless.

» Combined with starter Jimmy Anderson and reliever Carlos Hines on Durham's first shutout of the season on July 2, a 4-0 win over Syracuse (Blue Jays).

◆ Was a combined 3-4, 3.63 ERA with Durham and Montgomery (AA) in 2004, his first season with the Tampa Bay organization.

» Began the year with the Bulls allowing 4 runs in as many games...Transferred to Montgomery on May 5...Promoted back to Durham May 29 for the remainder of the year.

» Closed out the year with 3 straight perfect outings and allowed just 3 ER over his final 9 appearances (10.1 IP).

» Allowed a solo home run in 3 consecutive games July 4-9...Had surrendered only 3 HR the entire year previous to that...Did not allow another homer the remainder of the season.

» Had his best month in June when he allowed just 6 ER in 20.0 IP, a 2.70 ERA, and held opponents to a .194 average (13-67).

» Tossed a career-high 5.0 innings of relief June 3 against Norfolk (Mets): 1 R/ER, 3 H, 4 BB, 2K.

» Appeared in 6 games, 2 starts, at Montgomery with a 2.76 ERA (16.1 IP, 5 ER).

» Made back-to-back starts May 15 and 20 with the Biscuits...Tossed 4.0 shutout innings in his first start (2 H, 3 K) then allowed 3 runs in 4.0 innings in the second start (BB, 5 K, 2 HR).

◆ Split the 2003 season between Frederick (A) and Bowie (AA) of the Baltimore organization, appearing in a career-high 48 games.

» Was a combined 6-6 with a 4.95 ERA (IP-91.0, ER-50).

» Did not give up a run in his first 4 outings with the Double-A Baysox including a 4.0-inning shutout relief performance May 7 at Erie (Tigers).

» Made 3 starts with Frederick, his first action as a starter since 1999.

» Surrendered 7 hits and 6 runs in 1.1 innings of work in the 3rd inning Aug. 3 vs. New Britain (Twins)...The 14 runs and 13 hits allowed by Baysox pitching in the 3rd frame was a franchise high as well as the 26 total hits in the game by the visiting Rock Cats.

» Selected by Tampa Bay in the AAA Phase of the Rule V Draft on Dec. 15, 2003.

◆ Appeared in 35 games with Double-A Bowie during the 2002 season despite missing the entire month of June with a strained right biceps muscle.

» Returned from the injury July 2 and pitched to a 1.50 ERA (IP-24.0, ER-4) over his final 17 outings of the year including a streak of 10 straight games in which he did not allow an earned run July 2-Aug. 4 (18.1 IP, 3 R).

» Had allowed 16 earned runs in 18 games (5.76 ERA) before he landed on the DL.

◆ Made his debut with the Orioles organization in 2001 playing with Frederick (A) and Bowie (AA).

» Allowed just 4 hits and 1 run in 7 appearances (0.77 ERA) with Bowie before he was shut down on Aug. 20 for the remainder of the season due to right shoulder tendinitis.

» Began the season with Frederick and was second on the staff with 25 games finished and a career-high 6 saves at the time of his promotion on July 16.

» Compiled a 22.0-inning scoreless streak May 11-July 1...Struck out 13 and held opponents to a .159 average (11-69) over the 14-game stretch.

◆ Began the 2000 season on the DL with a strained groin.

» Returned to Capital City (A) of the South Atlantic League Apr 21...Allowed just 3 ER in his first 11 appearances (15.2 IP), a 1.72 ERA.

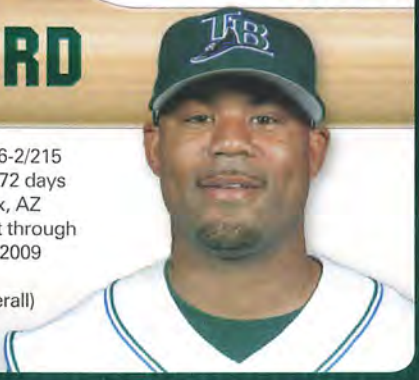
OUTFIELDER

13 Carl CRAWFORD

Carl Demonte Crawford



Bats/Throws: L/L
Opening Day Age: 25
Tenure: 4 years, 72 days
Born: 8/5/81 in Houston, TX
Resides: Phoenix, AZ
Contract Status: Third year of a four-year contract through 2008 plus two one-year club options covering the 2009 and 2010 seasons
Acquired: Selected in the second round (52nd overall) of the 1999 June Draft
Signing Scout: Doug Gassaway (Devil Rays)

X-RAY REPORT

» Carl became involved in the Rays Youth Field Renovation Program this spring when he lent his support and helped fund the team's project to improve the West Tampa Little League Fields.

» As part of the contract he signed in 2005, Carl will donate more than $400,000 to the Rays charitable foundation.

» Carl was offered a football scholarship to the University of Nebraska to be an option quarterback and a basketball scholarship to UCLA to be a point guard.

» Carl played defense his first two years at Houston's Jefferson Davis High School, but when the starting quarterback was injured at the start of his junior season, Carl moved to QB and the Panthers scored 50 points in his first game. He also averaged 25.0 points per game in basketball at Davis and batted .563 with 29 stolen bases as a senior.

» His brother, Cory, was a wide receiver at Sam Houston State, 2004-05.

» Carl grew up just a few minutes from the future site of Houston's Minute Maid Park in what is known as the "Fifth Ward" neighborhood.

2006 SEASON

» Became just the 2nd player all-time to increase his home runs and batting average over five consecutive seasons (min 250 ABs per season)...Joins Hall of Famer Rogers Hornsby who did it with the Cardinals, 1918-22...Carl came within 5 RBI of increasing that total each year over 5 years as well.

Harry Stovey	1889	19	63	.308
Carl Crawford	2006	18	58	.305

» Only six players (one American Leaguer) all-time have reached his totals for home runs (18) and steals (58) in one season...The Mets' Jose Reyes also did it in 2006, making he and Carl the first two players to do it since Rickey Henderson with Oakland in 1991...Henderson did it 4 times (1985-86-90-91)...The others: Joe Morgan (Cin, 1976), Eric Davis (Cin, 1986), Cesar Cedeno (Hou, 1976) and Harry Stovey who did it for the Philadelphia Athletics in 1889.

Major League Infield Hit Leaders 2003 - 06

1. Juan Pierre	195
2. Ichiro	177
3. Luis Castillo	162
4. Carl Crawford	130
5. Willy Taveras	115

» Only three of those players – Henderson, Morgan and Stovey reached Crawford's numbers in homers, steals AND average in one season.

» Led the AL in steals and triples and was 6th in batting with runners in scoring position, 6th in multi-hit games, 10th in hits and tied for 8th in outfield assists with a career-high tying 10.

» Was the only Ray to have enough plate appearances to qualify for the batting title…Led the Rays in 11 offensive categories including games (151), at-bats (600), average (.305), runs (89), hits (183), triples (16), sacrifice bunts (9) and steals (58)…His 59 multi-hit games and .348 average with runners in scoring position were club records.

» At his current pace, Crawford will reach 1,000 hits, 300 steals and 100 triples before the age of 28...Only one player in the modern era has ever done that: Ty Cobb.

» Is one of just 6 players with 175+ hits in each of the last four seasons…Also Ichiro, Albert Pujols, Juan Pierre, Michael Young and Miguel Tejada.

» Beginning May 22 thru the end of the season, he batted .321 (141-439) in 109 games with 17 HR and 60 RBI…Had his best stretch between May 22 and July 5 when he batted .392 (60-153) with 11 HR in 36 games…Only AL batting champ Joe Mauer had a higher average in the majors during that span (.447).

» His .292 career batting average is tops in Rays history among players with 1,000 or more at-bats.

» Became the first Rays player to have two .300 seasons.

» Reached the All-Star Break with a .323 batting average, 32 steals and 13 home runs...Since the first All-Star Game in 1933, only two players (both Cincinnati Reds) reached those numbers at the break: Eric Davis in 1987 (.325, HR-27, SB-33) and Joe Morgan in 1975 (.345, HR-13, SB-40)…Both started in the All-Star Game…Carl was not even a member of the 2006 All-Star team.

» Started a team-high 148 games: 144-LF, 1-CF, 3-DH…His 314 total chances tied with Seattle's Raul Ibanez for most among AL left fielders.

» Tied for 4th in the AL with 9 sac bunts...is the club's all-time leader with 25 besting Miguel Cairo (24).

» Had 36 infield hits, 5th most in the majors and tied for the 2nd most in club history with Jason Tyner (2001)…Carl's 39 infield hits in 2003 remain the club record…Has 143 in his career, 45 more than any player in club history…Has 130 over the last 4 years, 4th most in the majors over that span.

» Was 6-for-10 with the bases loaded after going 0-for-8 in 2005.

» Had a career night May 24 at TOR when he went 5-for-5 with 5 runs scored and 4 stolen bases—all club records…He was the first player to get 5 hits and 4 steals in a game since Rickey Henderson on Apr 11, 1988…He followed that up with 3 hits and two more steals the next night at BOS becoming the first player since divisional play began in 1969 to get 8 hits and 6 steals over two games.

» Named AL co-player of the week with Detroit pitcher Justin Verlander for May 22-28…Was the first time for Crawford…C.C. hit .484 (15-31) over the week with 3 HR, 5 RBI and 8 SB.

» Had the first 3 multi-HR games of his career, all coming in a 27-game span - all on the road: June 11 at KC, May 26 at BOS and June 30 at WAS.

» Was 19-for-42 on the Rays 10-game road trip, May 22-June 1, setting a club record for most hits on a trip…Also had 4 HR and 10 RBI on the trip.

BEFORE THE AGE OF 25

» Only 4 players have exceeded Carl's numbers in doubles (103), triples (60) and home runs (47) before the age of 25: Joe Medwick, Fredy Lindstrom, Jimmie Foxx and Arky Vaughan...All are in the Hall of Fame.

» Since 1900, only one player exceeded Carl's totals for home runs (48) and steals (202) before the age of 25: Cesar Cedeno.

» Only one left-handed hitter in the modern era has reached his totals for hits and steals before the age of 25: Ty Cobb...Only two righties have done it: Sherry Magee and Cesar Cedeno.

» Reached his 25th birthday with 749 hits, only 7 active players have had more and only 22 players since World War II have had more...Ted Williams also had 749 hits before the age of 25.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ With a .301 average in 2005, 12th best in the AL, he became just the third .300 hitter in Devil Rays history joining Aubrey Huff (.311 in 2003) and Fred McGriff (.310 in 1999)...After the All-Star Break, he batted a team-best .326, 5th best in the AL...Finished with career highs in at-bats (644), hits (194), doubles (33), home runs (15), extra base hits (63) and RBI (81).

» Increased his batting average, home runs and RBI for the 3rd straight season...Is one of 8 active players to increase all 3 categories in their first 3 seasons in which they qualified for the batting title.The others: Carlos Baerga (1991-92-93), Mark Loretta (1999-03-04), Carlos Guillen (2001-02-04), Michael Young (2002-03-04), Todd Helton (1998-99-00), Marquis Grissom (1991-92-93), and Magglio Ordonez (1998-99-00).

» Did not get a plate appearance the last 5 games of the season due to a sore left wrist...Still finished with 194 hits, 46 steals, 81 RBI and 15 home runs...In major league history only 4 players have reached those numbers in a season, only 3 in the modern era: Hugh Duffy (Bos Braves, 1894), Johnny Damon (KC, 2000), Alex Rodriguez (SEA, 1998) and Craig Biggio (HOU, 1998).

» At the time of his wrist injury was having his best month ever...Batted .371 (33-89) in September, 2nd best in the AL, the best September in club history and the 5th best month ever by a Devil Ray...Hit safely in 20 of his 21 starts in September and in his only hitless start, he had a hit overturned a day later by the official scorer.

» He is the first American Leaguer since Lloyd Moseby (1984) to have 15 homers and 15 triples in a season...Also just the 5th player since World War II to reach 30 doubles, 15 HRs and 15 triples...He, CLE Grady Sizemore, ATL Rafael Furcal, PHI Jimmy Rollins and SEA Ichiro were the only players in the ML with double figures in 2B, 3B & HR in 2005.

» Carl reached his 24th birthday on August 5 with 565 hits, 46 triples and 157 steals...Only 2 players since 1900 have reached those plateaus before their 24th birthday: Ty Cobb (DET) and Sherry Magee (PHI-NL)...Both did it nearly 100 years ago...He reached the age of 24 with more hits than all but five members of the 3,000 hit club...Only Aaron, Kaline, Yount, Cobb and Musial had more...Among active players only Ken Griffey Jr. (832), Alex Rodriguez (766), Andruw Jones (654), Adrian Beltre (622), Ruben Sierra (620), Albert Pujols (591) and Pudge Rodriguez (569) had more hits before their 24th birthday.

» On July 8 he became just the 5th player all-time to have 150 SBs and 500 hits before turning 24. Joined Ty Cobb (Det 1905-10), Cesar Cedeno (Hou 1970-74), Rickey Henderson (Oak 1979-82) and Sherry Magee (Phi-NL 1904-08).

» His 194 hits were 6th in the AL and the 2nd most in club history behind Aubrey Huff's 198 in 2003...His .326 average vs. right-handed pitching was 4th in the AL.

» Led the AL in triples (15) for the second consecutive season...Has had 34 triples in 2004 and 2005 combined...The last player with more in consecutive seasons was the Yankees' Snuffy Stirnweiss in 1944-45 (38)...In fact in the last 75 years, only 4 players have had more in consecutive seasons...His 46 triples before the age of 24 are 12th most since 1900 and the most by a player that young since Garry Templeton with St. Louis (1976-79).

» Was 3rd in the AL in stolen bases (46)...His 157 steals before the age of 24 were 7th most in modern day history.

» In 2005, had the 3rd best success rate in the AL with 46 steals in 54 tries (85.2)...Trailed Texas' Alfonso Soriano (93.8) and the Angels' Orlando Cabrera (91.3)...Stole 3rd base 7 times, 5th best in the AL.

» Carl (46) and Julio Lugo (39) had the most combined steals by AL teammates (85) since 2001 when Seattle's Ichiro and Mark McLemore teamed up for 95... became the 9th set of teammates since 1900 and only the 4th since 1925 to reach 180+ hits and 35+ steals. The last to do it were Omar Vizquel and Roberto Alomar for the 1999 Indians...The others:

- 1901 .....Honus Wagner-Ginger Beaumont, Pittsburgh Pirates
- 1911-12.....Eddie Collins-Frank Baker, Phildelphia A's
- 1911-12.....Ty Cobb-Sam Crawford, Detroit Tigers
- 1922 .....Ken Williams-George Sisler, St. Louis Browns
- 1925 .....May Carey-KiKi Cuyler, Pittsburgh Pirates
- 1987 .....Ozzie Smith-Vince Coleman, St. Louis Cardinals
- 1989 .....Tony Gwynn-Roberto Alomar, San Diego Padres

» Had 24 more chances than any other major league leftfielder and had the best fielding percentage (.995) among AL leftfielders with 100 or more starts...Made 150 starts: 142 in LF and eight in CF...Overall ranked 4th among AL outfielders in fielding percentage with 100+ starts behind Toronto's Vernon Wells (1.000), Seattle's Ichiro (.995) and Boston's Trot Nixon (.996).

» Finished the season with 35 hits against the Yankees, batting .407 (35-86) in 18 games... According to the Elias Sports Bureau, since 1980, only one other player had as many as 35 hits in one season against an opposing team: Juan Pierre went 35-for-82 (.427) against the Diamondbacks in 2002...The last AL player with a hit total that high against an opponent was George Brett, who went 36-for-80 (.450) against the Angels in 1975.

» Batted .324 (48-148) with runners in scoring position, 2nd best on the team behind Jorge Cantu (.325)... His .314 average (103-328) on the road was 8th best in the AL.

» Scored 100+ runs for the 2nd consecutive season...No other Ray has scored 100 runs in a season... Scored at least one run in 14 of his last 18 games, including 9 straight Sep 11-20 (tied his career high and 1 shy of club record).

» Batted .320 (145-453) after his avg. was at a season-low .254 May 24...included was a team season high 12-game hit streak June 28-July 14.

» Moved to the no. 2 hole in the order on July 17...in 57 games after the move he was 84-for-257 (.327), 6-HR, 33-RBI.

» On April 6 he hit the 6th inside-the-park home run in club history – the first of his career- and also added a triple in the Rays' 6-run 8th inning, becoming the first American Leaguer to have a triple and an inside-the-park home run in the same game since Dwight Evans for Boston vs. KC on July 4, 1988.

» On Aug 2 at Texas, he tied a club record with 4 extra base hits: two doubles and two triples.

» Carl tagged up and scored from second base on a fly ball to CF off the bat of Jorge Cantu on Sep 20 against the Red Sox. He was the first to do that since the Angels' Adam Kennedy in 2004.

» On April 1, he signed a six-year contract with a potential value of more than $31 million, two one-year club options covering the 2009 and 2010 seasons, Crawford's first two years of free agency.

◆ In 2004, Crawford became the 4th youngest ever to win back-to-back league stolen base titles (AL or NL) behind Tim Raines (1981-82, Expos), Rickey Henderson (1980-81, A's) and Ben Chapman (1931-32, Yankees)...With a club record 59 steals, he had 23 more than anyone else in the AL, the biggest margin in the AL since 1989 when Rickey Henderson had 32 more than Cecil Espy...Was 2nd in the majors behind Milwaukee's Scott Podsednik (70).

» Improved in every offensive category over 2003 and lowered his strikeouts.

» Reached 175 hits and 50 steals in his first two seasons...Only six others in major league history have reached those figures in their first two full seasons: Eddie Collins (1909-10), Willie Wilson (1979-80), Tim Raines (1982-83), Mookie Wilson (1982-83), Juan Samuel (1984-85) and Tony Womack (1997-98).

» Led the majors with 19 triples...Youngest player to lead the AL in triples since Cristian Guzman in 2000...Only 5 players have had more triples than Crawford's 19 in the last 55 years...Only 10 players in major league history have had as many triples in a season at a younger age...Included on that list are Stan Musial (1943), Ty Cobb (1908), Shoeless Joe Jackson (1912) & Arky Vaughan (1933).

2006 SEASON

» Began the season on the disabled list with a viral infection, one of many Rockies players to experience the unusual illness at the start of the year.

» Made a rehab assignment with Class-A Modesto and Triple-A Colorado Springs before returning to the major league club on April 18.

» Allowed 2 runs in 1.2 IP in his season debut the next night against San Diego...followed that outing with 6.0 scoreless innings over his next 7 appearances through May 9.

» Recorded his first career save April 28 at Florida fanning 2 of the 3 batters he faced in the Rockies' 3-2, 10th inning win.

» Was optioned back to Colorado Springs on May 23 when Sun-Woo Kim was activated off the DL.

» Spent just 11 days with the Sky Sox before returning the Rockies on June 3...allowed 11 runs in 14 outings including 4 home runs in an 8-game span during his second stint landing him back at Triple-A on July 17.

» Was acquired by the Royals on July 31 along with first baseman Ryan Shealy in exchange for pitchers Jeremy Affeldt (LH) and Denny Bautista (RH).

» Made his Kansas City debut the next day against the White Sox allowing a run in 1.1 innings of relief.

» Allowed runs in 11 of his 21 outings with the Royals as opponents hit .347 off him...earned his lone KC win on Aug. 9 vs. Boston, tossing 1.2 scoreless innings.

» Was a combined 2-4 with a 7.08 ERA in 48 appearances between Colorado and KC...was the 2nd highest ERA in the majors among relievers with 30 or more innings pitched...only Royals teammate Andy Sisco (7.10) was higher.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Made his first Opening Day Roster in 2005 with the Rockies...Made 32 relief appearances over two stints with Colorado (2-1, 6.10 ERA) ranking among team leaders in holds (7, 3rd), relief strikeouts (35, T-5th) and appearances (T-9th)...struggled out of the gate allowing a pair of solo home runs in the season opener April 4 vs. San Diego...allowed homers in 4 of his first 5 outings...Was optioned to Colorado Springs on April 28 returning to the Rox on Aug 6...led all Rockies relievers from Aug 1 over the season's final two months...earned his first major league win on Aug 8 in the first game of a doubleheader against Florida tossing 2 scoreless innings before Dustan Mohr's walk-off home run sealed the win in the 11th...was 0-for-3 in save opportunities...was 2-1 with a save and a 4.38 ERA in 34 outings with the Sky Sox ranking 2nd with 53 strikeouts.

◆ Saw his first major league action in 2004 joining the Rockies on May 15 from Colorado Springs...made his ML debut that day vs. Philadelphia allowing 2 runs in 2.0 innings...returned to the Sky Sox two days but was back with Colorado for good on June 4...overall, was winless (0-3) with a 4.11 ERA striking out 49 batters in 46.0 IP, a 9.59 K/9 IP ratio, 6th best among NL rookies...opponents batted just .236 as he held lefties to a .211 average...Ran off a 15.1 inning scoreless streak from June 22-July 27 over 14 outings, the longest streak by a Rockies pitcher that season...exited the Aug 24 game at Atlanta when he was struck in the neck by a Chipper Jones line drive...returned to the mound two days later.

◆ Shifted to the bullpen with Double-A Tulsa in 2003...made four starts (1-5, 6.05 ERA) before becoming a reliever...in 46 relief appearances, was 8-2 with a 3.63 ERA holding opponents to a .232 batting average...tossed more than an inning in 26 of his outings.

◆ Earned a career-high 13 wins in 2002, 3rd most in the Rockies system...led his respective league in starts for the second straight season pacing the Salem staff with 28 outings...also tied Zack Parker for most starts in the Rox organization...led all Colorado farmhands with 170.1 innings, 3rd most in the Carolina League.

◆ Made 28 starts with Ashville (A) in 2001 tying for the South Atlantic League lead...allowed the most earned runs (83) and home runs (27) on the circuit...Tossed 3 complete games, including back-to-back CG losses June 26 at Augusta (2-0) and July 2 at Hickory (3-1)...hurled a 7.0-inning, one-hit shutout in game one of a July 29 Doubleheader at Charleston, SC.

◆ Drafted by the Rockies in the sixth round of the 2000 June Draft and made his pro debut with short-season Portland...surrendered just 2 ER in 23.0 innings (0.78 ERA) earning a promotion to Ashville on July 25.

PERSONAL/MISC

» Married to Tara with a son, Kristopher Gavin (2).

» Named the Sun Belt Conference Pitcher of the year after leading Louisiana Lafayette to the 2000 College World Series...pitched 6.1 innings against San Jose State to give the Ragin' Cajuns their first ever CWS victory...also named a 3rd team All-American by Collegiate Baseball that spring after compiling a 13-5 record with a 3.23 ERA and 130 strikeouts in 131.0 innings pitched.

» Played ball at St. Thomas Moore High School in Louisiana where he led his team to a pair of district championships.

Opening Day Age: 22
Tenure: 0
Born: 6/26/84 in Homestead, FL
Resides: Tampa, FL
Contract Status: Signed through 2007
Acquired: Selected by the Devil Rays in the third round of the 2002 June Draft
Signing Scout: Kevin Elfering (Devil Rays)

X-RAY REPORT

» Elijah graduated from Hillsborough High School in Tampa, Fla., the same school attended by major leaguers Carl Everett, Gary Sheffield, Mike Heath, Jason Romano, Vance Lovelace, Floyd Youmans and former Ray Dwight Gooden.

» He threw a no-hitter while attending Jefferson High School in Tampa prior to transferring to Hillsborough.

» Elijah is double-jointed.

2006 SEASON

» Batted .293 with 15 doubles, 10 home runs and 50 RBI in 80 games for the Durham Bulls, his first action at the Triple-A level.

» Over a third of total hits (83) went for extra bases (30 – 15 doubles, 5 triples and 10 home runs).

» Was suspended by the Rays organization for the final 30 games of the season for several on- and off-the-field incidents occurring over the year.

» Leading the Bulls in triples (5) and on-base percentage (.401) at the time of his suspension.

» Named the organization's best athlete, rated the sixth best prospect in the Rays system and the 11th best prospect in the International League by Baseball America.

» Appeared in 8 games with the Phoenix Desert Dogs of the Arizona Fall League…batted .313 with 4 doubles, 2 home runs and 8 RBI…both home runs were game-winning shots that came in extra-innings…ranked by Baseball America as the 6th best prospect in the AFL.

» His AFL season was cut short due to irritation in his left knee…he underwent surgery performed by Rays orthopedic surgeon Dr. Koco Eaton to "clean up" the knee.

» Named the 2006 Al Lopez Award recipient as the Rays top rookie in major league spring training…in his first big league camp, he batted .400 (8-for-20) in 14 games with a double, triple, home run, six RBI and two stolen bases.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Batted .287 with a career-high 128 hits, five triples, 18 home runs and 73 RBI at Double-A Montgomery in 2005…had 18 career HR entering the season.

» Started hot earning Rays minor league player of the month honors for April…batted .342 with six doubles, a pair of triples, 4 home runs, 15 RBI and six stolen bases.

» Connected for a grand slam June 19 at Jacksonville (LAD) off Chad Billingsley…was Montgomery's first of two grand slams in the frame (also Delmon Young)…Biscuits would score a franchise-high 20 runs in the contest.

» Homered July 17 against Jacksonville starter and now current teammate Edwin Jackson... Biscuits would lose 9-4.

» Drew a club-record 4 walks Aug 12 at Mobile (SD)...also had two hits reaching base a total of 6 times in the game, tying a Biscuits record.

» Played in a career-high 120 games appearing in CF (80), LF (25), RF (1) and DH (14)

» Lowered his strikeout total for the third straight season.

» Named the Rays' 5th best prospect by Baseball America.

◆ Opened the 2004 season with single-A Charleston by hitting safely in his first 9 games.

» Promoted to Single-A Bakersfield of the California League on July 1.

» Batted .332 with the Blaze hitting safely in 48 of 58 games played and reaching base in all but 5 contests.

» Scored 44 runs and drove in 34 including a streak of seven straight games with a RBI Aug 8-Sept 4.

» Collected a combined 30 stolen bases, tied for 3rd most in the organization.

» Named the sixth-best prospect in the organization by Baseball America.

◆ Opened his professional career in 2003 with the Charleston RiverDogs.

» Stole a team-high 33 bases, third-most in the organization.

» Connected for his first professional home run May 31 against Savannah, a 2-run, 'walk-off' homer.

» Collected his first career multi-homer game July 16 with a pair of HR against Hickory.

» Was one of only eight SAL players with 130+ strikeouts on the year.

PERSONAL/MISC

» Was named USA Today's Best High School Two-Sport Athlete in 2002.

» Was offered a scholarship to play linebacker at North Carolina State University...also played basketball in high school.

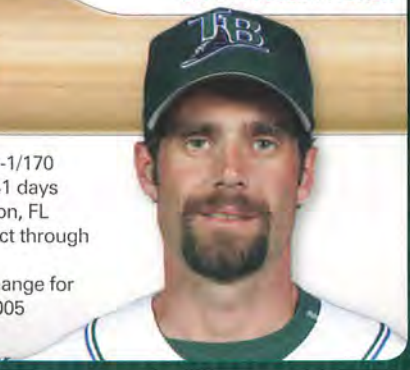
15 Casey FOSSUM

Casey Paul Fossum



Bats/Throws: L/L
Opening Day Age: 29
Tenure: 5 years, 41 days
Born: 1/6/78 in Cherry Hill, NJ
Resides: Bradenton, FL
Contract Status: Second year of a two-year contract through 2007 with a club option for 2008
Acquired: From the Arizona Diamondbacks in exchange for Jose Cruz, Jr. and cash considerations on Feb. 6, 2005
Signing Scout: Jim Robinson (Red Sox)

X-RAY REPORT

» Casey is an avid video game player. He plays the Xbox game "Call of Duty" on-line against opponents all over the world.

» Casey was traded to the Rays on Super Bowl Sunday, 2005. That afternoon he was actually in the Tampa Bay area awaiting his Arizona Diamondbacks arbitration hearing scheduled for the following morning at a downtown Tampa hotel. Following the deal and an interview with local reporters, he agreed to a one-year deal, plus an option, about two hours before kickoff.

» Casey re-signed with Rays on January 18, 2006 and he and wife, Kim, are donating a minimum of $125,000 to the Rays Baseball Foundation over the life of the contract.

2006 SEASON

» The 28-year-old, in his 2nd season with the Rays, led the staff in starts (25), runs allowed (89), earned runs (77) and hit batters (12, 4th in AL)…tied with James Shields for most HR allowed on the club (18)…this despite missing the final month due to surgery to "clean up" his left shoulder…surgery performed on Sep 8 by Rays orthopedist Dr. Koco Eaton.

» Also had a two-week stay on the DL with a left groin strain May 27-June 8.

» Rays went 14-11 in his starts, best record of any TB starter.

» His 50 starts as a Ray are 2nd to Scott Kazmir (56) over the last two seasons and 5th most by a lefty in club history behind Mark Hendrickson (74), Joe Kennedy (72), Wilson Alvarez (63) and Kazmir (63).

» Over the last two seasons, his 14 wins are tied for 2nd most with Hendrickson behind Kazmir (20)… his 18 losses are 2nd to Seth McClung's 23 and only Kazmir has more IP (330.2) than his 292.2.

» Has 40 hit batsmen over the past three seasons…only Jeff Weaver (42) has more among major league pitchers over that period...In his season debut, April 7 at Toronto he hit the Jays' Reed Johnson 3 times.

» Allowed 12 unearned runs, tied for 6th most in the AL and 9th most in the majors.

» In his last 11 starts from July 4 averaged 10.34 strikeouts/9 innings (IP-51.1, SO-59, BB-28)… Prior to that had 29 K's and 35 walks in his first 78.2 IP.

» Twice struck out 10, matching his career high, both coming in his last 6 starts: July 31 vs. DET (beat Kenny Rogers) and Aug. 18 vs. CLE (ND).

» On Aug. 17-18 he and Scott Kazmir became the first AL teammates since the 2001 Red Sox (Pedro Martinez and Hideo Nomo) to record back-to-back 10 strikeout games.

» Allowed a season-high 10 hits and 8 runs on a career-most 4 home runs (Blalock, Teixeira, Nevin, Mench) Apr 23 in loss to Texas.

» Three outings could not get through the 2nd, all coming in his last 7 starts.

» Lost his last start 12-9 at Chicago on Aug. 29...faced 13 batters (1.2 IP)...8 reached and 7 scored...opened the game with a pair of walks immediately followed by a Jermaine Dye 3-run home run...outing jumped his ERA nearly a ½ run from 4.91 to an ending 5.33.

» Exited with the lead four times only to see the bullpen give it away...July 4 vs. BOS, Apr 18 at BOS, May 3 vs. NYY and May 8 at SEA.

» Had more success pitching at Tropicana Field (4-2, 3.48, .215 opp avg., 14 starts) than on the road (2-4, 8.08, .330 opp avg., 11 starts)...in fact his ERA away from the Trop was the highest road ERA among all M.L. pitchers (min. 50 road IP).

» Following consecutive home wins over Detroit (July 31) and Boston (Aug. 5), he pitched to an 11.30 ERA over his final four starts (14.1-IP, 18-ER, 15-BB).

» Pitched to a 1.16 ERA against the Red Sox in 4 starts (23.1-IP, 16-H, 3-ER), going 2-0...in his 21 other starts he pitched to a 6.24 ERA (105.0-IP, 120-H, 74-ER).

» Also had more success pitching at night (4.58 ERA) than during the day (7.03).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Began the 2005 season in the Rays bullpen, moved into the rotation in mid-May and wound up with career highs in wins (8), innings (162.2) and strikeouts (128).

» Was 2-1 with a 3.92 ERA in 11 relief apps. before moving into the rotation for good on May 17 when Dewon Brazelton was optioned to AAA Durham ...Was 6-11 with a 5.07 ERA in 25 starts.

» Averaged 17.3 pitches per inning, tied with SF's Noah Lowry as the 3rd highest in the majors...Teammate Scott Kazmir and SF Jason Schmidt led with a rate of 17.7 pitches per IP.

» Led the AL and tied for the major league lead in hit batters...Dodgers RHP Jeff Weaver also hit 18 batters (18)...Became the 3rd Ray to lead the AL in hit batters joining Rolando Arrojo (19 in 1998) and Victor Zambrano (20 in 2004).

» Had a streak of 10 consecutive starts, May 28-July 19, with at least one hit batter...According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he and Jamey Wright (Milwaukee, 2001) are the only pitchers to make that claim over the last 35 years.

» Lost all four of his Interleague starts (0-4, 6.44) and was 6-7 in 21 starts vs. AL opponents (4.81)...However, on June 14 in a 4-0 loss to Milwaukee he tied his career high with 10 strikeouts, just the 7th Rays pitcher to fan 10+ in a game, first since Joe Kennedy fanned 10 Yankees on May 29, 2002.

» Was winless in his first 6 starts (0-4) and his last 6 starts (0-2)...In 13 starts in between, June 20-Aug 26, was 6-5...When he won at Yankee Stadium on June 20, it was his first win as a starter since Aug 28, 2004...Had gone 0-7 in 12 starts in between...Took a 2-hit shutout into the 8th inning before leaving (IP-7.0+, H-3, R-1, ER-1, BB-3, SO-5).

» Between June 14 and July 29, he went 6+ innings in 8 of 9 starts and worked to a 3.53 ERA (IP-58.2, ER-23) while going 4-4.

» On July 14, the first game after the All-Star Break, he logged a career-high 7.2 innings and combined with Danys Baez on a 6-hit shutout at Toronto, the Rays first SHO since Aug 23, 2004 (125 games without)...He took a 4-hit shutout into the 8th inning on July 29 vs. KC and settled on a 6-3 win as Lou Piniella passed Hall of Fame skipper Earl Weaver for 19th place on the all-time list of managerial wins (1481).

» Was the Rays best starter in July going 3-2 with a team-best 3.29 ERA in 6 starts.

» Opponents batted .241 (38-158) off him with runners in scoring position, best on the Rays starting staff and 16th in the AL, two points behind Minnesota's Johan Santana.

◆ For the first time in his big league career Casey was used exclusively as a starter in 2004, finishing third on the Diamondbacks staff in starts (27), innings pitched (142.0) and strikeouts (117), despite missing the first 5 1/2 weeks to recover from surgery from the previous September…he went 4-15, with his loss total tied for second in the National League, while surrendering 31 home runs, tied for the sixth most.

» Arizona only scored 86 runs in his 27 starts, a 3.19 per game avg.

» He returned to a Major League mound on May 14 vs. Montreal, almost 8 months to the day of having left shoulder surgery, working 5.0 innings of a no decision, a contest the Expos won, 4-3.

» After 4 straight losses, he tossed 6.0 shutout innings at Baltimore on June 10 for his first triumph as a Diamondback, 3-0, allowing 5 hits with 5 K's…Fossum notched his first career win vs. a National League opponent on July 1, defeating the Padres, 7-5, allowing 3 runs in 6.0 inning.

» On July 23 against Colorado, he carried a no-hitter into the seventh inning, only to allow a pair of home runs and lost an 8-2 decision…on August 18 he notched his first win in almost 7 weeks, prevailing 6-3 over the Pirates, sparking a brief 2-game win streak.

» Following a no decision at Pittsburgh on August 23 in which he picked up his first big league hit, Casey beat the Reds 6-3, on August 28.

» He was outstanding at Coors Field on September 23, achieving something no pitcher in the majors accomplished during the year, tossing 6.0 shutout innings and striking out 9 in the rarified air of Coors Field…unfortunately, the only man he faced in the seventh inning reached on a walk and scored the game-tying run after Fossum's departure as the D'Backs eventually lost a 2-1 decision in 10 innings…no pitcher from Colorado or any visiting club threw at least 6.0 shutout frames in Denver in 2004 while fanning at least 9.

» He opened his career 0-for-26 at the plate, but was 4-for-16 over his final 8 starts.

◆ Casey opened the 2003 season in Boston's starting rotation for the first time in his career, but battled injury problems in splitting the season between the Red Sox, the disabled list and minor league stints with Portland (AA) and Pawtucket (AAA).

» Casey's year began by going 4-4 with a 5.76 ERA in 12 starts for the Red Sox through June 7…he was placed on the 15-day D.L. on June 8 with tendinitis in his left shoulder…after a rehab appearance at Portland and 3 more with Pawtucket, Fossum was activated by the Red Sox on July 17…he went 1-0 with a save and a 3.86 ERA in 3 relief appearances, earning a rescue with a 4-inning stint in Boston's 14-5 win on July 21 vs. Detroit.

» He was optioned to Pawtucket on July 28 and made 2 starts for the PawSox, posting a win and a 2.00 ERA…he was recalled August 8 to start the second game of a doubleheader that day against the Orioles, suffering a loss to Baltimore allowing 4 earned runs in 5.1 innings… Fossum made only 3 more appearances the remainder of the year before being shut down due to a recurrence of tendinitis in his pitching shoulder.

» He registered a season-high 8 strikeouts in his 2003 debut in a 14-5 win April 3 at Tampa Bay…he followed by fanning 7 in his second outing, on April 9 at Toronto, but did not record more than 5 strikeouts in any other appearance.

◆ Casey made his first Major League Opening Day roster in 2002…he allowed one run in just two of his first 16 relief appearances, going 2-0 with a 1.17 ERA in that span.

» He was optioned to Pawtucket on June 25, where he went 0-3 with a 3.96 ERA in 5 games (3 starts) before being recalled back to Boston on July 24…he worked 7.0 innings of relief that night against Tampa Bay, the longest relief outing by a Red Sox pitcher since Tom Bolton went 7.1 frames on July 1, 1990…Casey also fanned 9 in that outing, the most K's by a Boston reliever since Diego Segui had 12 K over 7.2 innings on September 22, 1974, vs. Baltimore… the 9 relief K's by Fossum were the most in the majors since Randy Johnson struck out 16 Padres on July 18, 2001, in Qualcomm Stadium…Casey struck out a career-high 10 in a no decision vs. Cleveland on September 18.

◆ Called up from Trenton (AA) on July 27, 2001 the first Red Sox hurler to make the jump from AA since Jim Ho Cho in 1998...Casey made his Major League debut with 1.0 inning of work on July 28 vs. the White Sox...he was optioned back to Trenton on August 1, but recalled just 2 days later...he recorded his first Major League win on August 6 against Texas, tossing 2.0 shutout innings in a 10-7 triumph...his first Major League start was on August 18 vs. Baltimore, the first time a southpaw started for the Red Sox since Pete Schourek on September 10, 2000...Casey earned his first win as a starter on September 2 vs. Detroit, allowing 2 earned runs over 5.0 innings.

◆ Spent the entire 2000 season with Sarasota (A), leading all Class A pitchers with 3 shutouts...included was a no-hitter on August 7 vs. Clearwater, fanning 16 en route to a 2-0 win... he led all Red Sox minor league pitchers with 143 strikeouts...he was named the organization's Minor League Pitcher-of-the-Month in August, going 3-1 with a 1.54 ERA...his no-no also earned him Pitcher-of-the-Week honors for August 7-13... Casey was voted Sarasota's Pitcher of the Year.

◆ Fossum made 5 starts for Lowell in 1999 (Short-season A) with opponents hitting only .122 (6-for-49).

PERSONAL/MISC

» He and his wife, Kim, have a daughter, Ava, and son, Aidan, and make their home in Bradenton, FL...they relocated from Frisco, TX after the 2005 season.

» Casey was a graduate of Midway High School in Waco, TX, then attended Texas A&M University, leading the Aggies to the 1999 College World Series in Omaha, NE...he earned All-Big 12 honors in both 1998 and 1999, highlighted by a 12-7 record and 3.64 ERA during his junior campaign, establishing a single-season school mark with 162 strikeouts...Fossum won the C.E. X-RAY REPORT

» Jonny took part in Casa Grande's Camp for a Cure this past November in Petaluma, Calif... instructed area youth, signed autographs and donated signed memorabilia helping raise nearly $15,000 for the American Cancer Society and the Lupus Foundation of America.

» Jonny was honored with "Jonny Gomes Day" in his hometown of Petaluma on February 11, 2006. The day's first events took place at Petaluma Little League where Jonny signed autographs, spoke to players and fans and received an official proclamation by the Mayor of Petaluma, David Glass. The celebration continued with an evening banquet in his honor presented by his former high school's baseball team (Casa Grande) that included his jersey #1 being retired.

» Jonny suffered a heart attack on Christmas Eve, 2002, a result of a pinched valve...was hospitalized five days following an angioplasty procedure to open the artery.

» In the off-season, Jonny and his older brother Joey, a former Rays farmhand, take batting practice twice a day in a homemade batting cage constructed in an old barn located in a Petaluma, California cow pasture.

» Has the tattoo "AW" on his right bicep standing for Adam Westcott, Jonny's childhood friend who was killed in a car accident that Gomes was also involved in.

» Jonny wears '707' on his glove and his shoes in commemoration for his hometown of Petaluma, CA - area code 707.

2006 SEASON

» In his first full major league campaign, was bothered most of the season by a right shoulder injury that forced him to miss the last 37 games of the year... Didn't play after Aug 21 and underwent successful arthroscopic surgery on Sep 5 to repair an impingement and reduce fraying of the rotator cuff...The surgery was performed by Dr. Tim Kremchek in Cincinnati, OH.

» As late as May 17 was second in the AL in HR's (14), 3rd in RBI (35), 5th in slugging (.662) and was leading the Rays in hitting (.292) ...From that point forward in his last 77 games he hit six HR's, drove in 24 runs and batted .175 (44-252).

» Had 8 home runs and 16 RBI in a 12-game stretch April 12-25...Began that streak with his first career grand slam April 12 at home off Baltimore's Sendy Rleal in the Rays come-from-behind 7-4 win...His slam snapped a 3-3 tie.

» Had a strikeout every 3.97 plate appearances, 6th highest ratio in the majors, 3rd in the AL among players with 400+ plate appearances...At the time he was shelved he was 5th in the AL in K's.

» Led the Rays with 61 walks, 19 more than the next closest teammate (Travis Lee- 42).

» Reached 30 career home runs in 440 career at-bats when he homered April 23 at Texas off John Koronka...According to the Elias Sports Bureau, only 4 active players reached 30 career home runs faster: Adam Dunn, Manny Ramirez, Russell Branyan and Ryan Klesko.

» Has averaged a HR every 18.59 PA's in his Rays career, second best in club history (min 500 career PA's) behind Jose Canseco (one every 15.07).

» Had six homers of 430+ feet including a 439-foot blast on Opening Day at Baltimore off Rodrigo Lopez, the Rays longest homer of the season.

» Batted 110 points higher vs. lefthanders (.297) than righties (.187, lowest among major leaguers with 200 or more ABs).

» Of his 109 starts, 101 came as the DH and eight were in right field....Due to right shoulder injury his last start in the outfield came May 23.

» He and Ty Wigginton combined for 19 home runs and 47 RBI in April, the top run producing duo in the AL that first month.

» Finished with 9 sac flies, tied for 6th in the AL, one shy of the club record (10 by John Flaherty in 1999).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Finished 3rd in the 2005 BBWAA Rookie of the Year voting...Compiled 39 points in the 5-3-1 points system...Only two Rays rookies have ever had more points in the Rookie of the Year balloting...Rolando Arrojo received 61 points in 1998 when he finished 2nd to Oakland's Ben Grieve...Rocco Baldelli tallied 51 points in 2003, finishing 3rd behind Kansas City's Angel Berroa and New York's Hideki Matsui.

» On July 30 vs. KC, he became the first Devil Ray ever to hit 3 HR in a single game (in the team's 1,236th game) with his first career multi-homer game and set the club record with 12 total bases...He was the 20th rookie all-time to hit three HR in a game, first since Colorado's Jose Ortiz vs. the Marlins Aug. 17, 2001...He became just the 2nd player in Tropicana Field history to connect 3 times in a game (also Carlos Delgado Apr 4, 2001)...Hit a pair off Royals starter Zack Greinke, who took the loss in the Rays' 7-3 victory, and then added the another against KC reliever Mike MacDougal in the eighth inning.

» Two weeks after his 3-homer game, he tied a major league record on Aug. 15 when he was hit by three pitches in Tampa Bay's 5-2 loss to the New York Yankees...He was hit in the left hand, wrist and elbow...In between, he hit his 16th homer of the season...The next day, his bases loaded walk off Scott Proctor in the 11th inning gave the Rays a 4-3 "walk-off" win, the second time in club history the Rays have won on a game-ending, bases loaded walk...The only other occasion was Aug 5, 2000 when Miguel Cairo walked to beat the Orioles in 10 innings.

» Broke the Rays rookie home run record on Aug 8 when he homered off the Angels' Bartolo Colon...It was the first of two he hit off the Angels' 20-game winner.

» On June 21, he and Damon Hollins became the first pair of rookie teammates to homer off Randy Johnson in the same game.

» Hit his first major league home run off Toronto's Ted Lilly on April 26.

» Had a pinch-hit home run on Apr 30 at Baltimore off BJ Ryan, the only run the Rays scored off the Oriole lefty all year.

» Hit 35 HR and 100 RBI combined between the Rays and AAA Durham.

» Had 6 HR in July and in Aug., tying for the club rookie mark for one month (also Damon Hollins in May).

» Owns 103 career minor league home runs, 2nd-most in organization history behind Jared Sandberg's 113.

◆ Spent virtually the entire 2004 season at AAA Durham, his first extended playing time at that level.

» Was up with the Rays from May 18-27 and appeared in 5 games, 4 starts, all at DH collecting one hit in 14 at-bats.

» Recorded his first big league RBI with a 5th-inning single on May 20th against Boston.

» Was optioned back to Durham May 28 when the Rays recalled Fred McGriff.

» His 26 home runs were 6th in the International League and 2nd most in the organization to teammate Midre Cummings (27)...also the 7th highest total in organization history.

» Had three 2-HR games: April 10 at Columbus (Yankees), May 7 vs. Louisville (Cincinnati) and June 12 at Pawtucket (Boston).

» Belted four home runs in the final seven games of the season, earning the IL's player-of-the-week award for the final week of the season.

» Hit safely in 18 of his last 19 games, batting .353 (24-68) to hike his avg. from a season-low .235 to a season-ending .256.

» Finished with a career-high 78 RBI.

» Was DL'd from April 22-May 5 with a right groin strain...was hitting .325 and leading the IL in slugging at .944 when he was shelved.

◆ Joined the Devil Rays Sept. 12, 2003, following AAA Durham's International League championship.

» Appeared in 8 games, 4 starts (all at DH) and collected a pair of hits in 15 AB.

» Made his major league debut Sept. 12 at Yankee Stadium...started at DH and went 2-for-3 with a double off David Wells.

» Became just the 3rd Ray to collect 2 hits in his major league debut, joining Jared Sandberg (2001) and Pete Laforest (also 2003).

» Following the debut went hitless in his next 12 AB.

» Spent the bulk of the season at AA Orlando but also appeared in 5 games for Durham down the stretch heading into the playoffs...he batted a combined .251 (116/461) with 30 2B, 4 3B, 17 HR, 57 RBI, 55 BB, 153 SO and 23 SB in 125 games.

» Batted .389 (7-18) with 3 2B, a HR and 5 RBI for the Bulls in the postseason.

» Led Orlando with 56 RBI and his 17 HR were tied for 4th in the Southern League.

» Had three 2-HR games: April 14 vs. Huntsville (Brewers), May 13 at Jacksonville (Dodgers) and May 30 at home against Jacksonville.

» Made one start for the Rays in spring training (was summoned from minor league camp), March 27 at Jack Russell Stadium in Clearwater and homered off Brett Myers...also made a diving catch in left field as the Rays no-hit the Phillies, the first spring training no-hitter since Boston did it March 14, 2000.

» For the second straight year, he entered the season rated the Best Power Hitter in the Rays organization by Baseball America.

» Made 2 appearances (1 start) in the USA Olympic Qualifying Team Trials in the fall and went 1-for-4 with a homer.

» Played for the Mesa Solar Sox of the Arizona Fall League where he finished among the league leaders in home runs, doubles, runs scored, on-base percentage, slugging and extra-base hits.

◆ Named Class A Bakersfield Player of the Year in 2002, becoming just the 2nd Rays farmhand to hit 30 home runs in one season (Scott McClain 34 in 1998 for Durham).

» Visalia's Jorge Soto homered in his last at-bat of the regular season to wrestle the California League home run championship from him...He and his brother, Joey, the NY-Penn League HR champion, just missed becoming only the 2nd pair of brothers to win minor league HR crowns in the same season...The only occasion occurred in 1929 when brothers Ike and Dan Boone did it.

» Named to the California League All-Star team.

» Set the Rays minor league single season record with 91 walks.

» Ranked 5th in all of minor league baseball in home runs, 2nd in hit by pitches (31), 3rd in strikeouts (173) and 5th at slugging (.574).

» Led the CL in slugging, extra-base hits (63), runs scored (102) and total bases (256)...scored 2 or more runs 23 times.

◆ Named Appalachian League Most Valuable Player and Princeton Player of the Year in his professional debut in 2001...also named to Baseball America's first-year player All-Star team.

» Led the Appy League in home runs (16), on-base percentage (.442), slugging percentage (.597), total bases (123) and finished 2nd with 44 RBI, extra-base hits (29) and runs scored (58).

» Had three two-home run games and a 6-RBI contest on June 29 including a grand slam vs. Danville (Braves)...scored 4 runs Aug. 12 at Bristol (White Sox).

PERSONAL/MISC

» Was All-League at Casa Grande High School in Petaluma, Calif.

» Attended Santa Rosa (Calif.) Junior College.

2006 SEASON

» Began the year in the Dodgers organization...saw his first career major league action earning a recall on June 1 from Triple-A Las Vegas when Jeff Kent was placed on the disabled list.

» Made his major league debut that night against the Phillies entering at third base in the 8th inning...grounded into a double play in his lone AB.

» Collected his first major league hit and RBI the next night against Philly with a 5th-inning single off Ryan Madson driving in Nomar Garciaparra.

» Played in 8 games with Los Angeles batting .211 (4-for-19) with 3 RBI and 3 walks appearing at third base, first base and left field....optioned back to Triple-A on June 13 when Kent returned.

» Opened the year with the 51's playing first base and left field.

» Batted .331 in April with 31 hits, second most in the LA organization....was hitting .291 with 7 HR and 33 RBI in 52 games before he was recalled.

» Acquired by TB at the trading deadline along with OF Sergio Pedroza in exchange for Julio Lugo.

» Joined Triple-A Durham where he batted. 193 in 25 games in his first action in the International League...over half of his total hits (17) went for extra bases (9).

» Homered in three straight games Aug 8-10 against Charlotte including a long ball in both ends of a doubleheader on August 8 at Knights Stadium.

» Entered the season as the third best prospect in the Dodgers organization by Baseball America...ranked by the publication as the 10th best prospect in the Rays system.

» Was rated by USA Today's Baseball Weekly as the 3rd best prospect dealt at the trading deadline.

» Attended major league spring training with the Dodgers where he made the shift to leftfield playing 22 games there and batting .296 with 2 HR and 7 RBI.

» Played winter ball with Estrellas in the Dominican Republic batting .327 (20-for-56) and hitting safely in 13 of 14 games at third base and first base.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Appeared in 122 games at shortstop and third base for Double-A Jacksonville helping the Suns win the 2005 Southern League title and Baseball America's Minor League Team of the Year.

» Batted .287 with 16 homers and 75 RBI earning Southern League All-Star honors.

» Collected a career-high 5 hits April 21 at Birmingham (White Sox).

» Connected for a grand slam July 29 against Mobile (Padres), one of three 4-RBI games...hit .429 with the bases loaded (6-for-14) with 17 RBI on the year.

» Tabbed by Baseball America as the #1 prospect in the Dodgers' organization, the best Major League prospect among shortstops entering the year, named as the shortstop on its Double-A All-Star team and rated as the best power hitter among Dodgers farmhands.

» Joined Estrellas in the Dominican Winter League ranking third in the league with RBI (33), fourth in extra-base hits (18) and fifth in slugging percentage (.472).

◆ Named the Dodgers' 2004 Minor League Player of the Year.

» Combined at class-A Vero Beach and Jacksonville to bat .297 with 162 hits, 33 doubles, 23 home runs, 86 RBI and 77 runs scored in 133 games setting career highs in each category...led the organization with 11 triples.

» Reached base safely via hit or walk in 75 of 86 contests with Vero Beach...included was a career-high 18-game hitting streak from May 31-June 23 in which he batted .426 over the stretch...earned Florida State League midseason and postseason All-Star recognition.

» At 19 years old, was the youngest player in the Southern League when he joined Jax on July 19.

» Stayed hot with the Suns collecting 51 hits in 46 games with 35 RBI.

X-RAY REPORT

» Jason partnered with Chad Orvella, Doug Waechter and Shawn Camp to take first place at the 2007 Tino Martinez Celebrity Golf Tournament on Jan. 20 in Tampa.

» Jason is a distant relative of Princess Diana.

» During his sophomore year at Treasure Valley CC (Ore), Jason acted as the school's Chukar Bird mascot for basketball games.

2006 SEASON

» Made 2 tours with the Rays...Was up in April when LHP Mark Hendrickson went on the disabled list and was 0-1 (10.80 ERA) in 2 starts...Was recalled again on Aug 23 when RHP Jae Seo was placed on the DL and went 0-5 (7.07).

» Became the first Ray to begin his major league career 0-6...Three Rays had gone 0-5: Jason Standridge (2003), Dan Wheeler (1999-00) and Dewon Brazelton (2002-03).

» Rays were 3-6 in his 9 starts...Had his best stretch in his first 3 starts after his recall in August...The Rays went 2-1 in those 3 games and he pitched to a 3.12 ERA (IP-17.1, ER-6).

» Tossed a career-high 6.0 innings Sept 6 against Minnesota...Limited the Twins to just 3 hits and a run (a Joe Mauer solo home run)...Left trailing 1-0, but the Rays rallied for a 4-2 win snapping a club-record 14-game losing streak to the Twins.

» Rays also rallied in his previous start at Chicago on Aug 31 he was lifted after 5.2 innings trailing 3-2 (7-H, 3-R/ER, 3-BB, 3-SO)...Rays came back for the 5-3 win in 10 innings to snap a 6-game losing skid, just the Rays' 2nd win on the road after the All-Star Break...allowed a 6th inning, 2-run HR to AJ Pierzynski that put the Sox ahead 3-2.

» Opponents batted .265 (18-68) off him in the first two innings and .374 (43-115) thereafter.

» Was 5-9 with a 4.23 ERA in 24 starts at AAA Durham ... was leading the staff in strikeouts (117), 2nd in starts and 3rd in innings (127.2) at the time of his August promotion.

» With Durham, worked to a 1.29 ERA (21-IP, 3-ER) in August striking out 30 while walking just 4 leading up to recall.

» Was shutout 6 times at Tampa Bay (1) and Durham (5) combined.

» On July 16 against Columbus (Yankees) he combined with Juan Salas for the first ever no-hitter in Bulls' Triple-A history and just the 2nd ever at Durham Bulls Athletic Park...tossed 8.1 innings in the Bulls' 4-1 win...Hammel retired his first batter faced in the 9th before a hit batter and a pair of errors put runners on the corners...with Hammel at 125 pitches, Juan Salas came in and recordedthe final 2 outs...run scored on a Salas wild pitch.

» Fanned 13 batters (no walks) Aug 16 at Toledo (Tigers) setting a Durham Triple-A record... was one shy of his career high with Bakersfield in 2004...only Scranton's Cole Hamels struck out more batters (14) in a game in the International League this season.

» Rated the 14th best prospect in the International League by Baseball America.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

» His 488 career minor league strikeouts are the 10th most K's all-time among Rays farmhands and his 3.47 career minor league ERA is 6th best all-time.

◆ The 23-year-old was named the 2005 Rays Minor League Pitcher of the Year after combining to go 11-4 with a 3.24 ERA in 22 games at Montgomery (AA) and Durham (AAA)

» His 11 wins and 124 K's were both second most among Rays minor leaguers.

» Made his double-A debut May 11 with Montgomery upon his return from the DL…that night in Jacksonville (LAD), he struck out a season-high 9 over 6.0 IP earning the win.

» Went 8-2 with a 2.66 ERA with the Biscuits throwing quality starts in 10 of his 12 outings including nine straight May 22 through July 4.

» Led the Biscuits in wins and complete games (3) and led all regular Biscuits starters in ERA and opponents average against (.235).

» Was tabbed as a Southern League midseason All-Star (did not play).

» Tossed three complete games (June 6, June 12, July 4)…one of just three pitchers in the SL to accomplish the feat…the CG on Independence Day was the first of the 9-inning variety in Montgomery history.

» Named the organization's June Minor League Player of the Month (5-1, 2.09 ERA, 6-GS, 11-BB, 44-SO, .208 opp. avg.).

» At the time of his promotion to Durham on July 16, Hammel ranked second in the Southern League in ERA and was tied for third in wins.

» Made 10 starts at Durham going 3-2 with a 4.12 ERA, fanning 48 and walking 27 in 54.2 IP.

» Ranked as the Rays' 3rd best prospect by Baseball America.

◆ Named 2004 Bakersfield Pitcher of the Year...led all Rays' minor leaguers with 156 strikeouts and a 2.64 ERA combined between Charleston (A) and Bakersfield (A)…was the 6th-lowest ERA and the 7th-highest strikeout total ever by a Rays minor leaguer.

» Was 6-2 giving up just 15 earned runs in 72.1 innings pitched (1.87 ERA) over 11 starts with the Blaze holding opponents to a mere .208 average.

» Allowed just 1 ER and fanned 43 over his final 5 starts of the year (4-0, 36.2 IP).

» Fanned 14 of the 24 batters he faced on Aug. 26 against Visalia (Rockies), the most in a single game that season in the organization and the most by a Rays minor leaguer since Chris Flinn struck out 14 on July 12, 2002…Only Alex Santos (15) and Joe Kennedy (17) have more K's in a single game in Rays minor league history.

» Went 3-1 with a 1.80 ERA in August (20-H, 9-R, 7-ER, 13-BB, 37-K, .171 opp. avg.) earning Rays' Player of the Month honors.

» Began the year with Charleston where he was 4-7 with a 3.23 ERA (94.2-IP, 34-ER)…Led the RiverDogs with 88 strikeouts at the time of his promotion

» Had 20 unearned runs with the 'Dogs, tied for most in the SAL (3 others)…His 23 combined unearned runs were tied for most among all minor leaguers (3 others) (source: Howe Sportsdata).

» Compiled a stretch of 8 consecutive starts Apr 18 – May 27 in which he allowed 1 ER or less lowering his ERA from 11.05 to 2.79.

» Named by Baseball America as the 4th-best prospect in the organization and included in the Baseball America top 20 Cal-League prospects as well as being tabbed by the publication as having the best curveball in the organization.

◆ Spent 2003 with Charleston before his season was cut short with a broken wrist on July 24.

» Made 4 starts (3-0, 1.92 ERA) when he landed on the disabled list Apr. 30 with a right elbow strain.

» Returned May 15…Was 3-2 over his next 8 starts with a 3.86 ERA (IP-49.0, ER-21) when his season ended due to a fractured scaphoid bone in his right wrist.

» Was credited with his first career complete game July 2 in a 7.0-inning contest with South Georgia (Dodgers)…His line: 7.0ip, 4h, 2r, 1er, 2bb, 6so.

» Allowed 2 home runs June 13 at Ashville (Rockies)...Were the first HR allowed by Hammel in his professional career, he had thrown 97.1 innings without allowing a homer.

◆ Split time with Princeton (R) and Hudson Valley (A) in 2002 in his first professional season.

2006 SEASON

» Was acquired by the Reds from the Nationals on July 13 as part of an 8-player deal.

» Opened the year in the Washington organization…made two tours with the Nats, April 14-27 and June 3-19 combining to bat .250 (8-for-32) in 17 games.

» With Triple-A New Orleans, batted .283 with 5 home runs and 32 RBI in 59 games before he was traded…for the Zephyrs, played all 4 infield positions plus catcher

» Was involved in the 24-inning marathon between the Zephrys and the Nashville Sounds that spanned two days and tied a Pacific Coast League record for the longest game (innings)… Harris' 9th inning RBI single tied the score at 4-4 and sent the game to extra innings.

» Reported to Triple-A Louisville following the deal and spent the rest of the minor league season there…named Louisville's Hitter of the Month for August (.370, 10-2B, 21-RBI, 18-R).

» Was recalled by Cincinnati on August 31...appeared in 8 games for the Reds, including a start at second base in the final game of the season.

» On Sept. 22 vs. the Cubs produced his second career pinch-hit HR (off Rich Hill)...was his only homer of the season and third of his career.

» Was designated for assignment on 12/21, when the Reds acquired IF/OF Jeff Conine from the Phillies.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Spent most of the 2005 season at Triple-A New Orleans and produced a career-high 81 RBI, second most in the organization.

» Appeared in 4 games with Washington (3-9, .333, 1 2b, 1hr, 3rbi)...on May 23 in his season debut at Cincinnati, he hit the first pinch-hit HR in the history of the Washington Nationals (off Eric Milton)…was optioned back to AAA on May 30.

» Following the season, played for the Peoria Saguaros in the Arizona Fall League (22 G, .376, 1 HR, 13 RBI)...had at least 2 hits in 10 of his first 11 AFL games.

» Entered the season rated by USA Today Sports Weekly as one of the Nats' Top 5 prospects in the "cream of the crop" category.

◆ Was acquired by Montreal on July 31, 2004 one minute prior to the trading deadline as part of a 4-team deadline deal that also sent SS Nomar Garciaparra to the Cubs and SS Orlando Cabrera to the Red Sox.

» Saw his first Major League action appearing in 23 games for the Cubs and Expos batting .169 (10-59) with 3 doubles, a home runs and 3 RBI.

» Was recalled by the Cubs on July 5, when Todd Hollandsworth went on the 15-day disabled list...made his Major League debut the next day vs. Milwaukee...started at 3B and went 1-for-3...doubled off Victor Santos in the 3rd inning for his first career hit...was optioned back to Iowa on July 19.

» Opened the year at Iowa, the Cubs' Triple-A affiliate...batted .311 with 21 doubles, 11 home runs and 35 RBI in 69 games...hit safely in 17 straight starts from May 26- June 14.

» Joined Triple-A Edmonton following the trade batting .285 with 24 RBI in 33 games.

» Recalled by Montreal on Sept 7 and made his Expos debut the next day at Wrigley Field vs. his old team going 1-for-3 off Greg Maddux.

» In the nightcap of a doubleheader on Sept 15 at Florida, hit his first career home run, a solo shot off Josias Manzanillo...during that doubleheader, Harris, Valentino Pascucci and Ryan Church all hit their first career homers...according to Elias Sports Bureau, the last time 3 players on the same team hit their first Major League homers in the same day was April 28, 1946, when the New York Giants hosted the Brooklyn Dodgers, also in a doubleheader (Bill Rigney, Buddy Blattner, Jess Pike).

» In his Triple-A debut, combined to hit .302 with 27 doubles, 17 HR and 59 RBI in 102 apps for Iowa and Edmonton in the Pacific Coast League...

» Following the season was rated by Baseball America as one of the Top 20 players in the PCL.

◆ Ranked among Southern League leaders in triples (7, 3rd) and doubles (34, 4th) at Double-A West Tenn in 2003.

» Played in 103G at 3B, 20G at 2B and 1G at SS...hit .350 with runners in scoring position.

» Following the season, played for the Mesa Solar Sox in the Arizona Fall League (.302, 19 RBI, 10 extra base hits)...in November was added to the Cubs' 40-man roster.

◆ Named a Florida State League mid-season and post-season All-Star and a Baseball America Class A All-Star in 2002 with Class-A Dayton.

39 J.P. HOWELL

James Phillip Howell

Bats/Throws: L/L
Height/Weight: 6-0/180
Opening Day Age: 23
Tenure: 125 days
Born: 4/25/83 in Modesto, CA
Resides: Sacramento, CA
Contract Status: Signed through 2007
Acquired: From the Kansas City Royals in exchange for Joey Gathright and Fernando Cortez on June 20, 2006
Signing Scout: Chet Sergo (Royals)

X-RAY REPORT

» J.P. wears three sets of everything when he pitches (shirts, socks, etc.). He started the routine in high school because he felt the most comfortable with the extra layers. It's turned into more of a superstition now as he wouldn't dare deviate from the routine.

» Got into Bikram Yoga (or Hot Yoga) in the offseason. Bikram is an intense series of poses conducted in a heated room (105 and 100% humidity) that works the physical as well as mental well being. It is aimed at increasing flexibility, improving circulation and reducing stress.

2006 SEASON

» Was acquired by the Rays from the Royals in exchange for OF Joey Gathright and minor league infielder Fernando Cortez on June 20.

» The 23-year-old made 8 starts for the Rays over two stints going 1-3 with a 5.10 ERA.

» Was initially recalled from AAA Durham July 31-Aug 8 when Scott Kazmir landed on the disabled list...Made 2 starts, both at home, and went 1-1 with a 10.80 ERA (8.1-IP, 11-R, 10-ER, 9-SO).

» His Rays debut came Aug 1 against Detroit allowing 6 runs on 9 hits in 3.2 innings of work for the loss...was doomed by a 43-pitch 2nd inning in which the Tigers sent 10 men to the plate and scored 5 times...Allowed a Carlos Guillen solo homer the next inning, part of Guillen's first career cycle and the first cycle ever against the Rays.

» Returned to the Rays Aug 25 from Durham when Scott Kazmir returned to the DL with left shoulder tightness...was much improved going 1-2 with a 3.71 ERA (34-IP, 14-ER, 24-SO)... allowed 3 runs or less in 5 of 6 starts.

» Lone win came Sept 23 against the Yankees at home when he tossed a career high 7.0 innings of shutout ball limiting New York to just 3 hits and 2 walks defeating 280-game winner Randy Johnson...Rays went on to record their 6th shutout of the season 8-0, matching their largest ever shutout at Tropicana Field (also June 27, 1999 vs. Toronto)...was just the 4th time New York had been shutout this season...no other starter threw as many shutout innings against the Yankees in 2006.

» Was his first ML victory since Sept 26, 2005 at MIN (with KC)...was the first win by a Rays starter in 29 games, dating back to Aug 21 when James Shields defeated Texas at home.

» Was on the mound Sept 2 vs. SEA when the Rays turned a triple play in the first inning, the 2nd ever turned by Tampa Bay and first ever under the Tropicana Field dome...Howell struck out Raul Ibanez, Adrian Beltre was caught stealing second base and Jose Lopez was out advancing to home, 2-6-2, the first ever triple play of that variety (SABR).

» Held right-handed hitters to a .281 batting average (36-128) while lefties batted .400 (16-40) off him.

» Made 10 starts at Durham going 5-3 with a 2.62 ERA, striking out 49 batters while walking only 15...Allowed 3 earned runs or less in 9 of his 10 starts.

» Opened the year with AAA Omaha of the Pacific Coast League where he worked to a 3-2 record with a 4.75 ERA in 8 starts...missed the month of May on the disabled list with a left shoulder strain.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

» Owns a 22-10 career mark in 42 minor league games (40 starts) with a 3.09 ERA and 220 strikeouts in 218.2 innings pitched.

◆ Saw his 1st action at the Major League level in 2005, going 3-5 with a 6.19 ERA in 15 games with Kansas City

» His 15 starts were the most by a Royals left-handed rookie since Glendon Rusch (27) in 1997 and 6th-most all time.

» Made 4 stops in the Royals organization, including High Desert (A), Wichita (AA), Omaha (AAA) and the Major League level.

» Enjoyed the 2nd-quickest rise through the Royals organization in franchise history...only Bo Jackson (signed June '86 - debuted Sept '86) had a shorter trip to the big leagues...became just the 4th player from the 2004 June Free Agent Draft to make his Major League debut (Huston Street, OAK; Cla Meredith, BOS; Jeffrey Fiorentio, BAL).

» Posted an 8-2 record and a 2.83 ERA in 18 minor league starts (101.2 IP, 32 ER) leading all Royals minor leaguers in ERA.

» Opened the season with High Desert where he went 3-1 with a 1.96 ERA (46.0 IP, 33 H, 10 ER, 24 BB, 48 SO) in 8 starts...Was named a California League All-Star but did not play due to promotion to Wichita on May 22.

» Was 2-0 with a 2.50 ERA (18.0 IP, 5 BB, 23 SO) in 3 starts for the Wranglers before advancing to Omaha.

» Made 1st start for Omaha on June 6, earning a 9-5 win at Nashville...Had his contract purchased by Kansas City on June 11 and made his Major League debut that night at Arizona.

» Won his Major League debut, 8-5, on June 11 at Arizona...allowed just 1 run on 4 hits through 5.0 innings...walked 2 and struck out 8...the 8 strikeouts tied a Royals club record for a pitcher in his Major League debut, matching Paul Splittorff who fanned 8 vs. the White Sox on Sept. 23, 1970...he became the 5th-youngest pitcher in Royals history to win his 1st start.

» Returned to Omaha on July 23 going 2-1 with a 3.89 ERA in 6 starts before he was recalled on Aug. 27.

» Had an impressive run in his last 3 starts with KC, going 1-0 with a 2.35 ERA (15.1 IP, 10 H, 4 ER).

» Earned a 5-0 win at Minnesota on Sept. 26 after tossing 5.0 no-hit innings...left the game with the no-hitter intact, after tossing 97 pitches in just 5.0 innings...joined Kevin Appier as the only Royals starters to be pulled after tossing at least 5.0 innings of no-hit baseball (Appier, 6.2 innings on April 26, 1995).

◆ Enjoyed his first professional season in 2004 with Idaho Falls of the rookie-level Pioneer League...posted a 3-1 record and a 2.77 ERA in 6 games (4 starts)...walked 12 batters, while striking out 38.

COLLEGE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

» Attended the University of Southern California before transferring to the University of Texas.

» Was a finalist for the 2004 Roger Clemens Award, given to the top college pitcher, along with current teammate Wade Townsend and the Angels' Jered Weaver...was also a finalist for the 2004 Dick Howser Award as the nation's top college player...named the Big 12 Pitcher of the Year in 2004 and was a two-time first team All-Big 12 selection.

» Named a 2004 1st Team All-American by USA Today and Collegiate Baseball after earning 3rd Team honors in 2003.

» Posted a 15-2 record and a 2.13 ERA (135.1 IP, 90 H, 32 ER) with 166 strikeouts as a senior leading the Longhorns staff to a second-place finish at the College World Series…tied for most wins in the nation and was 13 strikeouts shy of the Big 12 record.

» Was 25-4 with a 2.31 ERA and 271 strikeouts in 249.2 innings in his two years at Texas...broke Roger Clemens 2-season record for strikeouts (241).

PERSONAL/MISC

» Graduated from Jesuit (Carmichael, Calif.) High in 2001…was 10-0 with a 0.09 ERA as a senior earning the Cal-Hi Sports Player of the Year Award.

» Was teammates with BJ Upton and Scott Kazmir at the 2000 Junior World Championships in Cuba.

Progress Energy Walkway

Leading the way through the main parking lot on the east side of the entrance to Tropicana Field is Sunsations, The Progress Energy Walkway, the largest ceramic tile mosaic mural in the Southeast and one of the five largest in the country. It is 900 feet long by 30 feet wide and contains 1,849,091 tiles.

The mosaic is an impressionistic design of the sun and sea, for which Florida is famous. The design is complete with sand, beach towels, water, fish, sharks, turtles, and devil rays. The walkway also features a sophisticated sound system that plays thematic music and play-by-play descriptions of the game in progress. Theatrical lighting in different shapes and configurations heightens the night-time experience. The sun is artfully depicted in a dramatic, arched, 23-foot high original steel structure that forms the gateway to the stadium.

X-RAY REPORT

» AKINORI IWAMURA (Ah-kee-nor-ee Ee-wah-moo-rah)

» Aki has a framed Carl Crawford jersey hanging on the wall in his home in Tokyo, the result of an exchange between the players at the 2004 MLB All-Stars vs. Japan All-Stars Series.

» Aki will use an alligator skin glove this season.

HOW HE BECAME A DEVIL RAY

» On November 15, the Yakult Swallows of the Japanese Central League accepted the Rays bid to obtain the negotiating rights for Iwamura and on December 15 he signed a three-year contract with the Rays.

» He becomes the third Japanese player signed by the Devil Rays in their brief history, joining pitchers Hideo Nomo (2005) and Shinji Mori (signed in 2006 and currently on the 40-man roster after spending all of last season on the disabled list).

CAREER IN JAPAN

» Was a five-time All-Star (2001-02-04-05-06) and six-time Gold Glove recipient (2000-01-02-04-05-06) with Yakult.

» He is a career .300 hitter and has finished in the Central League's top 10 in hitting three seasons: 4th in 2002 (.320), 5th in 2006 (.311) and 6th in 2005 (.319).

» Over the last three seasons has batted .307 and averaged 35 home runs and 94 RBI per season…His 106 home runs over that span are 4th overall in the Nippon Professional League (NPL) behind Tyrone Woods, Chunichi Dragons (130), Nobuhiko Matsunaka, Fukuoka SoftBank Hawks (109) and Julio Zuleto, Fukuoka SoftBank Hawks (109).

» In 2006, played in a career-high 145 games and batted .311, fifth best in the Central League… He also finished in the league's top five in slugging (.552), total bases (292), home runs (32) and walks (67), and was 6th in on-base pct (.388).

» In 2005, was one of only four players in the NPL to reach a .300 avg, 30 homers and 100 RBI…He finished in the Central League's top 10 that season in batting (.319, 6th), total bases (304, 4th), slugging (.555, 6th), home runs (30, 8th), RBI (102, 6th), walks (63, 8th), on base pct (.388, 6th), hits (175, 7th), doubles (31, 5th) and extra base hits (65, 4th)…He fanned a Central League high 146 times.

» In 2004, tied a Yakult franchise record for most home runs in a season with 44, most ever by a Japanese-born Yakult player...Ranked him 3rd in the Central League...Was also second in the league in total bases with 311 and runs scored (99) and 3rd with a career-high 103 RBI…He led the Central League with 173 strikeouts, the highest total by a Japanese player in league history.

» In 2003, he missed most of the year with a wrist injury.

» Teammate Roberto Petagine (.322) and he (.320) finished 3rd and 4th in the Central League in batting in 2002...Was also third in the league in doubles (35) and fourth in on base pct. (.392) hits (163) and slugging (.531).

» Yakult won the NPL Championship in 2001... He batted .450 in the Japan Series and had a series-high 9 hits...Also delivered a pair of RBI in Yakult's series clinching 4-2 win over Kintetsu.

» In 2000, he led the CL with 9 triples, the most in the league in 20 years.

» In 1999, he batted .294 and began to take the third base job from Takahiro Ikeyama, a veteran infielder who played shortstop and third base for Yakult for 19 seasons.

INTERNATIONAL PLAY

» He was the starting third baseman for Japan in last year's inaugural World Baseball Classic, hitting .389 in six games for the championship-winning team.

» He batted .440 with three doubles, a triple and seven stolen bases in the U.S.-Japan All-Star Series in 2004. He had a pair of hits off Roger Clemens in Japan's 3-1 win in Game Five of that series. The next day he had a double, triple and a RBI in Japan's 5-1 victory in Game Six. He then delivered a game-tying double in the 9th inning off Akinori Otsuka in Game Seven and subsequently scored the winning run in Japan's 3-2 victory.

» He also played in the 2002 U.S.-Japan Series and went 2-for-9 with a double off Eric Gagne.

PERSONAL

» He and his wife, Misaki, are expecting their first child this year.

» The family dog is a toy poodle named "Nuts."

» Born in a Uwajima, a small, laid-back town (pop. 70,000) located on the island of Shikoku, Japan's fourth largest island located less than 100 miles south of Hiroshima.

» His mother, Michiyo, was a hairdresser in his hometown and through the many customers he became familiar with Western culture...Akinori hit two home runs on August 26, 2005 against the Yokahoma Bay Stars the day his mother passed away...His father is a retired firefighter.

» He was signed out of Uwajima Higashi High School...Played in the Philippines on the Japan National High School team...Hit a HR in the stadium and as a result his name is engraved on the outfield wall as having hit the 57th HR hit in that ballpark...Just above Aki's name, there is an engraving on the wall, that states: "2nd Home Run December 2nd, 1934 Babe Ruth".

» His nickname in Japan is "Gun" because when you write "IWA-MURA" in Japanese characters, the one character for "IWA-" could also be read as "GUN" or "GAN"... Similar to having the nickname Bill for William...His fan website is http://gun1.nifty.com/

» His older brother, Takashi, was an outfielder in the minor leagues (ni-gun) for the Kintetsu Buffaloes in 1997 and 1998.

» Has a golf handicap of 12.

Aki's Remarks From His First Rays Press Confrence Held on His Birthday - Feb. 9, 2007

Hello Everyone! Thank you all for coming to my birthday party today.

My name is Akinori Iwamura, but you can call me "Aki."

I'm from Uwajima, Japan which is known for tangerines and yellowtails.

My favorite word is the spirit of "Nani-Kuso." It means "no pain, no gain."

I'll work very hard and I hope that I can help the team win more games this year.

This is the best birthday of my life. Thank you.

Opening Day Age: 23
Tenure: 1 years, 70 days
Born: 9/9/83 in Neu-Ulm, Germany
Resides: Columbus, GA
Contract Status: Signed through 2007
Acquired: From the Los Angeles Dodgers with LHP Chuck Tiffany in exchange for RHP Danys Baez, RHP Lance Carter and C Ryder Mathias on January 15, 2006
Signing Scout: Lon Joyce (Dodgers)

X-RAY REPORT

» Edwin was born in Neu-Ulm, Germany, where his father, a cook in the United States Army, was stationed. He is one of 27 players in major league history to have been born in Germany, 2nd Devil Ray (LHP Steve Kent, 2002). Edwin moved to Columbus, Georgia at an early age, but had attended only two Major League games in person before making his debut on Sept. 9, 2003.

» EJ's first major league game was a Rays game he attended in 2001 at Tropicana Field while playing for the GCL Dodgers in Vero Beach.

2006 SEASON

» 22-year-old made three tours with the Rays…originally recalled from AAA Durham to make a spot start April 22 at Texas filling in for an injured Mark Hendrickson (left shoulder tightness)… worked 7.0 innings surrendering 5 runs on 3 hits and 6 walks while striking out 7…retired his final 11 batters faced…drew a no-decision in the Rays 6-5 walk-off loss…allowed a 4-run second inning anchored by a Kevin Mench 3-run home run.

» Returned to Durham April 26…struggled to a 1-6 record and a 6.48 ERA in 11 appearances, 10 starts, with the Bulls as opponents batted .300 (61-203).

» Recalled a second time on June 21 when RH Seth McClung was optioned to AAA…made 15 appearances out of the bullpen (IP-17.2, H-27, 17-R, 12-ER) allowing at least a run in 9 of them…was optioned back to Durham Aug. 7 when Dan Miceli came off the DL.

» Took on the closers role upon his return to the Bulls going 5-for-6 in save opp's allowing just 2 ER in 9.0 IP (2.00 ERA) with 11 K's and only 3 walks.

» Returned to the Rays for a third time following the Sept 1 game against Seattle…made six appearances working to a 2.45 ERA (11.0-IP, 10-H, 3-R/ER).

» Exited Sept 16 at Toronto when an Adam Lind line drive struck him in the back of the head in the 8th inning…had worked 1.1 scoreless up to that point (2-H, 1-BB, 1-SO)…was sidelined 8 days.

» Returned Sept 24 to throw 2.0 innings of relief against the Yankees in the Rays' 11-4 win (2-H, 1-R/ER, 1-SO).

» 4 of his final 5 outings o\n the year were 2.0+ innings…18 of his 22 relief appearances were an inning or more.

» Owned a 1.23 ERA in the 7 appearances when he threw 2+ innings (14.2-IP, 2-ER)…worked to a 9.20 mark in his 15 other outings (14.2-IP, 15-ER).

» Tossed a season-high 2.2 scoreless innings of relief in the season finale, Oct 1, in Cleveland… was his longest relief outing since Sept 22, 2003 at San Diego (with the Dodgers).

» Allowed just 2 home runs…surrendered a 2-run homer to Miguel Olivo June 27 at Florida in his 3rd relief appearance…did not allow another long ball over his final 19 outings the remainder of the season (25.1 IP)

» In all at Durham, appeared 22 times, making 13 starts, going 3-7 with a 5.55 ERA allowing 84 hits in 73.0 IP…worked to a 6.14 ERA as a starter allowing 53 runs (43 earned) in 63.0 innings… owned a 1.80 ERA in 9 relief appearances allowing just 2 ER in 10.0 IP and striking out 12 while walking 3 as the opposition hit just .118 off him.

» Pitched for Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League...went 3-2 with a 1.60 ERA in 9 starts (45-IP, 37-H, 8-ER, 23-BB, 39-SO, .230 opp. avg.)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

» Owns a career record of 6-4 and a 5.48 ERA in 42 major league games, 15 starts, with the Dodgers and Rays walking 64 and striking out 75 in 111.2 career innings pitched.

◆ Entered the 2005 season ranked as the third best prospect in the Dodgers organization by Baseball America...Had been ranked as the best prospect in the organization and the 4th best in all of baseball in 2004.

» Pitched most of the season between the Dodgers' AAA team at Las Vegas and AA team at Jacksonville before he was recalled by the major league club from Jacksonville on August 22 when LHP Odalis Perez went on the disabled list...Was a combined 9-11 with a 5.91 ERA at Jacksonville and Las Vegas.

» Pitched in 7 games, 6 starts for the Dodgers...In his 2nd start after recall he defeated Houston and 20-game winner Roy Oswalt, 8-3 (IP-5.1, H-6, R-3, ER-3, BB-2, SO-6)...The 5.1 innings matched his season high with the Dodgers...Snapped a 3-game Dodgers' losing streak... He also defeated the Pirates 9-4 on Sep 26 (IP-5.1, H-4, ER-1, BB-4, SO-0).

» In his last start of the season on Oct. 1 he didn't get the decision, but combined with 5 other Dodgers on a 3-hit, 2-1 win over the NL West Division Champion Padres at SD...His line: IP-5, H-3, R-1, ER-1, BB-1, SO-0.

» In two starts against the Rockies he was 0-1 (IP-6.1, ER-11)...He was 2-1 with a 3.63 ERA (IP-22.1, ER-9) against everyone else.

» Began the season at Las Vegas, but allowed 118 base runners in 55.1 innings and was sent to AA Jacksonville on June 15….Was 1-6 in his last 7 games.

» In a little over two months he went 6-4 with Jacksonville, the eventual Southern League champion...Was 3-0 in his last 4 starts for the Suns and was named SL Pitcher of the Week his last week before recall…Beat the Rays affiliate Montgomery in back-to-back starts on July 8 and 17…Rays prospect Elijah Dukes took him deep in the July 17 win.

◆ Was the youngest player in the National League in 2004 and the sixth-youngest player in the Major Leagues....recalled from Triple-A Las Vegas on June 2 and defeated Milwaukee 5-2 that night at Dodger Stadium…allowed one run on three hits, while walking three and striking out three… optioned back to Triple-A on June 4.

» Recalled prior to his start on July 3 at Anaheim…allowed two runs in 1.2 innings before leaving the start with a mild strain in his right elbow…allowed a two-run homer in the first inning to Vladimir Guerrero…defeated Houston in his next start on July 8 at Dodger Stadium, 7-2…allowed two runs on five hits in 5.0 innings and collected his first career hit and RBI off Houston's Brandon Duckworth, but was placed on the disabled list the next day with a strained right forearm… reinstated on Sept. 7.

» Spent most of the season in Las Vegas, including making four rehabilitation starts for the 51s…went 6-4 with a 5.86 ERA (59 ER/90.2 IP) in 19 starts…allowed three earned runs or less in 11 of his 19 starts… allowed just four home runs in his 19 starts, none in his last nine….was 1-for-4 with an RBI as a batter with the Dodgers and hit .381 (8-for-21) with three home runs and seven RBI for Las Vegas...went 2-for-2 with two homers and three RBI on Aug. 31 at Edmonton.

◆ Had his contract purchased from Double-A Jacksonville on Sept. 7, 2003...on his 20th birthday, made his Major League debut on Sept. 9 at Arizona, becoming the third-youngest pitcher to start a game for the L.A. Dodgers, trailing Joe Moeller in 1962 (19 years, two months) and Dick Calmus in 1963 (19 years, seven months), and youngest L.A. Dodger to win his first start...gave up one run, four hits, no walks and struck out four in 6.0 innings of 4-1 win vs. Randy Johnson and the Diamondbacks...became fifth pitcher in MLB history to make his debut as a starting pitcher on his birthday, the last being Larry Dierker for Houston in 1964 at age 18.

» Hurled 7.0 innings, but lost his next start, Sept. 17 vs. Arizona, 2-0, as he gave up two solo homers to Luis Gonzalez...was victorious in his third start, tossing 6.0 shutout innings, allowing two hits, striking out seven and overcoming eight walks, in 5-0 win at San Francisco on Sept. 27.

» Was second in the Southern League and led Dodgers minor leaguers with 157 strikeouts in 148.1 innings...selected to pitch in the All-Star Futures Game, the Southern League All-Star Game and was named to the 2003 SportsTicker All-Teen Team... rated by Baseball America as having the best fastball and as the best pitching prospect in Southern League...allowed three earned runs or less in 22 of his 27 starts...allowed more hits than innings pitched just seven times in 27 starts and struck out at least as many batters as innings pitched in 18 of his starts.

◆ Honored as the Dodger organization's 2002 Minor League Pitcher of the Year after a stellar season for South Georgia... limited opposing hitters to a .206 average...the 1.98 ERA tied for first among all Dodger full-season minor leaguers...did not allow a run in six starts and just one run in six others.

◆ Pitched in 12 games for the 2001 Gulf Coast League Eastern Division champion Dodgers, going 2-1 with a 2.45 ERA...also served as the designated hitter for eight games and batted .308 (8-for-26) with a home run.

AMATEUR CAREER

» Was drafted as an outfielder in the 2001 First-Year Player Draft out of Shaw High School in Columbus, GA, but the Dodgers converted him to a pitcher…He has a .271 average (26-96, HR-4, RBI-16) as a minor league hitter and .150 (3-20, HR-0, RBI-2) as a major leaguer.

INFIELDER

43 Elliot JOHNSON

Elliot Tyler Johnson

Bats/Throws: S/R
Opening Day Age: 23
Born: 3/9/84 in Safford, AZ
Contract Status: Signed through 2007
Acquired: Signed as a non-drafted free agent, June 29, 2002
Signing Scout: Craig Weissman (Devil Rays)

Height/Weight: 6-0/185
Tenure: 0
Resides: Thatcher, AZ

X-RAY REPORT

» Elliot's hometown of Safford, Arizona is home to the Mount Graham International Observatory which houses the world's largest binocular telescope...it was also the location of Albert Brooks' 1985 movie Lost in America.

» Johnson was discovered by Rays scout Craig Weissman at the 2002 Arizona Baseball Coaches Association Super 50 Game at Bank One Ballpark in Arizona.

2006 SEASON

» Montgomery's Player of the Year led the Biscuits with a career-high 139 hits in his first full season at the AA level...was the fifth most hits in the Southern League and 6th most among Rays minor leaguers.

» Also set career highs in average (.281), triples (10) and home runs (15)...was 3rd in the league with 225 total bases...entered the year with 18 total home runs for his career in 1,297 AB's.

» Was one of only six minor leaguers, and just one of two at the AA level, to record double digits in doubles (21), triples and homers...led the organization in triples, 2nd most in the Southern League.

» Named the starting second baseman on Baseball America's Double-A All-Star squad.

» Opened the season with 31 hits in April, tied for tops in the SL that month.

» Had a career night April 26 against Birmingham (White Sox)...was 3-for-5 with 2 doubles, a game-winning grand slam and a career-high 6 RBI...was the first ever grand slam by a Biscuit at Riverwalk Stadium and the first of Johnson's career...also proposed to his wife (see personal).

» Followed that up on May 6 belting the game-winning 3-run HR against Mississippi (Braves).

» Was awarded the league's hitter of the week that week (May 1-7) batting .435 (10-for-23) with 2 triples, 3 home runs, 6 RBI and 8 runs scored.

» Collected his third career multi-homer game April 18 with a pair of solo shots against Huntsville (Brewers).

» Missed a week (June 12-20) on the disabled list with a left groin strain suffered June 11 at Carolina (Marlins).

» Committed the 2nd fewest errors (13) among all regular second basemen in the Southern League...finished 3rd among league second basemen with a .976 fielding percentage (min. 300 TC).

» Was involved in a league-most 89 double plays.

» Named the starting second baseman at the Southern League's midseason All-Star game... batted leadoff and went 1-for-5 with a RBI playing the entire game.

» POSTSEASON: Batted .375 (12-for-32) for the Biscuits during Montgomery's championship run hitting safely in all 7 games he played in. Led the club with 3 doubles. Capped off his season hitting for the cycle in the deciding game of the SL championship series, becoming the first player in Biscuits history to hit for the cycle and the sixth Ray ever to accomplish the feat. Had a bunt single in the 1st inning, triple in the 3rd inning, 2-run home run in the 4th inning and double in the 7th.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Split the 2005 season between single-A Visalia and Montgomery...Batted a combined .267 with 19 doubles, 9 triples (2nd most among Rays minor leaguers), 11 home runs, 54 RBI and 43 stolen bases (3rd most among Rays minor leaguers)...was one of only 8 minor leaguers to hit 10 or more HR and steal 40 or more bases...his 28 steals with Visalia were 2nd most in the Cal League...provided the walk-off RBI single in the 10th inning June 24 vs. Tennessee (Cardinals) and again Aug 27 vs. Mississippi...Batted .203 with 4 SB for the Arizona Fall League champion Phoenix Desert Dogs...Named the Fastest Baserunner in the Cal League by Baseball America's Best Tools survey...led all minor league second basemen with 30 errors.

◆ Returned to single-A Charleston in 2004 where he was the starting second basemen on the South Atlantic League's midseason All-Star team...Led the organization with 43 stolen bases, 4th most in the South Atlantic League...his 92 runs scored were 5th most in the league...Hit in a career-high 14 straight April 14-May 1...Tabbed by Baseball America as having the best strike-zone discipline in the Rays organization...Homered in his first three at-bats coming in the 1st, 2nd and 3rd innings May 28 at Greensboro (Marlins); had also gone deep in his final at-bat the night before in the 9th inning giving him four consecutive home runs in four consecutive innings...though it is unknown if any other minor leaguer has accomplished the feat, only one major leaguer, the White Sox's Carl Reynolds in 1930, has homered in the first three innings of a game...Johnson had just 3 career home runs entering the three homer game.

◆ Was limited to 54 games with Charleston in 2003...missed over 2 months with a strained left hamstring suffered April 18 against Augusta...returned June 26 and batted just .204 in 40 games over the remainder of the season.

◆ Began his professional career with Princeton (R) in 2002 batting .263 with 10 doubles and 14 stolen bases in 42 games...hit safely in 27 of his 37 starts.

PERSONAL/MISC

X-RAY REPORT

» The name is pronounced Kas-mer and is of Czechoslovakian-Polish descent.

» His father, Eddie Kazmir, works for a company named Gulf States Abrasive Manufacturing, which is owned by Ed Dunn, father of Reds outfielder Adam Dunn. Although five years apart, Scott and Adam had the occasional Wiffle Ball game against each other.

» Runs a 6.7 in the sixty.

CAREER

» BEFORE 23: Is one of only five pitchers (2nd lefthander) in the last 20 years to post a winning record with 10+ wins in two seasons before the age of 23...The others: Pedro Martinez (1993-94), Tom Gordon (1989-90), Dwight Gooden (1984-85) and CC Sabathia (2001-02).

» Has racked up a club record 378 career strikeouts, 13th most all-time among southpaws under the age of 23...only 17 lefthanders have reached 500 strikeouts by the age of 24.

» VS. LEFTIES: Has allowed just 3 HR to left-handed hitters in his career: Justin Morneau and David Ortiz in 2006, and Raul Ibanez in 2005...During his career, lefties have batted just .214 (58-271) off him including .195 (48-246) over the last two seasons.

2006 SEASON

» 22-year-old put together an All-Star season before he was sidelined with shoulder inflammation in the second half...paced the Rays staff in wins (10), ERA (3.24) and strikeouts (163).

» Finished with a 10.14 strikeouts per 9 IP ratio...Only two pitchers (min 20 starts) in major league history had a better K/9 IP ratio at a younger age: Kerry Wood (12.58 in 1998) and Dwight Gooden (11.39 in 1984).

» Fanned 93 batters in 75.1 innings at Tropicana Field, the best strikeouts per 9 innings ratio (11.11) in the majors among pitchers with 75 or more innings pitched at home...Held opponents to a .191 batting average at home (52-272), also tops in the majors...His 1.91 ERA was the 2nd best home ERA in the majors behind St. Louis' Chris Carpenter (1.81).

» Won 10 of 24 (42%) starts while the rest of the staff won only 26 of 138 starts (19%)...Rays were 13-11 in his 24 starts; 48-90 in the others.

» Tossed his first career complete game shutout July 3 in a 2-hit, 3-0 win over the Red Sox and fellow Texan Josh Beckett...walked just 2 while striking out 10...was the 14th CG SHO in club history and Scott was the 10th to do it, 3rd lefty.

» With the win, Kaz became the youngest pitcher to reach 10 wins by that date since John Smoltz with the Braves in 1989...he also became just the 4th pitcher in the last 30 years to beat the Sox 3 times before the All-Star Break (also Mike Mussina, NYY-2002, Andy Pettitte, NYY-2001 and Frank Viola, MIN-1988).

» Is 5-2 with a 2.60 ERA against Boston in his career...Since Kaz made his major league debut Aug. 23, 2004, his ERA is the 5th lowest against the Red Sox and only Randy Johnson (7) has more wins against the Beantown nine.

» The July 3 victory was his last of the season, however...He made only six more starts and despite pitching to a 3.06 ERA (IP-35.1, H-27, ER-12, SO-45) was 0-3 the rest of the way while the Rays scored 13 runs combined in his 6 starts.

» Landed on the DL, July 24-Aug 11 with left shoulder inflammation...Returned for two more starts allowing only one earned run in the two outings, but was shelved for the final six weeks of the season as a precaution...Made his last start on August 22, a no decision vs. Texas won by the Rays, 5-3.

» At the time he was sidelined, he was leading the majors (among qualifiers) with a 10.1 strikeouts per 9 innings pitched ratio...Was also 4th in the AL in ERA (3.24) , 2nd in strikeouts (163) and 5th in opponents batting average (.240).

» In his next-to-the-last start on Aug 17, he threw 5.0 shutout innings allowing just 2 hits and 3 walks while striking out 10 in a no-decision against Toronto...Struck out 10 of the 20 batters he faced, all were swinging...Rays eventually lost 6-2...According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Kaz was the first starting pitcher since 1920 - the beginning of the live ball era - to produce a pitching line with 5 or fewer innings, 10 or more strikeouts and no runs allowed.

» Allowed 3 earned runs or less in 20 of his 24 starts, one earned run or less in 11 starts and no runs in 5 of his starts...Of his 73 career starts, he has allowed one earned run or less 28 times, three earned runs or less 45 times.

» Fanned 10 or more batters five times...only MIN's Johan Santana (9) had more among ML pitchers...Of the 17 times in Rays history a starter has fanned 10+ batters, Kaz owns 8 of them.

» Held opponents to a .188 (25-133) average with runners in scoring position, 3rd best in the majors behind MIN's Johan Santana (.174) and SD's Chris Young (.176)...Opponents batted .213 off him with men on base, 6th in the AL...surrendered only one hit in seven at bats with the bases loaded, opponents are just 3-for-29 (.103) with the bags full off him during his brief career.

10-Plus Strikeout Games, 2006

Johan Santana, Min	9
Scott Kazmir, TB	5
Javier Vazquez, CWS	5
Jason Schmidt, SF	5
Jake Peavy, SD	5

» Was selected by his peers as the Rays representative at the 77th All-Star Game in Pittsburgh...pitched a scoreless inning in the AL's 3-2 win needing only 9 pitches to retire all 3 batters (Freddy Sanchez, Carlos Beltran, Albert Pujols)... became the youngest pitcher to appear in an All-Star Game since Ramon Martinez with the Dodgers in 1990...became the youngest Rays All-Star ever, 10th All-Star in club history, 6th pitcher, first lefthander...since 2000, FLA's Dontrelle Willis (in 2003) is the only pitcher younger than Kaz at the midsummer classic.

» Reeled off a team-high and career-high 5 straight wins April 30-May 21 over 5 starts (ERA-0.78, 34.2-IP, 4-R, 3-ER, 7-BB, 42-K)...allowed 1 ER or less in each start including 7.0 shutout innings in a 1-0 win over Seattle's Jamie Moyer on May 10 and 8.0 shutout innings in a 3-0 win against Florida on May 21 in which he tied his career high with 11 K's...compiled a career-best and team-high 18.0 inning scoreless streak over the stretch, tied for the 2nd longest in club history.

» Named AL Player of the Week for May 15-21, the 2nd TB pitcher to ever win the award joining RH Albie Lopez who earned the honor in 2000...was the youngest pitcher in 25 years to win the honor...Also garnered recognition for AL May Pitcher of the Month after going 4-1 with a 1.91 ERA (33-IP, 29-H, 8-R, 7-ER, 8-BB, AL-high 38-SO, 1-HR)...tied a club record for most wins in a month.

» Earned wins over former Cy Young Award Winner Roy Halladay (Apr 9), 2001 World Series Co-MVP Curt Schilling (Apr 30), 2003 World Series MVP Josh Beckett (July 3) and 2003 Rookie of the Year Dontrelle Willis (May 21)...also defeated Rays nemeses Tim Wakefield (Apr 20) and Jamie Moyer (May 10) who were a combined 21-4 (.840) lifetime against Tampa Bay entering 2006.

» Opposing pitchers owned a .567 winning pct. and averaged just under 10 wins apiece (9.74).

» Named the Rays Opening Day starter on March 23 and at 22 years, 69 days, Kaz became the youngest opening day hurler since Dwight Gooden (21 yrs/143 days) in 1986...The youngest ever to start on Opening Day was Catfish Hunter (20 yrs/4 days) in 1966 with the Kansas City A's...Since 1900 only 28 pitchers have started an Opening Day at a younger age than Kazmir and since 1970 only six pitchers have started an opener at a younger age...In the last 50 years (since 1956) only 14 have started Opening Day at a younger age.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Set a club record with 174 K's in 2005 - 37 more than any other major league rookie...He finished 4th overall in the AL, the most strikeouts by an AL rookie in the last 19 years (see chart)...The last pitcher with as many strikeouts in a season before the age off 22 was Rick Ankiel with St. Louis in 2000 (194 K's at the age of 20).

» Was one of only 3 pitchers in the AL (min 162 IP) with more strikeouts than hits allowed...Joined Yankee Randy Johnson and Minn's Johan Santana.

Rookie Strikeout Leaders Since 1980

Dwight Gooden, NYM, 1984	276
Hideo Nomo, LAD, 1995	236
Kerry Wood, CHI-NL, 1998	233
Mark Langston, SEA, 1984	204
Rick Ankiel, STL, 2000	194
Edwin Correa, TEX, 1986	189
Fernando Valenzuela, LAA, 1981	180
Bobby Witt, TEX, 1986	174
Scott Kazmir, Rays, 2005	174

» His 8.4 strikeouts per 9 IP tied Johnson for 3rd highest in the AL and also matched Edwin Correa (TEX-1986) as the 6th best all-time by an AL rookie (See Chart).

» Was 3rd among AL rookies and led the staff in innings (186) and starts (32)...His 3.77 ERA also led the staff and was 5th among AL rookies...Had a team-high 18 quality starts, tied for 2nd among AL rookies with Toronto's Gustavo Chacin behind Oakland's Joe Blanton (22).

» Only 4 rookies since 1980 have bettered Kazmir's numbers in innings, strikeouts and ERA: (Dwight Gooden NYM, 1984), Mark Langston (Sea, 1984), Hideo Nomo (LA, 1995) and Fernando Valenzuela (LA, 1981)...Only 13 pitchers in major league history have reached those totals in a season before their 22nd birthday, none since Dwight Gooden in 1986.

» Named to Baseball America's all-rookie team along with teammate Jonny Gomes...entered the season ranked as the publication's 8th-best prospect.

» Had 14 starts with one ER or less, tied with Chicago's Mark Buehrle and Minn's Johan Santana for most in the AL...Kaz won only half of those starts. ..Five times he left a start in line for the win, but the bullpen couldn't hold the lead...The Rays scored 3 or fewer runs in 15 of his starts.

» After the All-Star Break posted a 7-2 record and a 2.79 ERA (IP-84, H-76, ER-26) in 14 starts... His 92 strikeouts were 3rd in the AL and his ERA was 7th best in the league.

» He was 3-0 in September with a 1.71 ERA (IP-31.2, ER-7) in 5 starts and held opponents to a .204 average...His ERA was the AL's 4th best for the month...he and Mark Hendrickson (also 2005) were the first Rays starters do it in the month of September.

» Averaged 17.7 pitches per 9 IP, tied with SF's Jason Schmidt for the most in the majors.

» Was the first rookie since Texas' Bobby Witt in 1986 to lead the majors in walks allowed.

» Left-handed hitters batted .174 off him, lowest among all major league starters and 2nd among all pitchers behind Minnesota's Joe Nathan (.158).

» Overall, opponents hit only .248 against him, 8th in the AL and 2nd among AL rookies behind Oakland's Joe Blanton...the opposition was 2-for-18 off him with the bases loaded.

» Was the 2nd toughest to hit a HR off in the AL behind Los Angeles' John Lackey...Kazmir allowed only 12 in 186 innings (1 HR every 15 IP); Lackey led allowing only 13 in 209 (1 HR every 16 IP).

» Opponents slugging pct. was only .374, 6th lowest in the AL and far below the AL average of .424.

» Had 3 outings of 10+ strikeouts including a career-high 11 on Sep 10 vs. Toronto...Became the first Rays pitcher to accomplish that more than once.

» Twice against the Twins he took no-hitters into the 5th inning and ended up losing both games.

» Twice he teamed up with Joe Borowski and Danys Baez on 1-0 wins: Aug 14 at Cleveland and Sep 4 at Toronto.

◆ Acquired the day before the trading deadline on July 30, 2004 from the New York Mets along with RHP Jose Diaz in exchange for RHP Victor Zambrano and RHP Bartolome Fortunato.

» Was assigned to AA Montgomery, but was there for just 3 weeks before promotion to the Rays...Became the youngest pitcher in the majors that season and the 2nd youngest in Rays' history when he made his major league debut at Seattle on Aug 23 at the age of 20 years, 7 months...Threw 5 scoreless innings as the Rays won, 9-0...The first batter he faced was 2004 AL Batting champion Ichiro and he got him on a groundout to SS...In the last 30 years, only 9 pitchers have won their major league debut at a younger age...Was the youngest pitcher to win his major league debut via shutout since Mike Norris with the A's on April 10, 1975.

» Was the 6th Ray to record the win in his major league debut: also Rolando Arrojo (1998), Mickey Callaway (1999), Joe Kennedy (2001), Seth McClung (2003) and Doug Waechter (2003)...Arrojo, Callaway and Kennedy were also starting assignments

» On Sept. 14, at 20 years, 8 months, 21 days, he became the youngest left-handed pitcher to beat the World Series champion Red Sox at Fenway since Hal Newhouser did it for the Tigers on Aug 3, 1941, at the age of 20 years, 2 months, 13 days. Kazmir defeated Pedro Martinez, 5-2...He became just the 11th rookie ever to beat the 3-time Cy Young Award winner...His line (IP-6, H-3, R-0, BB-3, SO-9)

» In 2 games against the Red Sox – he was 1-0 and allowed 3 hits, no runs, 4 walks and fanned 15 in 9.1 innings....On Sep 27 at home vs. the Red Sox, he was ejected with one out in the 4th inning after giving up back-to-back batters (Manny Ramirez and Kevin Millar)...Had not allowed a hit at the time of his ejection and had fanned 6.

» Pitched at 3 minor league stops, beginning the year at Class A St. Lucie, then at AA Binghamton before the trade.

» In 19 starts was a combined 4-5 with a 2.50 ERA (IP-101, H-79, SO-104)...Two starts before the trade on July 20 vs. New Hampshire (Blue Jays) he posted career highs in innings pitched (8.0) and a season high in strikeouts (10) but lost 2-0.

» Missed most of May with a strained oblique muscle.

» Won his Montgomery debut 11-1 at Carolina (Marlins) on Aug. 1 (5.0-IP, 3-H, 0-R, 3-BB, 8-SO).

» Baseball America listed him as the 12th-best prospect in all of minor league baseball and the 3rd-best pitching prospect behind RHP Edwin Jackson and LHP Greg Miller.

» Was invited to Mets camp as a non-roster invitee.

» During his minor league career struck out 11.15 batters per 9 innings and held opponents to a .207 average (163-788)...In 49 career minor league starts he allowed more than 6 hits only once: August 4, 2004 when he allowed 7 in a loss to Chattanooga (Reds) pitching for AA Montgomery.

» He had more strikeouts than hits allowed in 36 of his 49 starts and has allowed 3 hits or less in 27 of his 49 starts

◆ In 2003, led all minor league starting pitchers in strikeouts per nine innings (11.94)...Had 145 strikeouts in 109.1 innings...Also was 5th in batting average against (.202).

» Named the Mets best prospect and the 11th best prospect in all of minor league baseball by Baseball America.

» Had a then career-high 11 strikeouts (in 5 innings) June 14, 2003 vs. Savannah (Expos) while pitching for Capital City.

» Made 2 postseason appearances...was 1-0 and didn't allow a run in 9.1 innings (SO-12) to help lead Port St. Lucie to the Florida State League championship...Was the winning pitcher in the FSL title clinching game on Sep 9 at Dunedin.

◆ Named Baseball America's top left-handed minor league pitcher in 2002...Opponents batted .089 (5-56) off him in 5 appearances for Class A Brooklyn.

AMATEUR CAREER

» Named Baseball America's High School Player of the Year in 2002 and was all-state at Cypress Falls High School in Houston, TX...Went 11-2 that season as a senior with one save and a 0.37 ERA in 75 innings...Allowed 19 hits, 19 walks and fanned 175.

» His 175 strikeouts broke Josh Beckett's single season state record (172 Ks)...Threw six no-hitters during his high school career as well as a 19 strikeout, one-hitter...Threw 4 consecutive no-hitters as a junior.

» Also batted .310 with 3 home runs and 21 RBI as a senior at Cypress Falls.

» Was the quarterback of the football team as a freshman and sophomore before concentrating solely on baseball.

» He and B.J. Upton helped the United States Junior Olympic team earn a silver medal in 2001 in Camaguey, Cuba...Despite being ill, he struck out 33 batters in 16.0 innings and recorded a 13.0 scoreless innings streak during the tournament.

» His high school teammate, righthanded pitcher Clint Everts, was also taken in the first round of the 2002 draft (5th overall) by Montreal...The duo became only the 4th pair of high school teammates to be selected in the first round of the draft.

PERSONAL/MISC

» Lives in Tampa Bay area year-round after purchasing a home on Harbor Island.

Rays To Play Rangers At Disney Sports Complex

The Rays will host the Texas Rangers for three regular season games, May 15-17, 2007, at The Ballpark at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex. While minor league baseball dates back to 1919 in Orlando, these will be the first regular season major league games played there.

Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex is the premier multi-use athletics complex in the country. The 220-acre facility plays host to more than 180 amateur and professional sports events each year. It is located at Walt Disney World Resort – about 90 miles northeast of St. Petersburg, 70 miles northeast of Tampa, and 20 miles southwest of downtown Orlando.

The Ballpark at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex has played host to several high-profile Major League Baseball events in recent years. In addition to serving as the spring training home of the Atlanta Braves for the past decade, the Ballpark at Disney hosted six World Baseball Classic games in 2006. The ballpark at Disney seats approximately 9,500 fans, but can be expanded to 13,000.

Signing Scout: Danny Garcia (Brewers)

X-RAY REPORT

» Ruddy is the younger brother of former Ray and current Red Sox shortstop Julio Lugo... May 7 of last season at Oakland was a special moment for the brothers – the first time they appeared on the field together and the first time they ever played competitively together...they are the only set of brothers to play together in Tampa Bay's brief history.

2006 SEASON

» First season above Double-A the 26-year-old led all AL rookies with 64 appearances, tying Esteban Yan's club rookie record (1998), and led all major league rookies with 85.0 relief innings, just shy of Yan's 88.2...in fact, is the 4th-highest relief total in club history behind Rick White (105.2 in 1999), Travis Harper (93.0 in 2003) and Yan.

» Pitched to a 3.81 ERA, tops among TB relief pitchers...only DET Joel Zumaya (1.94) was better among AL rookie relievers...his .240 opponents batting average was also best among Rays relievers (actually tied with Scott Kazmir for lowest on the staff), bettered by only Zumaya (.187) among AL rookie relievers.

» His ERA stood at a season-high 6.08 on May 17 thru his first 18 big league outings following a loss to the White Sox at home (23.2-IP, 24-H, 16-ER)...allowed just 2 ER over his next 16 apps through June 20 (18.2-IP), a 0.96 ERA and pitched to a 2.93 ERA the rest of the way (61.1-IP, 51-H, 20-ER)...finished the season strong, pitching to a 2.35 ERA over his final 13 apps from Aug. 31 (15.1-IP, 4-ER).

» Worked 2.0 or more innings 18 times including a season-most 3.1 on two occasions: June 1 at Baltimore and Aug. 12 at Oakland - tied with Brian Meadows for the longest outing by a Rays reliever on the season.

» Left June 20 game vs. ARI with a mid-back strain...a 3-week DL stint followed (June 21-July 13).

» Compiled a 13.2 inning scoreless streak over an 8-game stretch, Aug 4-23, 3rd longest on the club this season (Kazmir-18.0, Shields 16.0).

» Made his ML debut Opening Day, April 3 at Baltimore, pitching 1.1...allowed a pair of runs on 3 hits, including a Jeff Conine solo HR.

» Suffered the 7-4 loss April 18 at Boston, his first big league decision...both his batters faced reached and scored.

» Earned his first major league win May 20 vs. FLA with a scoreless 9th (1-K)...TB won in the bottom of the frame on Branyan's walk-off HR.

» 42 of his 64 outings were scoreless.

» Had much more success away from Tropicana Field (2.89) than at home (4.93)...also pitched to a 1.90 ERA during the day and 4.55 at night.

» Pitched better against left-handed hitters, yielding just a .213 avg. (32-150) and no home runs... was actually the 14th-lowest average among all ML relievers...righties hit .264 (43-163) with 4 HR.

» Was unscored upon in 4 interleague outings (5.1 IP).

» Pitched to a 15.96 ERA in 7 apps against the White Sox and Tigers (7.1-IP, 15-H, 13-ER) and a 2.66 ERA against the rest of baseball (77.2-IP, 23-ER)...two of his four home runs allowed came at the hands of the Tigers (Clevlen, Monroe).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Appeared in 26 games with Double-A Montgomery in 2005 going 1-1 with 2 saves and a 1.12 ERA, lowest among Biscuits relievers...held opponents to a .169 average and fanned 48 in 40.1 IP.

» 22 of his 26 outings were scoreless.

» Took his lone loss in game two of a doubleheader Aug 20 at West Tenn (CHC)...allowed a season-high 3 runs, 2 earned...ended his stretch of 23.2 IP in which he did not allow an earned run...during the 15-game span: 3 R, 13 BB, 25 K, .130 opp. avg. (10-for-77).

» Did not allow an earned run in 12 apps. at Montgomery's Riverwalk Stadium (16.1IP, 3R).

» Was especially tough on lefties holding them to just 6 hits in 61 AB's, a .098 average.

» Signed with the Rays during extended spring training...appeared in one game with Visalia (A) before joining the Biscuits.

◆ Opened the 2004 campaign with single-A Jupiter in the Marlins organization.

» Served as the club's primary closer leading the staff with 11 saves.

» Appeared in 8 games for AA Carolina...allowed just one run in his first six games (8.1 IP).

◆ Obtained by the Houston Astros from the Dodgers on Jan. 25, 2003 in exchange for Daryle Ward.

» Spent the year at Round Rock, his first full season at the AA level...led the Texas League with 15 losses...Opened the season with 6 straight losses, dropped his first 10 decisions.

◆ Won a career-high 11 games in 2002 combined at Vero Beach (A) and Jacksonville (AA).

◆ Acquired by the Los Angeles Dodgers as the player to be named in the Feb. 25, 2001 deal in which Milwaukee received Devon White in exchange for Marquis Grissom.

◆ Ranked among Pioneer League pitching leaders in 2000 at rookie Ogden...led the league in starts (16) while finishing second in strikeouts (88) and innings pitched (92.1).

» Struck out a career-high 11 in his final turn Sept 3 at Billings tossing his first career complete game (9.0IP, 7H, 2R/ER, 2BB).

X-RAY REPORT

» Is from Lewisburg, WV: population 3,589.

» His father, Mike, was an all-state high school footballer. His brother, Marcus, played football at Virginia Tech then signed to play for the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League before a knee injury ended his playing career (Seth wears #37 as a tribute to him). Brother Shawn played extreme sports and younger brother Sam was an offensive lineman (6-6, 310) at Tusculum College in Greenville, Tennessee.

» Seth sponsors and is the general manager of the West Virginia Rush Athletic Program (www.wvrush.com) which provides exceptional athletes in West Virginia and parts of Virginia, the opportunity to compete at a high level.

» Is a volunteer assistant coach for the University of Tampa women's basketball team.

» Is very involved with the Ronceverte Volunteer Fire Department Christmas Stocking Giveaway in his native West Virginia which hands out over 2,000 stockings a year.

» Reads to Bay Area and West Virginia elementary schools during his free time and the offseason.

» Seth was the regular season champion of the inaugural season of the Professional Baseball Gaming League (pbgl.ggl.com).

2006 SEASON

» Had two tours with the Rays; the first as a starter and the second as a closer...In between, was at AAA Durham where he worked on conversion to closer from June 20 to Aug 2.

» Despite spending six weeks at Durham, finished the season 10th in the AL in walks allowed (68)…His 5.94 walks per 9 innings was the 2nd highest among major league pitchers with 100 or more innings…Only Baltimore's Daniel Cabrera (6.32) was higher…Was also the 2nd highest in club history (min 100 IP) behind Victor Zambrano's mark of 6.75 walks per 9 in 2004.

	ERA	W	L	Sv	Opp	G	IP	H	R	ER	HR	BB	SO
Starter	6.81	2	10	0	0	15	80.2	98	66	61	12	47	38
Reliever	4.43	4	2	6	7	24	22.1	22	11	11	2	21	21

» Opened the season as the Rays #2 starter…After 15 starts was 2-10 with a 6.81 ERA…Was leading the majors in losses and was 2nd in runs allowed (66) and walks (47)...Optioned to AAA Durham on June 20 where he began the change to the closer role.

» Had his best stretch of the season over 4 starts (2.30, IP-27.1, ER-7) and was 1-1 including a 4-1 win at home over Toronto on May 12 (IP-7, H-6, R-1, ER-1, BB-1, SO-6)….Following that surge, he lost his next 6 starts (9.00, IP-31, ER-31) and was optioned to Durham.

» At Durham, he was the finishing pitcher in 12 of his 14 appearances and was 1-0 with 5 saves…struck out 26 and walked only 2.

» Returned to the Rays on Aug 2 and served as the Rays primary closer the rest of the season... In his first appearance he earned a win vs. Detroit on Aug 3 retiring all 4 batters he faced.

» Over a 21-game span after returning, he earned his first 6 saves and 2 wins and was unscored upon in 10 of 11 appearances...Earned his first 2 major league saves on back-to-back nights, Aug 21-22, saving 4-3 and 5-3 wins over Texas.

» The remainder of the season in 7 appearances: IP-6.2, H-8, R-6, ER-6, BB-9...Was on the mound for 3 of the Rays' 10 "walk-off" losses: allowed a "walk-off" grand slam to Richie Sexson at Seattle on Aug 8; a "walk-off" single to Miguel Tejada at Baltimore on Aug 26 and walked in the game-winning run in the bottom of the 9th inning at Cleveland on Sep 29.

» Allowed 16.69 base runners per 9 IP, most among all major leaguers with 100 or more innings...It was also the most allowed in club history in one season (min 100 IP) and the 11th most in one season in the AL since 1969.

» Was 0-7 on the road with a 9.55 ERA (IP-43.1, ER-50) in 16 games, 8 starts...Was 6-5 with a 3.92 ERA (IP-59.2, ER-26) and a perfect 5-for-5 in save opportunities at home in 23 games, 7 starts...Opponents batted .262 at home and .335 on the road.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Opened the 2005 season on the major league roster, some 645 days since undergoing "Tommy John" surgery on June 26, 2003 and some 675 days is last big league action.

» Began the season in the Rays bullpen, but was twice optioned to AAA Durham in the first three months... Was 0-2 with an 11.09 ERA in 17 relief appearances when he was optioned a second time on June 3...Returned for good on June 26 and was put into the rotation for the rest of the season...As a starter was 7-9 with a 5.66 ERA (IP-90.2, H-84, ER-57) in 17 starts.

» Held right-handers to a .197 (39-198) average, 2nd best in the AL behind Baltimore's Daniel Cabrera (.174).

» First start came June 26 against the Marlins...IP-7.0, H-2, R-1, ER-1, BB-3, SO-5...Lost 1-0 to A.J. Burnett...Walked 3 batters, all coming in the 3rd inning including Miguel Cabrera with two out and the bases loaded.

» Earned the win in Tampa Bay's 500th victory August 19 vs. Texas defeating the Rangers 2-1 (IP-7.0, H-3, R-1, ER-1, BB-1, SO-5)...Retired 20 of the last 22 batters he faced.

» In his last starts of the season, Sept 28 at Cleveland, he beat 18-game winner Cliff Lee, 1-0...Worked 8 innings of 4-hit ball and faced only 28 hitters in eight innings in a game that seriously damaged the Tribe's playoff hopes.

» Was 3-0 in 3 starts against Cleveland (ERA-1.77, IP-20.1, H-15, ER-4) holding them to a .205 average...All 3 wins came in the last 7 weeks of the season...Only three others beat the Indians 3 times in 2005 and all were from the Central Division: Detroit's Mike Maroth, Chicago's Jon Garland and Minnesota's Jesse Crain...Was 0-3 vs. Boston in 5 games, 3 starts (11.32, IP-10.1, H-13, ER-13) including a 9-5 loss on Sep 15 in which he allowed four home runs.

» Also had 4 starts when he couldn't complete 3 innings, including 3 times in his last 6 starts.

» Was 0-3 in his first 4 starts (4.15) before he won 7-5 vs. Baltimore on July 22 (IP-5, H-5, R-4, ER-4, BB-4, SO-7)...It was his first win since May 16, 2003.

» On Aug 29 at Bos, was bidding for his club record 5th win of the month, but pitched just one inning (18 pitches) and allowed solo home runs to Johnny Damon and David Ortiz before a one hour and 43 minute rain delay stopped play at Fenway Park...He didn't return after the delay and took the loss...Wound up with a 4-2 record for the month despite a 6.35 ERA... Became just the 3rd Ray to win four games in August joining Jim Mecir in 1998 and Wilson Alvarez in 1999.

◆ Missed most of 2004 rehabbing from the "Tommy John " surgery.

» Returned to action July 6 making his first rehabilitation appearance for Class A Charleston on vs. Columbus (Dodgers)...pitched 3.0 hitless innings (1-BB, 2-SO).

» Made a total of 6 rehabilitation starts, 3 for the Riverdogs (0.00 ERA) and 3 for AA Montgomery (4.73 ERA) ...worked a season-high 5.0 innings July 26 for the Biscuits in a 3-0 combined shutout win vs. West Tenn (Cubs).

» Following his 30-day rehab assignment he was optioned to AAA Durham on Aug. 3...pitched out of the bullpen for the Bulls and appeared in 11 games over the season's final month, going 2-1 with a 3.29 ERA...held opponents to a .208 average...Last 5 appearances were scoreless 6.0-IP, 2-H, 2-BB, 5-K.

» Combined totals on the year: 3-2, 2.97 ERA, 17 G (6 starts), 36.1-IP, 25-H, 12-R, 12-ER, 15-BB, 30-SO, 3-HR.

◆ In 2003, the 22-year-old rookie made the jump from Double-A to the big leagues and made 12 appearances (5 starts) before season-ending "Tommy John" surgery...was originally placed on the 15-day DL May 23 with a right elbow strain; transferred to the 60-day DL on June 6; then underwent the procedure on June 26 by Rays Medical Director, Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, Alabama...a ligament from his left leg was used in the repair.

» Had his surgery and rehabilitation chronicled by Major League Baseball Productions for an episode of "This Week in Baseball."

» At the time he was shelved, was tied with Lance Carter for the team lead in wins and tied with Carter, Anaheim's Francisco Rodriguez and Toronto's Mark Hendrickson for most among AL rookies...His .241 opponents average ranked 4th best among AL rooks...Held right-handers to just a stingy .205 mark (15/73).

» Opened the season in the bullpen and made 7 appearances before joining the rotation in late April where he started 5 games before his injury.

» Pitched Opening Night (March 31) vs. Boston and picked up the 6-4 win (on Carl Crawford's walk-off HR) with 2.0 scoreless innings in relief (2-BB, 3-K)...struck out Kevin Millar, his first ML batter faced.

» Became the 4th Ray to earn a win in his ML debut (first reliever), joining Arrojo ('98), Callaway ('99) and Kennedy ('01).

» Was 1-0, 4.30 in relief (14.2-IP, 9-H, 7-ER).

» Went 3-1, 6.00 as a starter (24-IP, 24-H, 16-ER) but 13 of those earned runs came in two starts... allowed just one run in each of his other 3 starts.

» Two of his four wins came against Baltimore...in fact, he allowed just 2 runs and 9 hits versus the Orioles in 19.0 IP (0.95 ERA) while pitching to a 9.61 ERA (19.2-IP, 24-H, 21-ER) against everyone else.

» First major league start he beat the Orioles and Omar Daal 2-1 at Tropicana Field on April 25...worked 6.0 innings (3-H, 1-R/ER, 4-BB, 3-SO, 77 pitches)...He, Mike Venafro, Travis Harper and Lance Carter combined on a 3-hitter...Took a 2-hit shutout into the 7th inning.

» At 22 years, 3 mo. became the 3rd-youngest pitcher to start a game in the Rays' brief history behind Dan Wheeler (21, years, 7 mo.) and Joe Kennedy (22 years, 1 mo.)...later in the season Chad Gaudin became the youngest at 20 years, 4 mo. followed by Scott Kazmir last season at 20 years 7 mo.

» Entering that start had pitched 6.2 scoreless innings of relief against the O's, allowing just 3 base runners...Also won at Camden Yards, 5-1, on May 16...did walk a career-high 6 (6.1-IP, 4-H, 1-R/ER, 3-K).

» Last start was May 22 at Texas when he allowed 6 hits, 4 walks and 7 runs in 3.1 IP...was a no dec. in a 10-8 Rangers win.

» Was placed on the disabled list the next day.

» Pitched much better at Tropicana Field (3-0, 3.15) than on the road (1-1, 7.71).

» Entered the season as the 2nd-best pitching prospect in the organization by Baseball America behind Dewon Brazelton...also rated as having the organization's best fastball and curveball.

Roberto Clemente Award, Presented By John Hancock

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Edgar Martinez; Jamie Moyer; Jim Thome; Curt Schilling; Al Leiter; Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr. Rocco Baldelli was the Rays 2006 nominee.

X-RAY REPORT

» Dan, who has pitched in the majors for nine different clubs is the only player to play for teams in four different divisions in the same season (Elias Sports Bureau)...he began the 2003 season with Colorado, joined Cleveland in May, was acquired by the Yankees in June and then the Astros in July...he has also pitched for the Rockies in three separate stints, becoming the only player to do so in that club's history.

2006 SEASON

» Veteran righthander pitched in 33 games, despite spending half the season on the disabled list...was shelved May 5 with a right shoulder impingement and missed 83 games.

» Has pitched for nine different clubs in his 16-year career...Rays marked his 8th different Opening Day franchise.

» Opened the year as the Rays' closer...was 3rd in the league with 11 games finished when he was shut down.

» His ERA stood at 6.39 at the time of the injury (14-G, 12.2-IP, 9-ER, 4-HR)...reinstated from the DL Aug. 7 and pitched to a 2.33 ERA over the season's final seven weeks (19-G, 19.1-IP, 5-ER, 0-HR).

» Held opponents to just a .217 avg. (25-115), including a stingy .121 mark in September (4-33)... lefties batted just .130 (7-54)...for his career, he has held right-handed hitters to a .234 average.

» Converted 4 of his 7 save opportunities...most saves since a career-high 21 for Pittsburgh in 1995 – the only other time he has posted more than 3 saves in a season...owns 38 career saves...notched his first save as a Ray Apr 7 and first since 2004 for Houston...was his first AL save since 2003 for the Yankees.

» He allowed three of his four home runs in his first five appearances...fourth HR was a grand slam by NYY's Johnny Damon on May 4 at home, his last outing before heading to the DL...was his first slam surrendered in 8 years (since 1998).

» Earned his first win as a Ray Sep 9 vs. Oakland despite allowing 2 runs and getting charged with a blown save.

» Had much more success on the road (2.20 ERA, .155 opp avg.) than at Tropicana Field (5.74 ERA, .281).

» Tossed a season high 2.0 innings May 2 vs. TEX (3-H, 1-R/ER).

» Allowed only 5-of-22 inherited runners to score (22.7%)...only Jon Switzer (21.4) was better among Rays relievers.

» First batters were just 5-for-26 (.192).

» Participated in the inaugural World Baseball Classic with Italy.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Signed in January, 2005 to play with the Yomiuri Giants of the Japanese Central League... was expected to be their closer but was released on April 19, 2 ½ weeks into the season after pitching in four games, two of those blown saves.

» Signed with the Colorado Rockies to a minor league deal on May 21 and assigned to AAA Colorado Springs...made 5 appearances for the Sky Sox before the Rockies purchased his contract on June 21.

» Pitched in 19 games for the Rox before his season was cut short after a batted ball struck his left foot on Aug. 4 at San Francisco (hit by Michael Tucker) and he subsequently spent the remainder of the season on the disabled list...was initially diagnosed with a deep bone bruise in his left foot...after an MRI did not produce a definitive reading, he underwent a bone scan which revealed multiple stress fractures...he was then ordered to stay off the foot for four months.

» In that final game at San Francisco he allowed 5 hits and 5 runs in 0.1 as his ERA soared from 3.50 to 5.89.

» Made a career-high 74 appearances in 2004 with Houston...ranked tied for 13th in the National League in relief strikeouts with 83.

» Was on Disabled List with conjunctivitis from Aug. 22-Sept. 8...activated on Sept. 9 and tossed one scoreless inning with two strikeouts in game two of a doubleheader vs. Pittsburgh.

» Earned his first save of the year on July 3 vs. Texas with 1.1 scoreless innings...was his first save since June 27, 2003 vs. the New York Mets.

» Allowed a season-high five runs on May 29 vs. St. Louis, his most allowed since Aug. 16, 2000 vs. Los Angeles...tagged with his first blown save.

◆ In 2003 became the first pitcher in Major League history to pitch for teams in four different divisions in one season: Rockies, Indians, Yankees and Astros.

» Went a combined 3-2 with a save and a 3.20 ERA in 57 appearances (70.1-IP, 59-H, 25-ER).

» May 15...acquired by the Yankees on June 25...released on July 25...acquired by Astros on July 29.

◆ Opened the 2002 season in the Texas Rangers bullpen...pitched in nine games, 8.1 innings of work, and compiled a 8.64 ERA...released by Texas May 6 and didn't sign with another club until agreeing to terms with Colorado on Dec. 19.

◆ Spent time with both Florida and Colorado in 2001, compiling a 4.80 ERA (24ER/45.0IP) and 2-5 record...reported to Triple-A Colorado Springs and pitched in four games before having his contract purchased July 8...made his Rockies debut that day, pitching a scoreless seventh... went on to post a 2.21 ERA (5ER/20.1IP) in 22 games for Colorado, the team's lowest second-half ERA...did not allow an earned run in August (eight games) or September (four games), a total of 11.1 innings...released by the Marlins June 27 and signed by the Rockies July 2...with Florida, appeared in 29 games and allowed 19 earned runs in 24.2 innings of work.

◆ Pitched in 45 games for the Marlins in 2000, securing a 4.25 ERA (23ER/48.2IP) with 40 strikeouts...led the team with six relief wins, the ninth most in the NL...held right-handed batters to a .216 average and allowed just one of his 14 inherited runners to score...gave up only two earned runs in his first 11 outings, 11.1 innings, and only four earned runs in his first 18 contests, 20.1 innings...placed on the 15-day disabled list May 31 due to inflammation of the flexor muscle in his right forearm...pitched in seven games during his rehab assignment for Melbourne and Brevard County, before being reinstated July 19.

◆ Led San Diego in 1999 with 66 appearances and finished second on the squad to Trevor Hoffman in strikeouts (59) and games finished (28)...at home, he posted a 2.65 ERA in 33 games, as opposed to his 6.61 ERA on the road...had his best month in June when he didn't allow an earned run in eight games, 11.0 innings, holding opponents to a .088 batting average...opened the season by going 4-2 with a 3.46 ERA (15ER/39.0IP) in his first 38 contests.

◆ Appeared in a club-high 67 games in 1998 in his first season with the Padres...held the opposition scoreless in 54 of his 67 appearances and stranded 21-of-31 inherited runners...led all NL relievers with 10 wins...in the postseason, saw work in eight games and compiled a 1-1 record with a 3.18 ERA...in the World Series vs. the Yankees, he threw 1.2 scoreless innings in two games...in the NLCS vs. Atlanta, he allowed one run on 4 hits in 0.2 IP...did not surrender a run in 12.0 innings of action during August...at one point, worked 20.1 scoreless innings from July 12-Aug. 28, helping to lower his ERA from 4.01 to 2.71.

◆ With the Detroit Tigers in 1997, he set career highs in appearances (71) and strikeouts (79)...earned a win Aug. 21 at Milwaukee in his longest career relief outing (3.0IP)...posted a 3.00 ERA from July 22 through the end of the season...had his best month in May, gathering a 1.54 ERA with 12 strikeouts.

◆ Made his first and only career starts with Pittsburgh (9) in 1996...overall, worked in a personal best 85.2 innings...compiled a 2.14 ERA in his final 16 relief outings...set a career high with nine strikeouts July 20 vs. Cincinnati...his first professional start came July 7 vs. St. Louis when he pitched in 4.0 innings, allowing 1 earned run...that start snapped a string of 306 career appearances in relief.

◆ Appeared in his first full season in the Major Leagues in 1995 with the Pirates, converting a team and career high 21 saves, the most for a Pirate since Bill Landrum saved 26 in 1989...finished 51 games, tying for the fifth most in the National League.

◆ Opened the 1994 season with Triple-A Buffalo and appeared in 28 games with Pittsburgh...earned his first Major League victory July 19 vs. Atlanta and got his first ML save July 25 vs. Chicago Cubs...called-up to Pittsburgh July 11 and remained on the big league club the remainder of the season...optioned down to Buffalo May 25 after appearing in 11 games for the Pirates...recalled again May 29 and then sent down for a final time June 16...pitched in six games prior to being recalled by Pittsburgh April 22.

◆ Made his Major League debut with the Pirates Sept. 9, 1993 vs. Colorado, retiring his only batter faced...reported to Double-A Carolina and went 0-2 before being recalled to the Pirates...opened the year with Kansas City's Double-A affiliate Memphis before being traded to the Pittsburgh organization.

» MINOR LEAGUES – Split time between Single-A Appleton and Double-A Memphis in 1992, being named Kansas City's Minor League Player of the Year...finished with a 1.92 combined ERA (13ER/61.0IP) and 4-1 record...Led Class-A Eugene with 10 saves in 1991, the third most in the Northwest League...ranked fourth in games finished (21), relief average against (.158) and fifth in both runners per 9.0IP (9.89) among relievers and relief points (28)...In his first professional season, 1990, he finished first in the league in games pitched with 27.

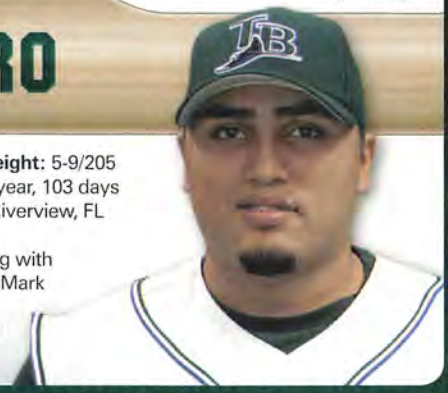
Golden Seats

Fans at Tropicana Field will notice two gold seats in the right field stands. The seat located in the third row of section 148 is the location where the first Devil Rays home run landed, a 2-run shot hit by Wade Boggs off Detroit's Justin Thompson in the 6th inning of the Rays' inaugural game, March 31, 1998. The other gold seat in section 144 marks the seat where Wade Boggs' 3000th hit landed, a 2-run home run off Cleveland's Chris Haney on Aug. 7, 1999.

CATCHER

30 Dioner NAVARRO

Dioner Faviau Navarro



Bats/Throws: S/R
Height/Weight: 5-9/205
Opening Day Age: 23
Tenure: 1 year, 103 days
Born: 2/9/84 in Caracas, Venezuela
Resides: Riverview, FL
Contract Status: Signed through 2007
Acquired: From the Los Angeles Dodgers along with RHP Jae Seo in exchange for C Toby Hall, LHP Mark Hendrickson and cash on June 27, 2006
Signing Scouts: Carlos Rios, Ricardo Finol and Hector Rinconces (Yankees)

X-RAY REPORT

» Dioner moved to Tampa, FL in 2002 when he played with the Yankees' Class-A Tampa affiliate... his Riverview home is now approximately 24 miles from his home field, Tropicana Field.

» Dioner was involved in a 3-team, 10-player trade on January 11, 2005 that saw him dealt from the Yankees to the Diamondbacks and then hours later, from the D-Backs to the Dodgers. Dioner's day of travel included a flight from Caracas, Venezuela to Miami, Miami to Dallas, Dallas to Phoenix where he took a physical, Phoenix to L.A., where he took a second physical, and finally back to Venezuela.

» Navi wears the number 30 in commemoration of Sept. 30, the day his wife was supposed to pass away, according to doctors, three days after suffering a brain aneurysm in 2003.

2006 SEASON

» Acquired June 27 from the Dodgers along with RHP Jae Seo and a player to be named later (OF Justin Ruggiano) for C Toby Hall, LHP Mark Hendrickson and cash.

» Started 52 of the Rays' final 85 games after he was acquired.

» Began the season as the Dodgers primary catcher starting 23 of their first 29 games... Suffered a bruised right wrist on May 4 against the Padres when he was hit by a foul tip off the bat of former Ray Vinny Castilla...Was on the DL, May 5 to June 16, then optioned to AAA Las Vegas...Had batted .429 (12-28) in his last 10 games before the injury and was batting .280 overall in 25 games.

» Appeared in 78 games behind the plate with the Dodgers and Rays and started 75 games... Batted a combined .254 (68-268).

» Doesn't turn 23 until Feb 9, 2007...In the last 25 years, only five catchers have caught 75 or more games in a season at a younger age: Joe Mauer (2005-MIN), Benito Santiago (1987-SD), Jason Kendall (1996-PIT), Ivan Rodriguez (1991-93-TEX) and Brian McCann (2006-ATL).

» With the Dodgers, opposing base runners were successful on all 16 attempts against him...It was a different story with the Rays as he threw out a team best 18 of 50 (36.0%), 5th best in the AL (min 50 games)...For comparison's sake, the major league average for catchers was 24.3%.

» Tied a club record with three caught stealings vs. the Angels on July 16...Tied mark also held by John Flaherty and Toby Hall.

» Was batting .271 as a Devil Ray entering the final month of the season, but batted only .170 (9-53) in September...Closed out August with a torrid 13-game stretch (.381, 16-42).

» Was the first catcher in major league history to start and finish a triple play when he and SS Ben Zobrist teamed up for the first-ever "2-6-2" triple play in major league history...It occurred in the first inning of the Rays-Mariners game on Sep 2 without the ball being put in play...Seattle's Raul Ibanez struck out with runners on first and third...Adrian Beltre tried to steal second and was out Navarro to Zobrist who tagged out Beltre as he tried retreating to first base...At that point, Jose Lopez tried to score from third and was thrown out, Zobrist to Navarro...Was the 2nd triple play turned in club history (also Sept 13, 2002).

» Homered off Red Sox closer Jonathan Papelbon on an 0-2 pitch with 2 out in the 8th inning to tie the game at 6-6 on Aug 6 at Tropicana Field...Rays won it in the 10th, 7-6...Papelbon entered the game with a 0.49 ERA and had held opponents to a .142 average...Navarro's was just the 2nd run he had allowed on the road all season.

» Made his Tropicana Field debut on July 4 and went 3-for-4 with two runs scored and 2 RBI in the Rays' 9-6 win over Boston.

» Became the 11th switch-hitter in club history...Is a natural right-handed hitter who started switch-hitting at age 13.

» Missed the last 6 games of the season to be with his son in Tampa who was undergoing surgery to remove a kidney.

» Appeared in 40 games with the Tiburones in the Venezuelan Winter League...batted .231 catching 17-of-51 attempted basestealers (33%).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Made two tours with the Dodgers in 2005 posting a .273 batting average, a .354 on-base percentage and a .375 slugging percentage.

» Joined L.A. for 4 days (May 27-31) when Paul Bako landed on the disabled list...did not play.

» Returned July 29 assuming the team's starting catcher's role and playing in 50 of the Dodgers' final 60 games...Hit .309 at home and carried a .435 batting average as a right-hander...was 3-for-7 (.429) with the bases loaded.

» Made his National League debut July 29 vs. St. Louis and singled in his first at-bat against Matt Morris.

» At 21 years and 170 days, he was the sixth-youngest player to appear in the N.L. in 2005.

» His first major league home run came Aug 12 against the Mets, a walk-off solo shot in the bottom of the 10th propelling the Dodgers to a 7-6 win.

» Batted .266 with 12 doubles, 6 home runs and 29 RBI at Triple-A Las Vegas before being recalled on July 29...Caught 35% of potential base stealers (24-of-69)...Earned a spot on the Pacific Coast League's midseason All-Star squad.

» Was named the eighth-best player in the minor leagues at midseason by the editors of Minor League News.

» Prior to the season (Jan 11), was involved in a 10-player, 3 team deal that sent him from the Yankees to the Diamondbacks in a 4-player deal involving Randy Johnson and then to Los Angeles along with three others in exchange for OF Shawn Green and cash.

◆ Saw his first major league action in 2004 with the Yankees...appeared in 5 games going 3-for-7 (.429) with 2 runs scored.

» Made his ML debut on Sept. 7 against Tampa Bay as a late-inning defensive replacement.

» At the age of 20 years and three months becoming the third youngest player in the majors behind Tampa Bay's B.J. Upton and Kansas City's Andres Blanco.

» Collected his first big-league hit on Sept 13, a single off KC's Chris George.

» Split the season between Double-A Trenton and Triple-A Columbus prior to his callup... combined to bat .263 with 22 doubles and throw out 33 percent of attempted basestealers while committing only 7 errors in 95 games.

» Rated by Baseball America as the Yankees' top prospect entering the season.

◆ Combined at class-A Tampa and Trenton in 2003 to bat a career high .321 with a career-most 31 doubles and 65 RBI.

» Opened year at Tampa batting .299 in 52 games...received a midseason promotion to Trenton where he collected 71 hits and 15 doubles in 58 games.

◆ Appeared in 92 games with class-A Greensboro in 2002 batting .238 with 8 home runs and 36 RBI...made only 8 errors in 87 games behind the plate.

» Promoted to Tampa for the final game of the season going 1-for-2.

◆ Earned All-Star recognition in his first professional season in 2001 with the Gulf Coast League Yankees hitting .280 with 22 RBI and a pair of home runs.

» Committed just 3 errors in 40 games behind the plate.

PERSONAL/MISC

» Pronounced Dee-honor Na-var-oh.

» He and his wife, Sherley, live in Riverview with his son, Dioner, Jr (1) and stepson, Gerson (8).

» Is nicknamed "Little Pudge" after Tigers catcher Ivan "Pudge" Rodriguez.

Signing Scout: Jonathan Bonifay (Devil Rays)

X-RAY REPORT

» Jeff was a Kinesiology major at Rice University…Both of his parents are University of Texas graduates, but his uncle and grandfather on his mother's side are Rice grads...Had a 3.83 grade point average in high school.

» His sister, Emily, was a 6'1" forward on the 2004-05 National Champion Baylor Bears and was named to the All-Final Four team…She owned a career percentage of 45.1 from the three-point line, a Baylor record, and as a freshman she set the school record for most 3-pointers in a season…She was both a Nike and Street and Smith's High School All-American in 2002 and named the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches' Private School Player of the Year in 2003.

» In spite of his height, did not play high school basketball…Tried out for Houston's Lanier Middle School basketball team but was beaten out by Emeka Okafor, presently with the NBA's Charlotte Bobcats.

2006 SEASON

» Opened the season on the disabled list recovering from October 2005 right shoulder surgery to shave the joint between his collarbone and shoulder.

» Returned to the mound on June 19 with AA Montgomery at Jacksonville (Dodgers)…tossed 4.1 innings in the starting assignment but took the loss despite allowing only one run on 4 hits…struck out 8 while walking 1.

» Was 5-5 overall with the Southern League Champion Biscuits striking out 84 batters in 77.1 innings pitched and allowing more than 3 earned runs only twice in 14 starts.

» Dropped his first four decisions pitching to a 4.06 ERA over the 6-game stretch as opponents hit .265.

» Turned the corner over his remaining 8 starts allowing runs in only three games as he went 5-1 with a 1.75 ERA and held opponents to a .156 batting average.

» Stretch began July 24 when he tossed 7.0 innings. of 1-hit ball against Jacksonville getting the 3-1 win.

» Made two starts in the postseason going 1-0 with a 2.92 ERA (12.1-IP, 4-ER) and 14 strikeouts…made the start in the Game 1 of the playoffs earning a 4-3 win over Jacksonville.

» Dominated in the first inning allowing only 2 hits and just 1 run to score over his 14 starts.

» Joined the Phoenix Desert Dogs in the Arizona Fall League…made just two starts (0-0, 2.70 ERA) before leaving the team due to a death in the family.

» Named Tampa Bay's top pitching prospect for the second straight season and the 8th best prospect in the Southern League by Baseball America…also tabbed by the publication as having the organization's best slider.

» Ranked as the 41st best prospect by Baseball Digest…entered the season as the publication's 79th best prospect in baseball.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Made his professional debut in 2005 appearing in 11 games between Visalia (A) and Montgomery...combined to go 0-2 with a 4.11 ERA and 48 strikeouts in 30.2 IP.

» Held opponents to a .173 batting average (19-for-110)...allowed only 5 hits to right-handed batters in 60 at-bats, a .083 avg.

» Was 0-1, 3.98 ERA in 5 starts with the Oaks...fanned 28 batters in 20.1 innings of work.

» Took the loss in his first career start April 16 at Bakersfield (Rangers) allowing a run on one hit and 2 walks in 3.1 IP...was pulled after reaching his 55-pitch limit.

» Recorded a season-high 10 K's over 5.0 IP in his third start April 26 vs. Inland Empire (Angels)... allowed just two baserunners (single, walk)...left with the 1-0 lead but the bullpen couldn't hold it.

» Sidelined with right shoulder inflammation June 21-Aug 2...Joined Double-A Montgomery upon his return from the disabled list.

» Made 3 relief appearances with the Biscuits, first two were scoreless (2.0 IP).

» Took the loss in his 3rd game out of the 'pen after giving up 4 runs (2 earned) in 0.2 innings.

» Moved into the Biscuits rotation for the final 3 weeks...pitched to a 3.52 ERA with no record in 3 starts striking out 12, walking 2 and holding the opposition to a .115 avg. in 7.1 combined innings.

» Appeared in two spring training games with the Rays throwing a total of 4.0 shutout innings (3h, 1bb, 4so).

» Named the Rays' best pitching prospect by Baseball America.

COLLEGE CAREER 2002-04

» He and fellow Rice pitching mates Philip Humber and Wade Townsend made baseball history when the three were drafted within the first eight selections of the 2004 draft...Humber was taken third by the Mets, Niemann fourth by the Rays and Townsend 8th by the Orioles...In 2003, another of their pitching mates, closer David Aardsma, was taken by the Giants in the first round with the 22nd pick.

» He is the 3rd first round draft pick from Rice to be a Devil Ray: Norm Charlton (1984, drafted by Expos) and Jose Cruz Jr. (1995, drafted by Mariners).

» Signed with the Rays some 204 days after he was drafted, did not pitch in between...Spent the latter part of 2004 as a volunteer at Rice U. Head Coach Wayne Graham's youth baseball camp.

» His fastball has reached 97 miles per hour.

» In 3 years at Rice, Niemann was 28-4 with a 2.41 ERA and 303 strikeouts in 284.1 innings... Allowed 92 walks and 219 hits...Three of those losses came in his junior season in 2004 when he went 6-3 with a 3.02 ERA with 94 strikeouts in 80 innings for the Owls...Pitched only 80 innings as he came back from off-season arthroscopic surgery on his right elbow...Also battled an in-season groin pull.

» As a sophomore in 2003, he was 17-0, tying the NCAA record for most wins in an undefeated season...Was a first team All-America as he helped lead Rice to the NCAA Championship... The Owls were 22-0 in the games he appeared...He pitched to a 1.70 ERA with 156 strikeouts in 137.1 innings...Allowed only 96 hits and 35 walks...He defeated Wichita State in the NCAA Regionals, Houston in the Super Regionals and SW Missouri State in the College World Series.

» Was invited to try out for the USA Baseball National team following his sophomore season but opted to play in the renowned Cape Cod League...He went 2-0 with the Harwich Mariners and didn't allow an earned run in 19.1 innings pitched (19 Ks).

» Was not drafted out of Lamar High School in Houston, despite possessing a 94-mile-an-hour

» Connected for a pinch-hit HR May 7 off Oakland's Justin Duchscherer tying the game at 2 in the 8th...was his 10th career PH HR...only Craig Wilson (12) has more PH homers than Norton since 2001...Norton's last 4 pinch-hit home runs have either tied the game or put his team ahead (source: David Vincent, SABR).

» Had a PH HR robbed by BAL Corey Patterson in the 9th inning May 30 at Camden Yards that would have tied the game.

» His 16 pinch-hit at-bats tied for the 5th most in club history.

» Gave the Rays the 7-6 walk-off win over Boston August 6 with a 10th-inning HR off Julian Tavarez...was the 3rd walk-off HR by the Rays on the season (also May 19 & 20 vs. FLA by Aubrey Huff and Russell Branyan, respectively)...was the first game-ending HR of his career.

» He batted .365 in August, fourth best in the AL behind LAA Vladimir Guerrero (.393), LAA Robb Quinlan (.387) and BOS Manny Ramirez (.378)...was the third-best August in club history (min 50 AB) behind Aubrey Huff in 2004 (.385) and Travis Lee in 2005 (.368).

» Raised his avg. 46 points in the month, from .252 to .298.

» Also collected 5 home runs in August, his 2nd best month...had 5 in Sept as well...best is 8 in May of 1999.

» Aug 19-22 had a stretch of 8 consecutive plate appearances reaching base (3-1B, 2-2B, HR, HBP)...tied a Rays club record also done by Tomas Perez in 2006 (July 28-30), Aubrey Huff (Sept 22-24, 2004) and Wade Boggs (Aug 11-13, 1998).

» Collected a career-high 4 hits Aug 21 vs. TEX (2-2B)...had 4 games of 3+ hits, his first 3-hit games since Oct 2, 2001 at Arizona for the Rockies.

» Hit safely in 8 straight Aug. 1-8, tying his career high.

» Hit .327 over the season's final two months (56-171), the 11th-best average in the A.L.

» Earned American League player-of-the-week honors the final week of the season, batting .360 (9-25) with three doubles, three home runs and eight RBI, 21 total bases and a slugging percentage of .840...was the 3rd Ray to win the award on the season (also Scott Kazmir May 15-21 and Carl Crawford May 22-28)...also the 2nd time for him – May 24-30, 1999 with the White Sox.

» His career-high 17th HR came on the last day of the season, Oct. 1 at Cleveland, a 2-run shot in his final at-bat (off Cliff Lee).

» Batted .415 against the Red Sox (17-41)...the only player who hit Sox pitching better with at least as many at-bats was the Blue Jays' Alex Rios (.446, 25-56).

» Has hit 70 of his 78 career home runs from the left side, 14 of his 17 in 2006.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

» Has played in 820 career games making 418 starts at third base (250), first base (121), the outfield (44) and shortstop (3)...also appeared in a game at second base with the White Sox in 1998...the switch-hitter owns a .258 career average against right-handers and .226 against lefties...has hit 70 of his 78 career home runs and collected 236 of his 273 RBI as a lefthander...since 2001, only Craig Wilson with 12 has more pinch-hit home runs than Norton.

◆ Re-signed with the Rockies in 2005 but was released late in spring training (March 29)...signed with the Chicago White Sox organization on April 21 and was assigned to AAA Charlotte, where he spent the entire campaign...snapped a string of 7 consecutive major league opening day rosters made.

» Belted 17 HR in 90 games for the Knights (330 AB)...second on the club to Joe Borchard's 29...had just one HR through his first dozen games before a 2-HR contest May 9 vs. Ottawa (Orioles)...also had a pair June 23 vs. Louisville (Reds) and Aug. 4 vs. Durham...seven of his home runs came in August, along with 25 RBI in 24 games...hit 13 home runs righthanded and 4 lefthanded.

X-RAY REPORT

» Chad was the starting shortstop for the Chatham A's in the Cape Cod League in 2002. Nineteen players off that team signed pro contracts and the team was the subject of Jim Collins' book "The Last Best League: One Summer, One Season, One Dream." The Chatham A's were also brought into the spotlight in the 2001 Warner Brothers movie "Summer Catch."

» Chad is considered among the best golfers on the team with an average score of 79.

2006 SEASON

» Righthander had a pair of tours with the Rays in his third full professional campaign…was up from April 18-June 4 and appeared in 16 games, going 1-4 with a 7.79 ERA and a .347 opp avg…was also up from Aug. 16 thru season's end and pitched in 7 games (0-1, 6.42 ERA, .345 opp avg.) before suffering a strained left oblique that sidelined him the final month.

» His 5 losses were 2nd among Rays relievers (Brian Meadows-6), despite just 22 appearances.

» Allowed runs in 10 of his 22 apps and had three more walks (20) than strikeouts (17)… entered the season with just 40 walks in 161 professional innings, while striking out 203.

» Was initially recalled from AAA Durham after Jason Hammel was optioned back to AAA in mid-April…six of his first seven appearances were against the Red Sox and Yankees.

» Had his best outing in his 3rd appearance, April 26 at Yankee Stadium, pitching a season-high 3.0 scoreless/hitless innings in picking up his lone win, 4-2 in 10 innings over Mariano Rivera… was also the winning pitcher the only other time the Rays defeated Mariano Rivera – Sep 6, 2005 at Yankee Stadium.

» Two outings later, April 30 vs. Boston, he surrendered back-to-back home runs (Mike Lowell, Wily Mo Pena), the first of two outings he would allow consecutive home runs.

» Pitched on consecutive days one time, May 3-4, for the second time in his career (also June 11-12, 2005)…blew the save in both games.

» His first four outings he surrendered just one earned run in 6.1 innings pitched…then had a 6-appearance stretch from April 30-May 14 in which he went 0-3 with 3 blown saves while pitching to a 15.20 ERA…all three losses were consecutive…hiked his ERA from 1.42 to 7.71.

» Returned for his 2nd stint to replace Chad Harville, who was designated for assignment.

» Four his first five outings upon returning were scoreless until his last outing, Sep 3 vs. Seattle when he did not record an out…charged with 4 runs, 3 earned, on 3 hits including back-to-back home runs to Ben Broussard and Rafael Betancourt.

» Righthanders batted .391 against him over his two stops (25-64)…was tougher on lefties, holding them to a .275 avg. (11-40).

» Allowed 13 of 18 inherited runners to score (72.2%), highest pct. on the staff…first batters were 8-for-17 (.471) with 4 walks.

» Was among the team's final cuts in spring training despite surrendering 12 hits and 10 runs (9 earned) in 10.2 innings pitched over 9 appearances.

» Pitched in 27 games at Durham, posting a 4-0 record with a 1.86 ERA...struck out 55 and walked just 9 in 38.2 innings...held opponents to a .217 average, including a .160 mark against righthanders.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

» Owns 215 strikeouts in 149.2 minor league innings holding opponents to a .174 batting average (94-for-539).

» Has pitched to a 5.70 ERA (47.1-IP, 30-ER) when rested two days or less in his major league career...owns a 3.33 ERA (27.0-IP, 10-ER) when receiving 3 or more days off between outings.

◆ Rookie pitched 37 times after being selected May 30, 2005 from AA Montgomery in his first Major League action...was his 2nd full season as a pro.

» Tossed 75.0 innings between Double-A Montgomery and the Rays...had just 86.0 professional innings total entering this season.

» Ranked 10th among AL rookies in appearances.

» Finished tied with the 7th most strikeouts among AL rookie relievers with 43...his 7.7 K's per 9 innings ranked 6th.

» His 3.60 ERA was 2nd best among Rays relievers to Danys Baez's 2.86...pitched to a 2.35 ERA following the All-Star Break after working to a 5.59 ERA his first 6 weeks in the big leagues.

» Rays won 17 of the last 22 games he appeared.

» His 14 holds were 2nd on the staff to Joe Borowski's 19.

» First 2 big league outings were scoreless...made his major league debut May 31 at Oakland tossing 1.2 scoreless innings of relief (0-H, 0-BB, 1-SO)...struck out the 1st batter he faced (Marco Scutaro)...followed with 1.0 shutout inning June 3 at Seattle (1-K, 2-BB), a mere 12 miles from his hometown of Renton, WA.

» Pitched on back-to-back days for the first time in his career on June 11-12 at Pittsburgh...that 2nd game he posted his first major league save as Rays won 7-5 in 13 innings to snap a 7-game losing skid.

» Fanned a career-high 5 over a career-high 3.2 IP July 10 vs. Detroit...matched his strikeout high Aug. 13 at Cleveland.

» Threw 2.0 scoreless innings July 17 at Toronto and got his first big league win, 5-4.

» Took the loss Aug. 4 at Texas...retired first two batters before allowing a Phil Nevin solo home run and a Hank Blalock 2-run HR two batters later...was the first time in his career (minors and majors) he was touched for 2 homers in a single outing.

» Last three decisions came against the Yankees...won Aug. 16 at home and Sep 6 at Yankee Stadium then suffered the 6-5 loss Sep 14 at Tropicana Field.

» Pitched well against New York and Boston (13.0-IP, 4-ER), holding them to a .136 batting average (9-44).

» Had a string of 9 scoreless outings from Aug. 13-Sep 8, covering 13 Innings pitched, his best stretch of the season.

» Did not pitch the final two weeks of the season sidelined with a tired arm.

» Had walked only 17 batters in 111 minor league innings before recall, but walked 23 in 50 IP with Rays.

» Recorded 9 saves and pitched to a 0.36 ERA with Montgomery allowing just 1 run in 25.0 innings pitched over 16 games...in fact, has allowed just that one run in 32.0 career innings at Double-A.

◆ Tampa Bay's 2004 Minor League Pitcher of the Year appeared in 45 games making stops in Charleston (A), Bakersfield (A), Montgomery and Durham.

» Was a combined 1-1 with a 1.71 ERA converting 12 of 13 save opportunities...His ERA never reached higher than the 1.92 mark he hit on Aug. 3.

» Led all minor league relievers with 116 strikeouts over 73.2 innings while walking just 10...His 14.17 strikeouts/9 IP ratio was the 6th highest in all of minor league baseball...Recorded at least one strikeout in all but four appearances and struck out more batters than he allowed hits in 36 games, never throwing more than 3.0 innings.

» Held opponents to a .159 batting average (42-for-264)...Opposing hitters managed just a .100 (4-for-40) BA in the month of August.

» Allowed the first run of his career Apr. 17 at Ashville in his third appearance of the season ending his scoreless streak at 18.0 innings to start his professional career (threw 12.1 scoreless innings at Hudson Valley in 2003).

» Finished the season with Durham...Allowed 1 run, via solo HR, over his 2 appearances with the Bulls...In fact, 7 of the 17 runs he allowed all year came via the home run.

» Threw 7.0 shutout, no-hit innings in six games with Double-A Montgomery where he fanned 14 of the 22 batters he faced, notching four saves.

» Incurred his first professional loss July 13 with Bakersfield (A) after giving up a career-high 3 earned runs against High Desert (Brewers)...Was 0-1, 4 saves with the Blaze (3.06 ERA, 24 K, 4 BB).

» Began the season with Single-A Charleston where he was 1-0 with 4 saves and a 1.33 ERA (IP-47.1, ER-7)...Allowed just 4 ER over his final 25.0 IP (14 G) before being promoted.

» Fanned a career-most 7 batters in 2.2 IP June 5 vs. Rome (Braves).

» Selected as a SAL midseason All-Star...Earned the save in the game with a perfect 9th inning.

» Named the organization's pitcher of the month for May after working to a 0.60 ERA (1-ER, 15.0-IP)...Did not allow a run May 10-29 (6-G, 11.0-IP).

◆ Played in 10 games with Hudson Valley (A) in 2003 before his season ended prematurely due to a partially torn meniscus in his left knee.

» Did not allow a run in 12.1 innings of work...Struck out 15 batters while walking just 1 and held opponents to a .140 average (6-for-43).

» Led the Renegades with 8 saves.

» Fanned 5 of 6 batters he faced in his pro debut.

» Never allowed more than 1 hit in any appearance.

PERSONAL/MISC

» Was primarily a shortstop through his college career...Pitched less than 40 innings combined in high school and college...Batted .326 in 59 games as a junior in 2002 and .314 in 62 games as a senior in 2003 at North Carolina State...Helped the Wolfpack to a 45-18 record in 2003, a number 12 national ranking and their first-ever appearance in the NCAA Super Regional Tournament...His only mound work came as a senior... Appeared in 10 games as a relief pitcher working just 13.1 innings... He was 2-3 with 2 saves in 10 appearances for the Wolfpack and pitched to an 8.10 ERA (IP-13.1, H-18, R-17, ER-12, SO-18) in front of closer Joey Devine.

» Pitched only a couple of innings as a senior at Eastlake (Sammamish, WA) High School and 20-some innings at Columbia Basin College (Spokane, WA) ...Led Columbia Basin to the 2001 Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges conference title.

X-RAY REPORT

» Josh was inducted into the Cape Cod League Hall of Fame on November 4, 2006...Josh is the only Cape Leaguer to win the batting title, MVP and Outstanding Pro Prospect Award in the same season (1995, Cotuit).

» Josh is writing a book on the mental game of baseball that he hopes to have published this year.

» On Feb 8, 2006, Josh had the opportunity to fly with the Blue Angels out of the Naval Air Facility in El Centro, CA...flew with Lt. Kevin Davis of the Blue Angels.

» Enjoys playing bass guitar.

» Josh's Vanderbilt teammate and friend Mark Hindy worked on the 104th floor of the World Trade Center as an Equities Trader for Cantor Fitzgerald and was a victim in the attacks on September 11, 2001. Josh was in New York City at the time of the attacks with the White Sox. Josh collects professional athletes autographs and memorabilia for the family to auction off and raise money for the Mark Hindy Charitable Foundation. The charity, established by the victim's family, provides through scholarship, the opportunity for a higher standard of education for deserving children who might otherwise be denied that opportunity, funds sports/summer programs for children that will foster a sense of teamwork and provide them with a healthy channel for their energies, and aims to improve the quality of life of chronically ill children as they undergo treatment for their illnesses and disabilities. (www.markhindycf.org). To honor the loss of his friend, Paul wrote Hindy's No. 41 on his chest protector for the remainder of the 2001 season. On Sept. 20 vs. the Yankees, Josh hit a game-winning, two-run double off Andy Pettitte in 6th inning in a game he dedicated to Hindy.

2006 SEASON

» Appeared in a career-high 58 games and recorded a career-high 146 AB...made his 6th Opening Day roster...was one of 5 Rays to be active for every game – also Shawn Camp, Carl Crawford, Damon Hollins and Brian Meadows.

» Made 47 starts, all at catcher...caught 9 of 43 (17.3%) potential base stealers.

» Saw action in LF late in the game May 22 at TOR, the 9th appearance there in his career.

» First start of the year he caught Mark Hendrickson's 2-0 shutout April 6 at Baltimore which gave manager Joe Maddon his first victory as Rays skipper.

» His 4.61 catchers ERA was lowest among Rays' three regular receivers on the season.

» Average was at a season-low .223 on July 18...batted .327 (17-52) the rest of the season to finish at .260.

» Was aided by a 10-game stretch from July 25-Aug. 26 in which he went 12-for-28 (.429) with 4-2B and 4-RBI...at one point reached 14 of 26 trips to the plate (10-H, 4-BB).

» Hit lefthanders nearly 100 points better than righties (.333 to .234).

» Belted his only HR of the season May 22 at TOR off Casey Janssen, and with it, his first RBI.

» Had 3 straight multi-hit games May 21-27 that included a pair of hits off Curt Schilling and a pair off Dontrelle Willis.

» Collected two doubles July 25 vs. LAA and a RBI...was his first game with 2 extra-base hits since Aug. 29, 2001 with the White Sox at Detroit.

» Collected season highs Aug 5 vs. Boston in hits (3) and RBI (3)...also stole a base...had just 4 RBI all season before that game.

Major League Waiver Rules

There are four types of waiver requests — major league waivers, special waivers, outright waivers and unconditional release waivers.

Major league waivers are necessary for any player assignment between major league clubs made from August 1 until the day after the close of the regular season. Waivers are not needed for major league assignments during the rest of the year. The trading deadline in which waivers are not needed is July 31.

Special waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor league club from September 1 until the 30th day of the following season.

Outright waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor leauge club from the 31st day of the regular season until August 31.

Unconditional release waivers can be secured at any point during the year.

X-RAY REPORT

» Jeff is a former competitive swimmer who uses swimming as part of his off-season training regiment.

» Jeff is from Port Angeles in Washington State's North Olympic Peninsula, the gateway to British Columbia. His house is a 13-mile ferry ride to Canada. Not known as a baseball area, Port Angeles is a longtime logging community. Jeff is hoping to become the first area player to reach the majors.

2006 SEASON

» Split the season between Double-A Montgomery and Triple-A Durham going 2-4 with a 2.79 ERA in his first action above Class-A.

» Made a career-high 40 appearances throwing 58.0 combined innings, his most work since 2003...had not had more than 24 outings in a single season entering the year.

» Opened the season with the Biscuits going 1-0, striking out 29 batters in 19.1 IP...collected two saves with Montgomery: April 23 at Mississippi (Braves) and May 9 at Huntsville (Brewers).

» Did not allow a run over his last 6 outings and permitted only 3 baserunners (2-H, 1-BB) earning a promotion to Durham on May 21.

» Was 1-4 with the Bulls appearing in 34 gms and working to a 3.03 ERA with 38 strikeouts in 38.2 IP.

» Combined at both stops to hold lefthanders to a .174 batting average (12-for-69)...overall batters hit just .211 off him.

» Took a leave from Durham in mid-August to join the United States Baseball Olympic Qualifying Team in Havana, Cuba...did not allow a run in 4 outings (2.2 IP) as Team USA defeated host Cuba for the tournament title.

» Participated in the Arizona Fall League with the champion Phoenix Desert Dogs...was 1-0 with a save and a 3.48 ERA in 13 appearances out of the 'pen, 12 of which were scoreless...all 4 runs he allowed came in his final outing of the regular season...the opposition batted just .158 off him managing only 2 hits in his first 12 outings...threw 1.0 scoreless inning in the title game earning the hold.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Worked exclusively out of the bullpen with class-A Visalia in 2005...opened the year on the disabled list recovering from surgery in July, 2004 to remove bone spurs in the left elbow (surgery performed by Rays orthopedic surgeon Dr. Koco Eaton)...joined the Oaks May 25...was touched for 23 runs over his first 9 outings (9.00 ERA), then settled in to allow only 8 runs over the remainder of the season in 15 games (2.42 ERA)...included was a stretch of 17.2 innings in which he did not allow and earned run from July 10-Aug 10.

◆ Was limited to only 15 games in 2004 with Class-A Bakersfield working mainly out of the bullpen...had his season cut short on June 9 with inflammation in his left shoulder...earned his first career save on June 4 with 3.0 scoreless innings to close out a Blaze victory...his lone start came May 17 against Modesto (A's)...in 7 road games, he allowed only 1 earned run in 16.0 innings (0.56 ERA).

◆ Returned to class-A Charleston for 2003 appearing in 24 games making 19 starts...began his season with 7.0 shutout innings over two starts allowing only 3 hits and 2 walks while striking out 8 in his first action since August of 2001...was one of six pitchers in the South Atlantic League to hit 12 or more batters.

◆ Missed the 2002 season recovering from offseason surgery to "clean up" the left shoulder (performed by Dr. Eaton).

◆ Threw a career-high 104.0 innings in a career-most 22 starts with Charleston in 2001...went three straight starts without allowing an earned run, June 26-July 7 (18.0-IP, 8-H, 1-R, 7-BB, 14-SO).

» Began his pro career with Princeton in 2000 making 15 starts for the Rays' rookie-level affiliate...struck out 60 batters in 54.2 innings of work ranking 4th in the Appalachian League in K's/9 IP...his 2.47 ERA was 2nd best in the league while his .230 opponent's batting average was 4th lowest on the circuit.

PERSONAL/MISC

» Married to Kelli with two children: Emily (5) and Carson (1).

» Jeff's cousin, Matt Lane, is a catcher in the Blue Jays organization.

» Graduated from Port Angeles High School in Washington...was listed among USA Today's All-American team honorable mentions in 1999.

Rays Youth Field Renovation Program

On October 20, 2005, two weeks after Stuart Sternberg was named principal owner of the Rays, the team unveiled plans to begin a field renovation program to re-build youth league fields throughout the Tampa Bay area from as far south as Charlotte County and as far north as Citrus County. The first field chosen was St. Petersburg's historic Oliver Field located in the shadows of Tropicana Field. The improvements included the installation of new metal panel roof system, an 18-foot high chain link backstop, netting to rrotect spectators, new sod installation and irrigation repairs. The project was completed in May 2006.

On March 1 of this year the Rays selected the West Tampa Little League Fields as its next site. The Rays Baseball Foundation is teaming up team with outfielder Carl Crawford, the City of Tampa, J.O. DeLotto and Sons, Metro PCS and Bryant Heating and Cooling on the project. The renovation work includes a total makeover of the three fields in the West Tampa Little League complex by the Rays grounds crew including new bases, pitching mounds and pitching rubbers, and the installation of a new bleacher roof on one set of bleachers and a new concession stand.

Opening Day Age: 28
Tenure: 27 days
Born: 11/7/78 in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic
Resides: Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic
Contract Status: Signed through 2007
Acquired: Signed as a minor league free agent on July 8, 1998
Signing Scout: Rudy Santin (Devil Rays)

X-RAY REPORT

» Juan spent his first six professional seasons as a third baseman in the Rays system. Not producing much power (28 HR in more than 2000 AB), he took his strong throwing arm to the mound, where in 2006, just his second full season as a pitcher, he reached the majors and was named MiLB.com Reliever of the Year.

2006 SEASON

» 28-year-old converted infielder saw his first major league action after being selected from AAA Durham on Sept 5…made his ML debut that night against Minnesota allowing 3 runs (2 earned) in an inning of work (2-H, 1-BB, 1-SO).

» Became the Rays' club-record 25th different pitcher to appear in game and one of nine different Rays to make their major league debut in 2006.

» Surrendered just one run over his next 5 outings (7.0 IP) before running into trouble against the Yankees Sept 25 when he was touched for 3 runs in an inning.

» Made 8 appearances overall (0-0, 5.40 ERA, 10.0-IP, 13-H, 7-R, 6-ER, 3-BB, 8-SO)…5 of them were scoreless.

» Named the organization's Pitcher of the Year at AAA Durham and received the team's Goodmon Award as the Bulls' most outstanding pitcher in 2006… also named to Baseball America's All-Minor League All-Star Team and was awarded MiLB.com's Minor League Reliever of the Year.

» Led all Rays farmhands appearing in 50 games combined at AA Montgomery and Durham in this, just his 2nd full season as a pitcher…Was 4-1 with 17 saves and a 0.71 ERA (63.1-IP, 28-H, 9-R, 5-ER, 25-BB, 85-SO) holding opponents to a .128 batting average (28-for-219), second lowest among all minor league relievers.

» Began the season with a minor league-best 47.1 innings without allowing an earned run…did not allow his first ER until his 34th appearance of the year (2-run HR July 14 vs. Columbus).

» Earned the Rays June Pitcher of the Month honors going 2-0 with two saves in 11 games combined between AA Montgomery and AAA Durham throwing 17.0 innings of scoreless relief in the month…opponents batted just .177 (11-for-62) as he struck out 24 while walking just four.

» Recorded the final two outs July 16 against Columbus (Yankees) combining with Jason Hammel for the first ever no-hitter in Bulls' Triple-A history and just the 2nd ever at Durham Bulls Athletic Park.

» Pitched for the World Team at the 2006 All-Star Futures Game retiring his only batter faced.

» Pitched in two games during spring training as a non-roster invite, throwing 2.0 perfect innings and striking out 2.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Split the 2005 season between Visalia (A) and Montgomery in his first full season as a pitcher.

» Combined to go 3-1 with a 3.58 ERA while striking out 65 in 60.1 IP.

» Held Cal League opponents to a .216 batting average (30-for-139)...did not allow an earned run in his first six appearances (11.0 IP) with the Oaks.

» Earned his first professional save May 21 at Rancho Cucamonga (LAA) with a scoreless ninth...Fanned six of the 10 batters he faced June 8 at Modesto (COL).

» Earned a promotion to Montgomery June 29 where his first six apps. were scoreless (9.2 IP).

» Appeared in 15 games for Aguilas of the Dominican Republic Winter League...was 0-2 with a 4.50 ERA, striking out 14 in 16.0 IP.

◆ Hit safely in each of his first 13 games (.345, 19-for-55) in 2004 with Montgomery.

» Played 78 games with the Biscuits before transferring to Princeton (R) to work as a pitcher.

» Appeared in eight games with the P-Rays going 1-0 with a 4.82 ERA...did not allow a run in his first three appearances.

» Earned the win in his pitching debut Aug. 10 at Kingsport (Mets) with a scoreless inning of relief.

◆ Began the 2003 season with Single-A Bakersfield where he batted .321 (44-for-127) in his first 37 games with the Blaze.

» Provided the game-winning, 3-run, 'walk-off' home run on May 10 against Stockton (TEX).

» Promoted to Double-A Orlando on May 12 where he batted .272 (76-for-279) with 30 runs and 41 RBI over his final 75 games.

◆ Was limited to just 66 games with Bakersfield in 2002 when his season was cut short after tearing his left knee meniscus on July 3.

◆ Set career highs in nearly every offensive power category in 2001 with Charleston (A) leading the RiverDogs in hits (114), games (135) and at-bats (500)...Tabbed by Baseball America as having the best infield arm in the Rays system (for the 2nd straight year) and the South Atlantic League.

◆ Split the 2000 campaign between Charleston and Hudson Valley (A) batting a combined .254...Rated by Baseball America as having the best infield arm in the Rays system.

◆ Named an Appy League Top Ten Prospect by Baseball America in 1999...hit .259 with nine doubles, two home runs and 15 RBI in 53 games at Princeton (R) in his first professional season.

2006 SEASON

» Led Triple-A Durham with 28 starts, 154.2 innings pitched (3rd most in the organization) and 9 wins as the lone starter on the staff for the entire season...ranked second on the club with 108 strikeouts, his 3rd straight year surpassing 100 K's.

» Won three times in his first four starts allowing only three earned runs over the stretch...took the loss April 30 allowing 6 runs in 4.0 innings at Syracuse (Blue Jays)...was his first career loss in the month of April (had been 10-0 entering the game).

» Allowed a staff-most and career-high 20 home runs, 19 by right-handers...this despite a stretch of 8 straight starts in which he did not allow a long ball, May 28-July 5 (40.1 IP).

» Credited with a complete game Aug 8 at Charlotte (White Sox) in game one of a doubleheader... surrendered a 2-run walk-off home run with 1 out in the bottom of the 7th inning taking the loss...was the 2nd CG of his career, both coming in 7-inning contests and both losses.

» Tied his career high throwing 7.2 innings July 28 at Columbus (Yankees) and again in his final start of the year Sept 4 at Norfolk (Mets).

» Attended his first major league spring training...appeared in 3 games throwing 5.0 scoreless innings with a walk and 4 strikeouts while opponents batted .176 (3-for-17).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

» Ranks among the Rays' all-time minor league leaders in wins (49, 4th), strikeouts (568, 4th) and innings pitched (725.1, 5th).

◆ Split 2005 season between Montgomery (AA) and Durham (AAA), making a career-high 29 starts.

» Struck out 116 batters combined, the 3rd most in organization...collected a season-high 8 K's July 5 vs. Toledo (DET).

» Was 4-9 with a 5.46 ERA (IP-95.2, ER-58) in 19 starts with the Bulls, walking 43 while striking out 70.

» Had his toughest outing June 25 at Buffalo (CLE) when he lasted a season-low 2.1 IP...failed to record a strikeout in the start; just the second time in his career he did not fan a batter (also July 10, 2003 at Lake Elsinore).

» His 9 losses led Durham.

» Was the opening day starter for Montgomery...won six of his seven decisions with the Biscuits and was tied for the Southern League lead in wins at the time of his promotion.

» While at Montgomery, he held lefthanders to a .213 batting average but was touched for a .318 mark by lefties at Durham.

» Attended his first major league spring training...appeared in one "A" game tossing 2.0 scoreless innings against Boston.

◆ Made 28 starts in 2004 combined between Bakersfield (A) and Montgomery, limiting opponents to 2 ER or less in 19 of those outings.

» Compiled a 5-0 record with the Blaze and a 9-10 mark with the Biscuits becoming just the second Rays minor leaguer ever to record 14 wins in a single season (Scott Autrey was the first in 2003).

» Fanned 143 batters combined, second most among Rays' minor leaguers...Led Mont. with 102 K's.

» Was credited with his first career complete game on Aug. 3 at Carolina (Marlins) in a 7-inning, 1-0 loss to the Mudcats...his line: 6.0-IP, 5-H, 1-R/ER, 1-BB, 4-SO.

» Won his first 7 decisions...Didn't suffer his first loss until May 27, a 0-7 blanking by Greenville (Braves), a game in which he collected a career-high 12 K's in just 6.0 IP (6-H, 2-R, 1-ER, 2-BB).

» Allowed a team-high 19 HRs in 21 starts with Montgomery...was touched for a career-high 4 home runs June 11, at West Tenn. (Cubs)...Had allowed just 1 homer in his previous 68.1 IP (12 G).

» Began the season with Bakersfield where he allowed just 3 earned runs in 41.1 innings of work with 41 strikeouts and only 8 walks...Led the Cal League with a 0.65 ERA when he was promoted...shut out opponents in 37 of his 41 IP with the Blaze.

◆ Started a team-high 26 games with Bakersfield in 2003.

» Worked to a 3.43 ERA (81.1-IP, 31-ER) through the season's first 3 months (15 G) then struggled to a 7.44 (52.0-IP, 40-ER) mark the remainder of the year (10 G).

» Won 3 straight decisions June 11 thru June 28 – 4 G, 23.2 IP, 7 R, 6 ER, 6 BB, 13 SO (2.28 ERA).

» Suffered 6 straight losses over his next 7 starts, July 3 - Aug. 6 allowing 35 runs (31 earned) in the 32.1 inning stretch.

» Tabbed by Baseball America as having the organization's best changeup.

◆ Spent 2002 with Charleston (A) where he held opponents to a .213 avg., 5th lowest in the SAL.

» Recorded his first and only career save Apr. 22 at Lakewood (Phillies) striking out 5 of the 8 batters he faced.

» Issued a league-high 68 walks in 26 games, 20 starts.

» Rated as having the Best Slider in the Rays' organization by Baseball America.

◆ Began his career in 2001 with Princeton (R)...At 17 years, 6 months and 6 days, he was the 3rd-youngest player in the Appy League on Opening Day.

» Held opponents to a .213 average as a starter...Was especially stingy to righthanders keeping them at a .210 mark.

» Fanned 4 batters in one inning August 28, one of only nine pitchers in minor league baseball to accomplish the feat that season.

PERSONAL/MISC

» Graduated from Canyon High School (CA)...Was offered a full scholarship to play baseball at Loyola Marymount University.

» Played in the 15th annual Goodwill Series in 2000 with Delmon Young and Scott Kazmir.

X-RAY REPORT

» Jae was a member of the Korean Junior National Team in high school...also pitched in the Korean-American Championships and the Asian-Amateur Baseball Championships in 1997, and led the Korean team to victory in the Four Nations Invitational Games in Osaka, Japan, in 1998.

» In December of 1998, helped Korea to a perfect 6-0 record to capture the Gold Medal in the Asian Games Championship in Bangkok, Thailand...Seo and Chan Ho Park each won two games for the Korean squad...by winning the gold medal, he was required to serve just four weeks in the military, leading to an opportunity to sign a professional baseball contract.

» Was a high school teammate of Colorado's Byung-Hyun Kim and Hee-Seop Choi.

» Jae's brother, Jae-Hwan Seo, was an infielder/outfielder in the Mets organization from 1998-1999.

2006 SEASON

» Acquired by the Rays from the Dodgers on June 27 along with C Dioner Navarro and a player to be named later (OF Justin Ruggiano) for C Toby Hall, LHP Mark Hendrickson and cash... became the first Korean-born Devil Ray...was the 12th in major league history.

» Made 16 starts for the Rays and was 1-8...Had the lowest run support among all AL starters with at least 15 starts...The Rays scored 2.86 runs per 9 innings behind him...Rays were shut out 3 times when he was on the mound and scored only one run in 3 of his other starts.

» Eight times he pitched 6 or more innings and allowed 2 earned runs or less and didn't win any of those games....Had a stretch of 8 starts, Aug 3-Sep 20 in which he pitched to a 2.68 ERA (IP-47, ER-14) and was 0-1 with 7 no decisions.

» Made his Rays debut June 28 at Florida throwing 2.0 scoreless innings of relief.

» Moved into the Rays rotation on July 2 and lost his first 5 starts.

» Ironically, his only win as a Ray was a 19-6 routing at Yankee Stadium over Randy Johnson on July 29...Rays tied their franchise record for most runs in a game...Seo's line: IP-5.2, H-9, R-5, ER-5, BB-2, SO-1, HR-2...The Rays scored only 32 runs in his 15 other starts combined (2.13 runs/start).

» The win in New York snapped a career-high 7-game losing streak for Seo dating back to May 22...He and Tim Corcoran were the only Rays starters to win a road game after July 1.

» Was his first ever career win in the month of July, entered 0-11, including 0-5 in 2006.

» Was winless in his last 10 starts (0-3).

» Owns just 3 wins in 18 career starts against American League opponents.

» Had the AL's 5th best ERA in August (min 20 IP) with a 1.96 mark (IP-23, ER-5), but did not record a decision in 4 starts while the Rays scored 10 runs in the 4 games.

» Exited the Aug 20 game against Cleveland after 2.1 IP with a left groin strain...had given up 7 hits and 2 runs on back-to-back home runs by Travis Hafner and Ryan Garko...landed on the DL the next day through Sept 4.

» Was his second start cut short by groin tightness...also, exited after 6.2 IP Aug. 3 against Detroit with tightness in his left groin.

» Allowed a .333 opponents batting average, 2nd highest among American Leaguers with 15 or more starts...Only former Ray Jason Johnson (Cle-Bos) was higher at .339.

» Began the season as the Dodgers 5th starter, but after 10 starts was 2-3 with a 5.26 ERA and was moved to the bullpen.

» On May 23, faced fellow Korean - and former high school teammate - Byung-Hyun Kim in the first-ever matchup up of Korean-born pitchers in baseball history...Seo picked up the 6-1 victory over the Rockies.

» Appeared in a career-high 36 games with the Rays and Dodgers...was 3-11 in 26 starts with a 5.16 ERA (IP-137.2, ER-86)...Opponents batted .319 off him as a starter with both teams, 4th highest among major league starters...With both teams he had 12 starts in which he pitched 6 or more innings and allowed 2 ER or less and was victorious in only two of them.

» Signed with the Rays on Oct. 11 to a one-year contract, avoiding arbitration.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Made two tours with the Mets in 2005...in 14 appearances, all starts, he was 8-2 with a 2.59 ERA (26 ER/90.1 IP) to go along with59 strikeouts against just 16 walks.

» Ten of his 14 starts were quality starts and the Mets were 11-3 in his starts.

» Won a career-best six consecutive decisions in seven starts from May 4-Sept. 4...during that span, posted a 1.60 ERA (8 ER/49.I IP) and averaged just over 7.0 innings per start.

» Was 4-0 with a 1.89 ERA (7 ER/ 37.1 IP) in five daytime starts (4-2, 3.00 at night).

» Allowed one run or less in half his starts and three runs or less in 11 of the 14.

» Pitched a career-high 20.1 scoreless innings over three starts from May 4-Aug. 13.

» Matched a career-best with eight strikeouts May 4 against the Phillies when he allowed only one hit over 7.0 IP.

X-RAY REPORT

» James comes from a very talented family. His cousin Aaron Rowand is the centerfielder for the Phillies. James' other cousin David Fuentes played bass guitar for ska/punk-bands Long Beach Dub City All Stars and Hepcat.

» James draws the number 25 on the back of the mound before he steps on the rubber each game in honor of his childhood friend Nolan LeMar who was killed In a car accident In 2001.

2006 SEASON

» Was recalled from AAA Durham on May 27 when LHP Casey Fossum was placed on the disabled list for his first action at the major league level.

» Named Rays top rookie by the Tampa Bay BBWAA...Overall was 4th among AL rookies in strikeouts (104), 3rd in innings pitched (124.2) and 10th in ERA (4.84).

» His 104 strikeouts are 3rd most ever by a Rays rookie behind Scott Kazmir's club-record 174 in 2005 and Rolando Arrojo's 152 Ks in 1998.

» Led Rays starters and was 4th among major league rookie starters with 2.74 walks per 9 innings...Also ranked as the 2nd best ever by a Rays rookie starter (min 100 IP) behind Joe Kennedy's mark of 2.60 in 2001.

» With only 38 walks, he recorded the 2nd best strikeouts to walks ratio (2.74) ever by a Rays starter (min 100 IP)...Only Scott Kazmir's ratio of 3.13 In 2006 (SO-163, BB-52) has been better in club history...Shield's ratio was 4th among major league rookies...Walked one batter or less in 11 of his 21 starts.

» Made his ML debut May 31 at Baltimore drawing a no-decision (5.0-IP, 9-H, 5-R/ER, 3-BB, 5-SO)... From that point forward he pitched 34 more innings than any other Devil Ray and more innings than any other AL rookie.

» Won his next four starts (over the Angels, Royals, Phillies and D-Backs) becoming the first Ray to begin his major league career 4-0 (Tim Corcoran also went 4-0 later in the season).

» Earned his first major league win on June 5 at home over the Angels when he combined with Shawn Camp and Tyler Walker on an 11-hit shutout in a 4-0 win over Jeff Weaver.

» Went on to win his next 3 starts as well including a 10-4 win over fellow rookie Cole Hamels at Philadelphia on June 16 (IP-6, H-6, R-3, ER-3, BB-1, SO-6) and a 3-2 win over Arizona's National League wins leader Brandon Webb on June 21 (IP-7, H-4, R-2, ER-2, BB-3, SO-5).

» Was 4-1 in June tying Minnesota's Francisco Liriano and Detroit's Zach Miner as the best record among AL rookies for the month...Along the way, he compiled a 16.0-inning scoreless streak, 2nd longest by a Rays rookie (Rolando Arrojo, 18.0 in 1998)...His 4 wins tied the club mark for wins in a month and he became just the 2nd rookie to do it (also Arrojo in May 1998).

» After winning his first 4 decisions, he then lost 6 straight over 9 starts...Won only twice in his last 16 starts while the Rays scored just 51 runs in those games (3.1 per game).

» Won back-to-back starts Aug 16 and 21 over Toronto, 4-3, and Texas, 8-3...Then went 0-2 in his last 5 starts.

» Threw his only complete game (and one of only six thrown by AL rookies in 2006) on Aug 9 in a 2-0 loss at Seattle (IP-8, H-5, R-2, ER-2, BB-1, SO-6)...Allowed a 2-run home run to Adrian Beltre.

» Opponents batted only .111 (1-9) with the bases loaded, but the one hit was a grand slam by Oakland's Nick Swisher in an 8-6 loss on Sep 8 at home.

» Was tied for fifth in the American League with four pickoffs...Kazmir led the staff with five.

» A first baseman/pitcher at Hart (CA) High School where he hit a school record 11 home runs as a junior, Shields tied the Rays club record for most hits in a season by a pitcher when he went 3-for-8...Tied the mark also held by Joe Kennedy who had 3 hits in 2002...Singled in his first major league plate appearance against the Phillies' Hamels on June 16.

» Was 2nd in the International League in strikeouts with 64 for AAA Durham at the time he was promoted...Was 3-2 in 10 starts and his 2.64 ERA led all Durham starters...He allowed one ER or less in 6 of 10 starts and walked more than one just once.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Named the 2005 Pitcher of the Year at Double-A Montgomery.

» Combined at Montgomery and Durham to go 8-5 with a 2.97 ERA, the third best mark among Rays minor leaguers...His 110 strikeouts were the fourth most in the organization.

» Held opponents to three ER or less in 12 of his 16 starts with the Biscuits and was undefeated in all eight games in which he pitched 7.0 or more innings (5-0).

» Tied his career high with 10 strikeouts Aug 22 vs. Jacksonville (LAD).

» Led all Rays pitchers in the month of August going 4-0 with a 1.62 ERA...named SL pitcher of the week Aug 22-28.

» Held left-handers to a .226 average (40-177).

» Won six of his last seven decisions with the Biscuits earning a promotion to Triple-A Durham for his final start of the year where he picked up the win against Charlotte (CWS).

» Named an Arizona Fall League All-Star after working to a 1.74 ERA (2nd in the league) and striking out 29 batters while walking just two in 31.0 IP...Led the Phoenix Desert Dogs to a league championship where he got the win in the finale over Surprise.

» Began the season on the disabled list with soreness in his right shoulder...activated May 28.

◆ Threw the first pitch in Montgomery Biscuits history as the team's opening day starter in 2004.

» Lost three of his first four starts and landed on the DL with right shoulder tendonitis.

» Transferred to Bakersfield upon his return...led all Blaze pitchers with 8 wins and tossed the team's lone shutout (Aug 24 vs. Visalia, 2-H, 4-SO, 0-BB), one of just 5 in the entire Cal League.

» Led the team in wins (10), innings pitched (143.2) and strikeouts (119-2nd most in the organization).

◆ Pitched the 2003 season at Bakersfield (A).

» Allowed 19 home runs, tied for third most in the California League.

◆ Missed the entire 2002 season recovering from right shoulder surgery.

◆ Began his professional career in 2001 with Hudson Valley (SS-A).

» Promoted to Single-A Charleston on July 15 after striking out 25 and walking just 5 in 27.1 IP over 5 starts...Was the first player promoted from the Renegades.

» Worked to a combined ERA of 2.55, 2nd best in the organization.

» Tossed a 9.0-inning, complete game shutout in his Charleston debut (3-H, 9-SO, 1-BB)...also recorded a 3-hit complete game in his final turn of the year Sept 2 at Columbus (7.0 innings).

PERSONAL/MISC

» Has a daughter Ashtyn (3).

» Attended Hart High School in California playing with White Sox outfielder Jerry Owens...also attended class with Ravens quarterback Kyle Boller.

» Named the Los Angeles Times' Valley Player of the Year in 1999, his junior season after leading Hart High (CA) to the Division II championship...Was 11-0 with a 2.35 ERA striking out 123 batters in 71.1 innings pitched...also batted .478 with a then-school record 11 home runs and 45 RBI...named the Southern Section's Division II Player of the Year.

» Was offered a full scholarship to play baseball at Louisiana State University.

» Ranked as the number 16 high school prospect by Baseball America in 2000.

2006 SEASON

» Twenty-six year-old was recalled from AAA Durham on September 2.

» Made his major league debut the following night getting the start against SEA and Felix Hernandez (ND – 4.0-IP, 7-H, 2-R/ER, 3-BB, 1-SO, 1-HR-Sexson)...game see-sawed as Rays won 7-6.

» Was the 24th different pitcher to appear in a game for the Rays and the 12th different starter...was one of 9 Rays to make his ML debut this season.

» Was 1-0 with a 4.88 ERA in 5 games, 4 starts...limited the opposition to 3 runs or less in each start.

» Best start came in his final outing Sept 29 in Cleveland...held the Indians to just one run on 5 hits in 7.0 IP with a walk and 6 strikeouts...left with game tied 1-1...Rays lost on a walk-off, bases loaded walk in the bottom of the 9th.

» Earned his first major league win Sept 24 against New York...limited the Yankees to 3 runs on 7 hits in 5.1 IP (HR-Cano) ...was backed by an 11-run Rays attack, tying their most ever runs scored against NY at home...win gave the Rays 41 home victories, their most ever in one season at Tropicana Field.

» Appeared in 29 games for the Bulls making 23 starts in his first injury-free season since 2002.

» Was 7-7 with a 4.11 ERA (133.0-IP, 61-ER) striking out 103 while walking 49 with Durham.

» Limited opponents to 3 ER or less in 21 of his 27 combined starts (majors and minors).

» Appeared in 3 games for the Rays in spring training, all in relief (5.0-IP, 2-H, 1-R/ER, 1-BB, 3-SO).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

» Owns 576 career strikeouts, 3rd all-time among Rays minor leaguers...His 3.55 ERA is 7th best all time among Tampa Bay farmhands.

◆ Returned to the mound in 2005 after recovering from "Tommy John" surgery...made 20 starts at Visalia (A) and Montgomery (AA), his most outings since 2002.

» Was 1-2 with a 4.24 ERA in 4 starts with the Oaks striking out 21 in 17.0 IP in the California League.

» Promoted to Montgomery on May 4...Tossed 6.0 shutout innings in his Biscuits debut that night at Jacksonville (Dodgers) - no-dec., H-2, BB-3, SO-5.

» Was sidelined the month of July with a strained left hamstring...Went 2-2 with a 3.08 ERA after his return from the DL holding opponents to 2 ER or less in five of his final six starts of the year.

» Fanned a season-high 9 in a no-decision Aug 17 vs. Tennessee (Diamondbacks).

» Was credited with a complete game in his final turn of the season Sept 5 at Tennessee... allowed the game's only run (solo HR) on 3 hits in 8.0 innings striking out 3 and walking two...carried a no-hitter through 5.0...was his 3rd career CG and first since July 14, 2002.

» Got stronger as the game went on holding the opposition to a .181 average from the 4th inning on.

» Pitched in seven games, two starts, with the Arizona Fall League champion Phoenix Desert Dogs...was 3-0 with a 2.81 ERA striking out 17 in 25.2 IP.

◆ Missed the entire 2004 season recovering from "Tommy John" surgery on his right elbow.

◆ Made 10 starts with Double-A Orlando in 2003 before heading to the disabled list May 26 with a right shoulder strain.

» Was shelved the remainder of the season and underwent "Tommy John" surgery on Aug 27.

» Was 0-3 through the season's first month despite carrying a 2.13 ERA (25.1-IP, 6-ER).

» Pitched 6.0 scoreless innings on May 2 (3-H, 0-BB, 3-SO) in Orlando's 6-1 win over Birmingham (White Sox) for his first victory of the year.

◆ Led Bakersfield in wins (10) and strikeouts (152) in 2002...Bakersfield led all of minor league baseball with 1,281 K's.

» For the second straight year, finished in the top 10 in ERA in the California League...Was 4th with a 3.26 mark...was also 4th in the league with 165.2 innings pitched.

» Made 28 starts, 3rd in the league...Allowed 3 ER or less in 26 of the starts including 17 quality starts.

» Fashioned a 5-game win streak over 7 starts, June 8-July 14, while posting a 2.06 ERA (IP-43.2, H-36, ER-10).

X-RAY REPORT

» Jon is one of 86 Arizona State University alums to play major league baseball including his former ASU teammates Chris Duffy (PIT) and Willie Bloomquist (SEA).

2006 SEASON

» Twenty-six year-old joined the Rays from AAA Durham on June 21 when RH Ruddy Lugo landed on the DL with a mid-back strain.

» Was the only southpaw to appear in the Rays 'pen going 2-2 with a 4.54 ERA (33.2-IP, 17-ER).

» Appeared in 40 of the Rays remaining 90 games after his recall, including 17 the Rays final 31 contests…was the 9th most games among AL rookies and most among AL rookie lefthanders…20 of his outings were less than an inning.

» Led the staff stranding 79 % if his inherited runners (22-of-28).

» Made his season debut June 24 against Atlanta on Turn Back the Clock Night at Tropicana Field…threw 1.2 in relief (3-H, 1-R, 1-SO).

» Earned his 1st major league win July 4 vs. Boston with 0.2 scoreless (1-H, 1-SO)…came in his 12th ML outing.

» Allowed just one run over his first 9 appearances after joining TB (8.2-IP, 6-H, 1-R/ER, 2-BB, 7-SO, 0-HR – 1.04 ERA).

» Worked to a 5.76 ERA over 24 appearances after that (25.0-IP, 32-H, 16-R/ER, 16-BB, 11-SO, 5-HR)

» Tossed a season-high 2.0 innings of relief Sept 25 against the Yankees…was only his 4th career outing of 2.0+ innings…allowed an Andy Cannizaro solo HR (1st of his career) in his second inning of work…snapped Switzer's scoreless stretch at 9.2 innings over a 12-outing stretch in which opponents were just 6-for-36 off him (.167).

» Suffered two blown saves…Aug 2 at Detroit – took the loss after facing 4 batters, 3 of which reached and would come around to score in a 3-8 Rays loss to the Tigers.

» Was also charged with the blown save Aug 17 vs. TOR allowing 2 HR (Overbay, Johnson) in 0.2 innings of work…the solo shot by Overbay was the first extra-base hit by a left-handed hitter off Switzer…was his 28th career appearance (30.1 IP).

» Made 26 appearances, all in relief, for Durham before joining the Rays going 3-0 with 3 saves and a 0.87 ERA (31.0-IP, 3-ER)…opponents hit just .191 off him (22-for-115), lefties managed just a .132 avg. (5-for-38).

» Did not allow an earned run in his last 23.2 innings of work, surrendering just one unearned run over the 20 game stretch from April 26-June 18.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Returned to action in 2005 after missing all of 2004 recovering from left shoulder surgery.

» Opened the season at AA Montgomery but got the call from the Rays on May 11...pitched in a pair of games in relief, his first major league action since 2003

» Made his season debut May 18 at Detroit working 3 scoreless innings (3-H, 2-BB, 4-SO).

» Had a much tougher outing his second turn May 25 vs. Oakland as he pitched 1.0+, allowing 4 runs (3 earned) on 5 walks and a pair of hits...was optioned to Durham on May 29

» Appeared in 17 games, making 8 starts, for the Bulls over the remainder of the year going 0-5 with a 7.17 ERA...allowed just one run over his final 6 outings (7.1 IP).

» Missed time with soreness in his left elbow landing the lefty on the Disabled List July 10 through August 12.

» Was in Montgomery's rotation before the initial recall, making 6 starts (3-1, 3.45).

» Combined at all three stops, he worked 79.2 innings over 28 appearances (14 starts), pitching to a 5.65 ERA.

◆ Missed the entire 2004 season with an injured left shoulder...underwent season-ending surgery on June 25 in Houston.

◆ Was up with the Rays from Aug. 1-19, 2003, and again Sept. 12 through season's end following AAA Durham's International League title.

» Made his ML debut Aug. 2 at KC entering in the 4th down 3-2 with the bases loaded, one out...allowed just a SF that inning and pitched 2.2 (4-H, 3-ER, 1-BB, 2-HB)...surrendered a home run to Carlos Beltran.

» Allowed runs in 4 of his 5 outings...last appearance, Sept. 23 at Toronto, he retired all 4 batters faced.

» Longest outing was Sept. 13 (G2) at Yankee Stadium when he worked a career-high 3.1 (4-H, 1-R/ER, 2-BB, 3-SO).

» Next outing was also against New York, Sept. 20 at the Trop, and allowed 3 runs on 4 hits, including a 2-run HR to Jorge Posada...was ejected after hitting Derek Jeter with a pitch in the 8th.

» He went a combined 9-8 with a 3.37 ERA in 23 starts for AA Orlando and Durham (131-IP, 123-H, 49-ER, 32-BB, 103-SO)...ranked 5th in the organization in ERA and strikeouts.

» Opened the season with Orlando and went 8-8, 3.43 ERA in 22 starts earning team Pitcher-of-the-Year honors.

» Was 2-0 with a 2.40 ERA in 5 July starts (30-IP, 28-H, 8-ER, 4-BB, 21-SO).

» Pitched a scoreless inning of relief for the East in their 7-5 victory in the 2003 Southern League All-Star Game.

» Started and won Game One of the International League championship series Sept. 9, 5-3 over Pawtucket (Red Sox), striking out 11 in 5.2.

◆ Started the 2002 season slowly for Class A Bakersfield, then got hot in June and July before being sidelined in August with a tired arm.

» Finished 3rd among California League starting pitchers with an average of 11.24 strikeouts per 9 innings...Had 3 games of 10+ including a career-high 11 on June 10 vs. Modesto (Athletics).

» Held left-handed hitters to a .225 average (16-71) and only one extra base hit (a double).

◆ Signed with Tampa Bay on Aug. 13, 2001, and began his professional career at Hudson Valley (A).

» Made 5 appearances for the Renegades, all in relief, and notched a pair of wins, while pitching to a 0.63 ERA...surrendered one run in 14.1 innings while striking out 20.

» Made his debut Aug. 19 at Staten Island (Yankees) and pitched 1.2 of scoreless relief (1-H, 3-SO) in a 4-1 HV loss.

» His first professional win came Aug. 26 at Brooklyn (Mets), 3-2 (2.2-IP, 3-H, 2-R/ER, 2-SO).

AMATEUR

» Was 23-13 in three seasons at Arizona State University, striking out 327 in 303.1 IP.

» Was a preseason 2001 All America...earned All-Pac-10 honorable mention and District VIII Academic All-American.

» Went 11-3 his sophomore season, becoming the first Sun Devil to win 11 games since 1993...Fell to 5-5 with a 3.98 ERA as a junior but fanned 124 batters in 96 innings for ASU.

» Played with Team USA in the summer of 2000, going 1-0 with a 2.41 ERA in 10 appearances.

» Entering college was a preseason second-team All America by Collegiate Baseball.

» A 1998 graduate of Clear Lake High School in Houston, Tex. where in 1998 he was first-team all-district, USA Today '98 All-USA honorable mention and an all-state selection...also played for the South in the Texas North/South All-Star Game.

The Strike Zone

The strike zone is that area over home plate, the upper limit of which is a horizontal line at the midpoint between the top of the shoulders and the top of the uniform pants, and the lower level is a line at the hollow beneath the kneecap. The strike zone shall be determined from the batter's stance as the batter is prepared to swing at a pitched ball.

2006 SEASON

» Right-hander was acquired by the Rays along with shortstop Ben Zobrist from the Houston Astros in exchange for infielder Aubrey Huff and cash on July 12 during the All-Star Break.

» Opened the year with Corpus Christi of the Double-A Texas League…appeared in 18 games, making 17 starts, going 6-4 with a team-best 3.39 ERA, eighth lowest in the league.

» Fanned 96 batters in 90.1 innings of work, 3rd most K's in the league at the time he was dealt…had walked only 29.

» Struck out a regular season career-high 12 in 7.0 IP on June 22 against Arkansas (Angels) in an 8-2 win…set the Corpus Christi franchise record breaking the mark shared by Jason Hirsch and Roger Clemens.

» He joined the AA Montgomery Biscuits after the deal...went 4-3 with a 1.90 ERA in 10 starts allowing three runs or less in each outing.

» Won his Southern League debut tossing 6.0 shutout innings (5-H, 1-BB, 5-SO) vs. Carolina (Marlins).

» Threw 6.0 or more innings in 18 of his career-high 28 starts combined at both stops and limited the opposition to 3 earned runs or less in all but 2 games.

» Recorded his lone career save June 11 vs. San Antonio throwing 3.0 scoreless to close out the Hooks' 5-1 win…entered the game in relief of Clemens who was tuning up for a return to the majors.

» Earned Rays Minor League Pitcher of the Month honors in August after going 2-1 with a 1.96 ERA in 6 starts and leading all of Double-A baseball with 47 strikeouts…also held opponents to a .207 batting average for the month.

» During Montgomery's championship run in the postseason, he tossed two complete game, five-hit shutouts (18.0-IP, 0-ER, 2-BB, 24-SO)…Sept. 9, he was perfect through 6 innings blanking Jacksonville (Dodgers) and striking out a team-record 14 to seal the 3-game sweep for the Biscuits…Sept 14 he repeated the feat against Huntsville (Brewers) fanning 10 to give Montgomery a 2-1 lead in the 5-game series.

» Tabbed by Baseball America as having the organization's best changeup and the 16th best prospect in the Southern League.

» Listed among Sports Weekly's "Best of the Rest" of the top prospects traded by the July 31 deadline.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Joined Salem (A) of the Carolina League in 2005...started 27 games going 8-11 with a 4.34 ERA.

» His 151.1 innings pitched and 100 strikeouts were both 3rd most on the club.

» Earned his first career shutout July 25 vs. Wilmington in a 5.0-inning, rain-shortened contest...surrendered just 2 hits with no walks and 5 strikeouts...Awarded the league's pitcher of the week for his efforts (July 25-31).

» Was rated as having the best changeup in the Astros system by Baseball America.

◆ Made 27 starts for Single-A Lexington in 2004, third most in the South Atlantic League ...Owned a 10-10 record with a 3.83 ERA holding opponents to a .252 batting average...he led the team and ranked fifth in the SAL with 152.2 IP.

» Was credited with his first career complete game in the nightcap of a doubleheader at Savannah (Expos) throwing 7.0 innings, allowing only 1 hit, 1 unearned run and striking out 7.

» Fanned a then career-high 10 in his final outing of the season vs. Hagerstown tossing 7.0 shutout innings.

◆ Began his professional career with Martinsville of the rookie-level Appalachian League in 2003...made 12 starts going 4-4 with a 2.83 ERA, 8th best in the league...struck out 46 while walking just 11.

◆ Was originally selected by the Astros in the second round (70th overall) of the 2002 June Draft.

PERSONAL/MISC

» Mitch is the youngest of 6 siblings.

» Graduated from Canyon View High School in Utah...was a member of the Salt Lake Tribune's All-State second team his senior season.

X-RAY REPORT

» B.J.'s nickname stands for Bossman Junior, with his father, Manny, being the original Bossman.

» B.J.'s father starred in baseball and football at Norfolk State University. He has been a basketball referee in the Atlantic Coast Conference for the past 14 years, and in 2003 worked the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. BJ's mother, Yvonne, was a softball player and teaches physical education at Hickory High School in the Chesapeake, VA area.

» Is one of six Chesapeake, Virginia area high school products to be taken in the first round of the draft since 1997 joining 3B Michael Cuddyer (Twins, 9th player selected in 1997), P John Curtice (Red Sox, 17th player selected in 1997), 3B David Wright (Mets, 38th player selected in 2001), 3B Ryan Zimmerman (Nationals, 4th player selected in 2005) and B.J.'s younger brother Justin, who was the number one selection in the 2005 Amateur Draft by the Arizona Diamondbacks out of Great Bridge High School.

» BROTHERS: B.J. was selected as the top 17-year-old prospect in the nation in 2002 by Baseball America and the top 19 year-old player in 2004. Justin was named the top high school prospect entering the draft and the 2005 High School Player of the Year by Baseball America. The Uptons and Youngs (Delmon and Dmitri) are the only brothers to be drafted in the top five picks of the draft.

2006 SEASON

» The 22-year-old was recalled Aug. 1 from AAA Durham and started 48 of TB's remaining 56 games, all at 3rd base.

» Hit safely in 33 of his 48 starts.

» Went 2-for-4 with a double his first game, Aug. 1 vs. Detroit…then went 9-for-56 (.161) over his next 14 games through Aug. 17…hit .267 (32-120) over the remainder of the season (34 games) to raise his avg. from a season-low .196 and finish at .246.

» Owns 199 miscues in 574 career professional games.

» Did make one of the majors' top defensive plays of the year, throwing out Oakland's Nick Swisher from his back Aug. 11 at McAfee Coliseum.

» Lone home run was Sep 23 off Randy Johnson…was his first Major League HR since Sept 17, 2004 at TOR.

» Collected a season-high 3 hits Sep 19 vs. Baltimore.

» Was successful on 11 of 14 stolen base attempts…swiped 57 bases between the Rays and AAA Durham.

» Turned 22 years old on Aug. 21 and went 2-for-5 vs. Texas...he is 8-17 with three doubles and 5RBI in his pro careeron his birthday.

» Hit leadoff 5 games...had his most success from the two hole in the lineup (.308, 8-26).

» In his brief major league career has batted .361 (39-108) vs. left-handed pitching and .199 against righties (45-226).

» Had one RBI in 23 road games (Aug. 29 at CWS).

» Was his first major league action since 2004 when he started 41 games for the Rays.

» Batted .269 (107-398) with 18 doubles, 4 triples, 8 home runs, 65 walks and 41 RBI in 106 games with the Bulls...his .374 OBP ranked 2nd on the club...also collected a team-high 46 stolen bases, tops in the International League and tied for 6th most in the minors at the time he was promoted.

» Made the move from shortstop to 3rd base on July 13 committing 5 errors in 18 games at AAA.

» Connected for a walk-off grand slam in the 9th inning April 14 against Toledo (DET), Upton's first career grand slam and first career walk-off home run...came off Mark Woodyard.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Returned to Triple-A Durham in 2005 where he was named the Bulls' Player of the Year after leading the team in nearly every offensive category.

» Topped all Rays minor leaguers with 98 runs scored, a career-high 36 doubles and a career-most 60 extra-base hits...runs scored were the most in the International League as were his career high 165 hits.

» Also stole a career-high 44 bases, second most in the IL and just two off the league leader.

» Led the Bulls in average (.303), games played (139), runs, hits, doubles, triples (6), walks (78), stolen bases, OBP (.392) and TB (267).

» Was one of just 4 minor leaguers to hit 15+ HR and steal 40+ bases.

» Celebrated his 21st birthday on Aug 21 by delivering the "walk-off" RBI single in the bottom of the 9th off Charlotte (White Sox) reliever Jeff Bajenaru...capped offa 3-for-4 (2B, 3 RBI) day.

» Led all minor leaguers with 53 errors

» Was tabbed as the league's starting shortstop for the midseason and postseason All-Star teams in addition to being the starting shortstop for Team USA at the All-Star Future's Game (0-for-2) for the second straight year.

» Named the IL's Most Exciting Player by Baseball America.

» Became the youngest DH since Claudell Washington for Oakland in 1974.

» After starting the season 1-for-10, he had a 9-game streak (.417, 15-36) from Aug. 5-18, the 4th longest by an AL rookie that season.

» Hit 3rd in the lineup 3 times, first was Aug. 14 at Texas, the first teenager to hit in the 3 hole since Andruw Jones with Atlanta on Sept. 24, 1996.

» Made his ML debut Aug 2 vs. Boston starting as the DH…went 1-for-3, walk with his hit, a 7th-inning single off Tim Wakefield.

» On Sept. 8 at Yankee Stadium, he robbed Alex Rodriguez of a hit from shortstop backhanding the ball in short left field and throwing to first base without leaping, the bottom half of his body still facing the left field corner. Said Yankees SS Derek Jeter afterward: "That was nice. It was a really good play. He can play. You can tell he has a really good idea, offensively. Defensively he showed today he's got the tools. He's young so the more he works, the better he'll be."

» Was the starting shortstop for the U.S. team in the 2004 Futures Game in Houston's Minute Maid Park on July 11…Was 0-for-2.

X-RAY REPORT

» What a catch Dad (literally)! When Ty's second child, Cannon, came into the world, a little quicker than Ty and his wife, Angela would have hoped. Ty was right there to catch him. Cannon decided he couldn't wait any longer and Ty had no other choice but to deliver him in the master closet of the family's new North Carolina home. Cannon was delivered by Ty on Dec. 20, 2006.

2006 SEASON

» Did not sign with the Rays until January then went on to lead the team and set career highs in home runs (24) and RBI (79)…Also led the club with 25 doubles and 30 game-tying or go-ahead RBI...Thirty-eight percent of his RBI were game-tying or go-ahead, 7th best pct. in the AL.

» 15 of his 24 home runs were game-tying or go-ahead and 18 were at home, tying the club mark for most home runs at Tropicana Field in one season (also Fred McGriff in 1999).

» Was enjoying his best month of the season when he was hit by a pitch from New York's Shawn Chacon on July 29 and suffered a fractured bone (5th metacarpal) in his left hand…Missed 30 games…Was batting .317 (19-60) in July and riding a 10-game hitting streak when he was injured… Batted .313 (30-96) when he returned in September and .326 (25-128) after the All-Star Break.

» Reinstated off the DL on September 1 and that night he delivered a "walk-off" pinch-hit RBI single in the 9th inning to give the Rays a 2-1 win over Seattle….Not only did the hit extend his hitting streak to a career-high 11 games, but it made him only the second player in the last 15 years to deliver a game-winning pinch hit in his first game back from the DL…The only other player to do it since 1990 was Barry Larkin for Cincinnati on May 6, 2003 against St. Louis.

» Hit a pair of home runs off Josh Beckett on July 3 to support Scott Kazmir's 2-hit, 3-0 win over the Red Sox…Was the 3rd multi-homer game of career, first as a D-Ray…Batted .312 (49-157) the rest of the season.

» Of the 7 times the Rays hit back-to-back home runs in 2006, Wiggy was involved in 5 of them.

» Batted .303 (20-66) with runners in scoring position and two outs.

» Started 116 games at five different positions: 1B-37, 2B-37, 3B-32, LF-5, RF-5…he was the only player to start at least five games at five different positions…Also DH'd one game… Handled 182 chances without an error at 2B.

» Drove in 24 runs in April tying the club mark also held by Fred McGriff (1998)…Was leading the AL in RBI as late as May 5, the first Ray to ever lead the league in RBI at any point in the season.

» He and Jonny Gomes combined for 19 home runs and 47 RBI in April, the most productive duo in the AL in the season's first month…In a 13-game span between April 11-25, Wiggy and Gomes combined for 15 home runs and 32 RBI…Ty had 7 home runs and 16 RBI in an 11 game span, April 11-22.

» Batted .311 (69-222) vs. the AL East with 16 home runs and 47 RBI in 60 games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Was Pittsburgh's Opening Day starter at third base in 2005 but split the campaign between the Pirates and Triple-A Indianapolis.

» Homered twice in an 11-5 loss at St. Louis on May 25, his second career multi-homer game…homered again in his next game, May 28 at Cincinnati.

» Was optioned to Triple-A Indianapolis on June 5 after batting .204 (21-103) in 35 games with the Pirates.

» Reached base safely in 41 straight contests with Indianapolis from June 24 thru Aug. 8, the third-longest streak in the International League…Hit a walk-off grand slam on July 10 vs. Durham (Lee Gardner)…Batted .349 (30-for-86) in 22 games during the month of August while playing with Indianapolis…Made 55 appearances at third base, 11 at first base and five at second base while playing at the Triple-A level.

» Was recalled by Pittsburgh on Aug. 22 and hit .365 over his final 22 games following his return from Triple-A…first game after being recalled Aug. 23 vs. St. Louis he went 2-for-4 with a three-run triple in his first at bat…Hit a three-run homer at Milwaukee on Aug. 31, his first with the Pirates since May 28.

» Made a total of 40 appearances (36 starts) at third base, three starts at first base and one at second base while playing with the Pirates…His lone start at second base came on Sep 12 @ St. Louis…Committed all nine errors (eight fielding/one throwing) while playing third base.

» Was released by the Pirates on December 8.

◆ Split the 2004 season between the Mets and Pirates as he was dealt to Pittsburgh at the trading deadline in the deal that sent pitcher Kris Benson to the Mets…Hit a combined .261 with 30 doubles, 17 home runs and 66 RBI in 144 games.

» Had career high five hits (5 AB) on May 10 @ Arizona…Homered in back-to-back games on May 29-30 @Florida and batted .305 (22-for-72) during the month of May…Homered twice on July 4 vs. New York (AL)…in fact went 5-for-8 with three homers and five RBI in back-to-back games against the Yankees on July 3-4.

» Batted .340 (32-for-94) with five home runs and 13 RBI in 25 games during the month of July while playing with the Mets…Hit safely in 21 of his last 27 games with New York, including a 9-for-16 (.563) clip in his final four games…Made a total of 66 appearances at third base, 25 at second base and five at first base with the Mets.

» Made 51 starts @third base with the Pirates and committed six errors…batted just .156 (14-90) for Pittsburgh through his first 28 games, then finished the season at a .283 clip (26-92) with 3 HR and 17 RBI over his last 30 games beginning Aug. 31.

» Made a total of 22 errors during the year; 18 @third base, three @second base and one @ first base…Hit .373 (31-for-83) with three homers and 11 RBI in his 25 games as a second baseman.

◆ Spent first full major league season with New York (NL) in 2003…Was named to the Topps All-Rookie squad and Baseball Digest's All-Star Rookie Team…Received one third-place vote in the National League Rookie-of-the-Year voting.

» Made 156 appearances, the second-most games played by a New York rookie (Lee Mazzilli played in 159 in 1977)…Established Mets rookie records in hits (146), doubles (36), extra-base hits (53) and at bats (573)…Led N.L. rookies in RBI (71), extra-base hits and doubles.

» Made all 155 defensive appearances (153 starts) at third base…Was the first New York rookie to start on Opening Day since Rey Ordonez in 1996…Started each of the first 21 games; the second-longest streak by a Mets rookie to begin a season (Lee Mazzilli started the first 38 games in 1977).

» Had four-hit game on May 2 at Milwaukee...Had a pair of three-run triples on May 12 and May 13 @Colorado, becoming the first Mets player to accomplish that feat in consecutive games (the last major leaguer to do so was Lenny Harris with Los Angeles in 1990 on May 24 and May 26)...Established club rookie record with 29th double on Aug. 17 at Colorado...Had fourth career four-hit game on Sep 7 at Philadelphia.

◆ Began the 2002 season with Norfolk (Mets' AAA)...Had contract purchased by New York on May 15...Made major league debut as a pinch hitter in the 7th inning at San Diego and struck out...Became the 124th different third baseman in Mets history when he entered the game on May 17 at San Diego...Singled as a pinch hitter off Philadelphia's Randy Wolf for first big-league hit on May 29.

» Was optioned back to Triple-A on May 31...Was recalled by New York on Aug. 4...Had four hits and connected off Arizona's John Patterson for first major league home run on that day at Shea Stadium...Also made first big-league start at second base...Became the first major league player since Colorado's Derrick Gibson on Sep 8, 1998 to have four hits in his first start...Swiped first big-league base on Aug. 6 at Milwaukee.

» Was optioned to Norfolk again on Aug. 24, but was recalled a final time on Sep 3...Hit first career pinch-hit home run on Sep 4 vs. Florida.

» Made 11 starts at third base, nine at second base and seven at first base for the Mets...Also played left field on Sep 13 at Montreal and right field on Sep 25 at Philadelphia.

◆ Was on disabled list from May 11 thru June 20, 2001 after undergoing right elbow surgery...Played 11 rehab games with St. Lucie (three games) and Binghamton (eight games) before re-joining Norfolk on July 2...Made 44 appearances at third base, 24 at second base, five at first base, one in left field and one behind the plate for the Tides.

◆ Spent entire 2000 season with Binghamton (AA)...Finished fourth in the Eastern League in home runs (20) and 10th in RBI (77) ...Named the Topps Eastern League Player-of-the-Month for the month of August after hitting .336 with eight homers and 34 RBI.

Delmon Damarcus Young

Bats/Throws: R/R
Height/Weight: 6-3/215
Opening Day Age: 21
Tenure: 34 days
Born: 9/14/85 in Montgomery, AL
Resides: Camarillo, CA
Contract Status: Fourth year of a five-year major league contract through 2008
Acquired: Selected in the first round (1st overall) of the 2003 June Draft
Signing Scout: Rich Aude (Devil Rays)

X-RAY REPORT

» Older brother Dmitri was the 4th player selected by St. Louis in the 1991 draft…They were the first set of brothers to each be taken within the first five selections of the draft, B.J. and Justin Upton are the only others…In 10 major league seasons with St. Louis, Cincinnati and Detroit, Dmitri has a .291 lifetime avg. and 147 home runs…Delmon was on hand to see his brother's first ML game in 1996.

» Delmon's sister, DeAnn, plays first base for the Oregon State University softball team…She earned All-Pac-10 Conference honorable mention and second team All-Pacific Region after batting .291 with 7 HR and a .500 slugging percentage in 58 games during her freshman year as the Beavers advanced all the way to the College World Series…she is majoring In Exercise and Sports Sciences…At Camarillo High, she was a three-time First Team All-Pacific View League selection, the school's Co-Offensive Player of the Year as a sophomore and Pacific View League Player of the Year as a junior.

» Delmon never played another sport...committed to play baseball at the University of Arizona.

» Father, Larry, was a Navy pilot and now is a commercial pilot.

» Made his Tropicana Field debut on Sept 2, 2006, against Seattle…in attendance was his father and his mother, Bonnie, who watched her son play professionally in person for the first time.

2006 SEASON

» Recalled from AAA Durham on August 29 when Jonny Gomes was placed in the DL and joined the team in Chicago for his first major league action.

» Had 31 hits in his first 20 major league games...only six players in the last 50 years matched or exceeded that total in their first 20 games (see chart).

» Finished with 40 hits in 30 games…Only 11 players in the last 50 years had more hits in their first 30 major league games (see chart)…Had 14 multi-hit games in 30 starts.

» Still retains his rookie status…A player who doesn't exceed 130 at-bats or 45 days on the active roster before September 1 is considered a rookie…Delmon finished with 126 at-bats.

» Made his major league debut the day of his recall against 17-game winner Freddy Garcia and the White Sox…Homered in his 3rd plate app off Garcia who had hit him with a pitch in his first at-bat…Became the 2nd Ray ever to homer in his major league debut (also Brent Abernathy, 2001)…The first overall selection in the June 2003 draft, he became just the 2nd top pick to homer in his first game joining Bob Horner who did it with Atlanta in 1978…Later added a single…also homered in his first minor league game for Charleston (A) in 2004 and his first game with Double-A Montgomery in 2005.

» Followed the next night with an RBI single, sac-fly and a double off Chicago's 18-game winner Jon Garland....game three saw him collect 4 hits and was robbed of a 5th on a diving play by Sox 2B Tadahito Iguchi...Young was the first player since Arizona's Chad Tracy in 2004 to record a 4-hit game within his first 3 games in the majors.

» Became the first player since Willie McCovey in 1959 to get eight hits in his first three games.

» At 20 years, 11 months, 15 days, Delmon was the exact same age as Carl Crawford when he debuted in 2002...Only 3 Rays have debuted at a younger age: B.J. Upton (19 yrs, 11 mos), Chad Gaudin (20 yrs, 5 mos) and Scott Kazmir (20 yrs, 7 mos)...Was the 2nd youngest player in the majors in 2006, youngest position player...Only Seattle's RHP Felix Hernandez was younger...Young is also the 2nd youngest Ray to homer in a game behind BJ Upton who homered as a 19-year-old in 2004.

» After call-up, started 30 of the remaining 31 games and was the team's leading hitter the rest of the season (.317, 40-126) and the AL's top hitting rookie over that span...His 40 hits were 10th in the AL during that period and 9 more than any other AL rookie...Also had 4 outfield assists, 2nd among AL outfielders over the last 5 weeks of the season behind LAA's Juan Rivera (5).

» In his Tropicana Field debut Sep 1 vs. Seattle, he nailed Ichiro at third base as the six-time All-Star attempted to go from first to third on a single...It was the first time in his major league career that Ichiro was thrown out from right field trying to go from first to third.

» The following night, he added his second home run, a 386-foot blast off Joel Pineiro and became the first American Leaguer in five years to record a home run for his first hit at home and on the road (Tom Wilson, Oakland, 2001).

» Compiled a 12-game hitting streak, Sep 5-18, the Rays longest of the season and the 2nd longest by a rookie in club history (Rocco Baldelli, 13 games in 2003)...Only one AL rookie had a longer streak in 2006: LAA's Howie Kendrick (16 games)...streak began Sep 5 vs. Minnesota as the Rays were held to two hits over 8 innings by 19-game winner and AL ERA champion Johan Santana and Delmon got both of them.

» Batted a team-high .316 in 86 games at Durham...Was suspended for 50 days by International League President Randy Mobley for throwing his bat at an umpire in a game at Pawtucket on April 26...Returned to the Bulls on June 19... Was hitting .338 at the time he was suspended... During his suspension, Young completed 50 hours of community service including work with the Miracle League of St. Petersburg, the Rays Wheelchair softball team, the Sheriff's Youth Ranch of Manatee County and the Ronald McDonald House...Also performed community service in Durham.

» Was one of only two 20-year-olds in the IL...finished 13 plate appearances shy of qualifying with the 2nd best batting average in the IL...hit safely in 11 straight and 18 of his first 20 games to start the season...was also 22-for-26 in stolen bases.

» In three minor league seasons, averaged 150 hits, 25 doubles, 20 home runs, 91 RBI and 25 stolen bases per season.

Tabbed as the Rays' top prospect by Baseball America as well as having the organization's best outfield arm and the club's top hitter for average...Named the publication's #1 prospect entering the 2006 season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Named the organization's 2005 Player of the Year for the second straight season ...is the only Rays farmhand to ever win the honor twice.

» Combined at Triple-A Durham and Double-A Montgomery to hit .315 with 26 doubles, 7 triples, 26 HR, 99 RBI and 32 stolen bases...his 176 hits were the fourth most in the minors as were his 294 total bases (tied), both tops among Rays minor leaguers.

» Was one of just four minor leaguers to hit 25 home runs and steal 25 bases...No other minor leaguer reached his figures in doubles, triples, home runs and stolen bases.

» Named the 2005 Baseball America Minor League Player of the Year joining Rocco Baldelli (2002) as the only Rays to receive the award...Also awarded the J.G. Taylor Spink Award as the Topps Minor League Player of the Year.

» At just 19-years-old, he was the youngest player in the International League and the youngest player to win the Baseball America POY award since Braves outfielder Andruw Jones won in back-to-back years in 1995-96.

» He batted .285 (65-for-228) with 13 doubles, 6 home runs and 28 RBI in 59 games at Durham hitting safely in his first 13 games at the Triple-A level, tying his career high hit streak.

» Anchored a triple play Aug 3 against Norfolk (Mets)...Young snared a sinking line drive and gunned down a runner out at the plate; Durham catcher Tim Laker then threw on to first to double-up the runner there...was the first triple play for the Bulls since joining the Triple-A ranks in 1998.

» Named Southern League Most Valuable Player despite being promoted to Durham on July 15... hit .336 (111-330) with a franchise-record 20 home runs and 71 RBI with the Biscuits and garnered a spot on the Southern League's mid- and postseason All-Star teams...he fell eight at-bats shy of qualifying as the SL batting champ.

» At the time of his call-up, he led the Southern League in home runs, hits (111) and RBI (71) while ranking fourth with a .336 average and tied for third with 25 stolen bases.

» Was awarded the league's player of the month honors in both May and June becoming the first player to win the award twice in the same year since Oakland's Eric Chavez in 1998... Young hit a combined .363 (78-215) with 11-2B, 15-HR and 52-RBI for both months.

» Hit a game-tying 2-run home run in the 7th inning on Opening Day against Mississippi (Braves) in his Double-A debut...has homered on opening day in each of his first two seasons.

» Belted his first career grand slam June 19 at Jacksonville (LAD)...also hit a solo HR in the 7th...was one of three multi-homer games on the year.

» GOING LONG: Connected for two tape-measure home runs in 2005...On April 23, he became the first and only Biscuit to clear the batter's eye in centerfield at Montgomery's Riverwalk Stadium...though no official distance is kept, it is believed to be the longest home run ever hit by a Biscuit...Delmon also became the first player to clear the batter's eye at TrustMark Park on May 30...only 54 HR were hit at the home of the Mississippi Braves, in 2005, the fewest at any SL park.

» Collected 341 hits in 264 games in his first two professional seasons (2004-05), only Angels farmhand Erick Aybar had more base knocks (351) among minor leaguers over the span.

» Was tabbed by Baseball America's Best Tools survey as being the Southern League's Best Batting Prospect and the Most Exciting Player as well as having the Best Power and Best Outfield Arm...The publication also named him the Southern League, International League and Rays organization top prospect.

» Represented Team USA at the All-Star Future's Game in Detroit for the second straight year...Played the entire game in right field and went 1-for-2 with a walk.

◆ Named the organization's Player of the Year in 2004 after leading the South Atlantic League with 116 RBI and 165 hits while his 25 home runs were 6th, all setting Rays organization records for a first-year player.

» His 116 RBI were the most in that league since 1997...Also led the Rays organization and set a new Charleston single-season record...It is the second-highest RBI total ever for a Tampa Bay minor leaguer behind Steve Cox's 127 in 1999...Drove in 103 runs in the final four months.

» His 165 hits were the most since Carl Crawford's 170 in 2000...His .322 average was 5th highest.

» Was one of just 6 players in minor league baseball to reach the 20/20 club and the only player in the minors to post 25 home runs and steal 20 or more bases.

» Named Baseball America's top prospect as well as garnering a position on their Minor League All-Star team along with B.J. Upton...Was also named BA's Class A (low) player of the year...Also named the South Atlantic League's Most Outstanding Major League Prospect, marking the second straight year a Rays farmhand received the honor (B.J. Upton).

» Homered in his first regular season game April 8 against Greensboro (Marlins).

» Started slowly drawing one walk and striking out 19 times in his first 84 at-bats...Rebounded to reach base safely via hit or walk in 55 of the 59 games in the second half of the season.

» The SALLY League All-Star was named the Topps SAL August Player of the Month and was also awarded the SAL Batter of the Week for two consecutive weeks August 6-12 and 13-19, the only RiverDog to win the award.

» He joined former RiverDog B.J. Upton as a representative of Team USA at the 2004 All-Star Future's Game in Houston...He was 0-for-1.

» Was also named the top prospect in the 2004 Arizona Fall League, despite being the only teenager in the league.

◆ Was the first player selected in the June 2003 Amateur draft and signed a five-year major league contract with the Rays on Sept. 9...Went to Instructional League then made his pro debut in the Arizona Fall League one month after his 18th birthday and batted .417 (20-48) with 5 doubles, a triple and a home run...Began the AFL season on the "taxi squad" meaning he could play in only 2 games a week...Began season with 13 hits in his first 28 at-bats...Was moved off the "taxi squad" mid-season...Would have led the AFL in batting but lacked enough plate appearances...Helped Mesa Solar Sox to the AFL Championship.

» Named the 2nd best prospect in the Arizona Fall League behind teammate B.J. Upton...also ranked as the 2nd-best prospect in the organization by Baseball America, behind Upton.

» Had an impressive workout at Tropicana Field prior to the draft on May 11...The Rays hosted Delmon's brother's team, the Detroit Tigers later that day.

AMATEUR CAREER

» Batted .523 (34-61) with 40 runs, 7 home runs, 28 RBI in 22 games as a senior for Adolfo Camarillo (CA) High School...Missed the first five games of the season with a sprained ankle, but the team went 21-0 the rest of the regular season after Young returned...The team extended the winning streak to 23 straight games, before losing to Arlington High, 7-4, on May 27 in a second-round playoff game.

» Baseball America rated him as the top prospect in the 2003 draft, the best power hitter and as being closest to the majors among the nation's high school players.

» Named to Baseball America's High School All-America team in 2002 and 2003 and USA Today's 2003 All-USA team.

» Was Baseball America's Youth Player of the Year in 2002

» Was a finalist (along with teammate B.J. Upton and Rays minor leaguer Jason Pridie) for the 2002 Baseball Coaches Association National Player of the Year won by Jeff Francoeur...was the only junior named to the Association's All-American team.

» As a junior, led Camarillo to the California Interscholastic Federation Southern Section Division I Championship with a .542 average, 17 home runs, 55 runs scored and 56 RBI... His 17 home runs were a Ventura County record... Named the California State Player of the Year, the first junior to win the award since Eric Chavez won it 1995.

» In the summer of 2002 hit 16 home runs for his Junior National Team as he helped the Scorpions win their fourth straight Pacific View League title...At the World Junior Championships in Sherbrooke, Quebec, Canada, he helped lead Team USA to a bronze medal while batting .513 with a tournament record 8 home runs and 19 RBI in 38 at-bats.

» Participated in the USA High School All-Star Team in the 16th Goodwill Games in Irvine, CA playing a 4-game set against Japan...also played for Team USA in the 15th Annual Goodwill games with current Rays Chris Seddon and Scott Kazmir

» Has also pitched, throwing in the low 90s.

» Took part in the 1999 Area Code games, despite being only 13 years old...the event is normally reserved for showcasing high school seniors.

Benjamin Thomas Zobrist

Bats/Throws: S/R
Height/Weight: 6-3/200
Opening Day Age: 25
Tenure: 62 days
Born: 5/26/81 in Eureka, IL
Resides: Nashville, TN
Contract Status: Signed through 2007
Acquired: From the Houston Astros along with RHP Mitch Talbot in exchange for 3B Aubrey Huff and cash on July 12, 2006
Signing Scout: Rusty Pendergrass (Astros)

X-RAY REPORT

» Ben is only the second Ray whose last name begins with the letter "Z" joining pitcher Victor Zambrano. Only the Tigers' Joel Zumaya is lower on the alphabet than Zobrist among active players. Ben was the 9th "Z" in major league history to appear regularly at SS including Rays Sr. Advisor Don Zimmer.

» Ben gives motivational speeches to Nashville area youth in the offseason.

2006 SEASON

» The 25-year-old switch-hitting infielder made the jump to the big leagues after only 18 games at the Triple-A level…he was acquired from the Houston Astros on July 12 along with right-handed pitcher Mitch Talbot in exchange for third baseman Aubrey Huff and cash.

» Was rated by USA Today as the 5th-best prospect traded at the deadline.

» Was one of four switch-hitters on the club (Greg Norton, Tomas Perez, Dioner Navarro).

» He began the season with AA Corpus Christi of the Texas League, batting .328 in 82 games with a team-high 25 doubles, leading the league with six triples and 55 walks…named a Texas League All-Star.

» He then hit .304 in 18 games at shortstop with AAA Durham after the deal.

» He was recalled Aug. 1 from Durham along with BJ Upton taking over regular SS duties when Julio Lugo was traded to the Dodgers July 31…started 50 of the final 56 games, all at shortstop…appeared in 52.

» Made his major league debut that night at home vs. the Tigers and went 0-for-4 against Justin Verlander & Co…grounded out to 2nd base his first at-bat.

» Began his career with the Rays 1-for-17, but then batted .241 (40-166) in 44 games from that point.

» Reached base safely via hit or walk in 38 of his 50 starts.

» Hit in a season-best 9 straight games Aug 22-31 (.286, 10-for-35).

» Had his best game as a big leaguer in an August 6 win over Boston with his first ML home run (Jason Johnson), a double and a season-high 3 RBI…was his 6th game.

» Both of his home runs came batting lefthanded…belted his 2nd home run Sept 2 off Seattle closer J.J. Putz, who surrendered just 4 home runs all year…had 2 total HR in 100 games in the minors before his callup and just 11 for his career before joining TB.

» Singled off Curt Schilling Aug 4 in the 5th inning for his 1st major league hit…first RBI was Aug. 2 vs. DET, a squeeze bunt that tied the game 2-2 in the 5th.

» Average reached a high of .242 on Sep 12 after going 2-for-4 with a pair of RBI in his first game at Yankee Stadium.

» His 242 total chances ranked 5th most among major league shortstops from Aug. 1... committed 9 errors, tied with DET Carlos Guillen, WSH Felipe Lopez and TOR John McDonald for 3rd most among ML shortstops behind FLA Hanley Ramirez (12) and MIN Jason Bartlett (10)... had just a pair of miscues thorugh his first 20 games until a 2-error game Aug. 23 vs. Texas.

» On Sep 2 vs. SEA he combined with C Dioner Navarro on the first "2-6-2" triple play in Major League history...Was the 2nd triple play in club history.

» Hit just .204 (21-103) at Tropicana Field compared to .250 on the road (20-80) but had 8 of his 10 extra-base hits at the Trop; (including both HRs) as well as 14 of his 18 RBI.

» Mainly hit 9th in the order but also hit leadoff, 2nd and 8th.

» Following the season played in the Arizona Fall League where he was named to the All-Prospect Team...batted .366 (37-101) for the champion Phoenix Desert Dogs, 3rd in the AFL... led the league with 29 runs scored and reached base in all 28 games played, including the championship game...also ranked 3rd in the league with a .469 on-base percentage...slugged .515 and knocked in 21 RBIs...was one of eight players to receive a league MVP vote.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Batted a combined .314 (122-388) with 29 doubles and 40 stolen bases at Salem (A) and Lexington (A) in 2005...named a South Atlantic League All-Star as he led Salem with a .333 average... began his professional career in 2004 at Tri-City of the New York-Penn League and named to the year-end All-Star team as well as team MVP and league Rookie of the Year...led the NYPL in batting (.339) and on-base percentage (.438) and second in hits (49)...named Tri-City's offensive player of the month for June & August and garnered Topps player of the month for August.

PERSONAL/MISC

» Ben and his wife, Julianna, reside in Nashville...Julianna, an accomplished singer, sang the National Anthem before a Rays game last season...his father, Tom, is a minister.

» Grew up in Eureka, IL, about 2 1/2 hours from Chicago, but was a fan of Cardinals Hall of Famer Ozzie Smith.

» Was originally selected by the Astros in the 6th round of the 2004 June Draft out of Dallas Baptist University...also attended Olivet Nazarene (IL)...was undrafted out of Eureka High School.

» Played two summers in the Northwoods Summer League for the Wisconsin Woodchucks in Wausau, WI and was named team MVP in 2003.

» Was the starting shortstop for Team USA at the 2005 World Cup in the Netherlands.

Triple Plays

The Rays have turned two triple plays in club history. On Sept. 13, 2002 at Toronto, the Rays pulled off the first triple play in club history (L-4-6-3) with Dewon Brazelton on the mound in his major league debut. It was only the 3rd time in major league history that a pitcher was backed by a triple play in his major league debut and the first time since August 31, 1919 (St. Louis Browns' pitcher Rolla "Lefty" Mapel in the 2nd inning vs. Detroit). The others: September 18, 1917 (2nd game of a doubleheader) Pittsburgh's Elmer Ponder vs. the Boston Braves and April 23, 1895 Boston Braves' pitcher Zeke Wilson started a triple play against the Washington Nationals.

Nearly four years later the Rays pulled off another triple play, the first ever at Tropicana Field on September 2, 2006. It took place in the top of the first inning against Seattle. With runners on first and third, pitcher J.P. Howell threw a strike on a 3-2 count to Raul Ibanez for the first out. Catcher Dioner Navarro threw the ball to shortstop Ben Zobrist to get Adrian Beltre, who was running from first on the pitch. Zobrist then threw it back to Navarro to nail Jose Lopez as he tried to score to complete the triple play. It was the first 2-6-2 triple play in Major League Baseball history. The Rays have also hit into one triple play, June 11, 2006 at Kansas City. It went 8-1-6-5 when Russell Branyan's apparent sacrifice fly was nullified upon appeal when it was ruled that Aubrey Huff had left 3rd base early on the tag-up.

Baseball Tomorrow Fund

The Baseball Tomorrow Fund (BTF) is designed to promote and enhance the growth of baseball throughout the world by funding programs, field improvements and equipment purchases to encourage and maintain youth participation in baseball and softball. Since its inception in 1999, the Baseball Tomorrow Fund has awarded grants totaling more than $10 million, benefiting nearly 118,000 youth participating in more than 225 youth baseball and softball programs across the United States, Canada, Latin America, the Caribbean, Europe and Asia. Distributing an average of $2 million annually, BTF awarded grants to 52 organizations in 2006. For more information visit www.baseballtomorrowfund.com.

In support of the ongoing commitment from Major League Baseball, its Clubs and the players to increase opportunities for youth participation in baseball and softball, the Baseball Tomorrow Fund awarded grants totaling $5,000 to Boys and Girls Clubs of the Suncoast and Boys & Girls Clubs of Tampa Bay in 2006. The grants were awarded in conjunction with the national baseball equipment collection program supported by the Baseball Tomorrow Fund last season.

2006 SEASON

» Split the season between the Red Sox and Tigers organizations.

» Went to spring training with Boston as a non-roster invitee…began the year at Triple-A Pawtucket but quickly joined the Sox on April 11 after Coco Crisp went on the Disabled List with a fractured left index finger.

» Batted .175 with a double, 2 home runs and 3 RBI in 21 games with Boston striking out (20) in half of his plate appearances (40).

» Belted a home run off Toronto's Gustavo Chacin April 12 at Fenway Park in his Red Sox debut.

» Returned to Pawtucket on May 26 when David Wells returned from a stint on the 15-day DL…appeared in 22 total games batting just .169 but walking 21 times with the PawSox…was designated for assignment on June 16 when Gabe Kapler joined the major league squad and was released from the organization on June 20.

» Signed a minor league deal with the Tigers on June 26 and joined Triple-A Toledo where he helped the Mudhens win the International League Championship batting .262 with 6 home runs and 25 RBI in 54 games at centerfield and designated hitter.

» Belted 4 HR's in 10 games during postseason play driving in 7 runs and batting .263 (10-for-38).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Signed with the Rockies as a free agent on January 6, 2005.

» Connected for a career-high 17 home runs despite batting only .214 in 98 games with Colorado.

» Belted 4 homers over a 6-game span July 31-August 9 and averaged a homer every 15.6 at-bats for the season (266 AB's).

» Hit a game-tying solo home run with one out in the 9th inning May 11 vs. Atlanta…the Rockies walked-off with the win 5 batters later…also came through May 4 at San Diego tying the game at 6 with a 2-out, 2-run homer in the 8th inning, though the Rox would lose in 12.

» Was the Opening Day rightfielder against San Diego…strained his left calf muscle that night while leaping over the dugout railing to meet game-winning home run hitter Clint Barmes at home plate after a 12-10 walk-off victory…was placed on the 15-day DL the following day…returned to the club April 28.

» Batted .266 at Coors Field with 13 HR and just .154 with 4 homers in 43 road games.

◆ Acquired by the Giants prior to the 2004 season in exchange for LH J.T. Thomas.

» Hit a career-high .274 in 117 contests in his lone year with the San Francisco organization.

» Led the club with 26 pinch-hit appearances, going 7-for-18 (.389) with 2 HR's and 7 walks.

» Had a pinch-hit, inside-the-park home run August 4 vs. Cincinnati off the Reds' Jose Acevedo...was the first of its kind in the majors since July 25, 1998, when Pittsburgh's Turner Ward accomplished the feat against Atlanta...was the first inside-the-park HR at SBC park by a Giants player, 2nd overall (St. Louis' Fernando Vina did it in 2000).

» Belted a monster 2-run home run July 27 at San Diego off David Wells that landed in the 2nd balcony of the Western Metal Supply Co. building down the left field line at PETCO Park... joined Sammy Sosa and Ramon Hernandez as the only players to hit a homer that far.

» Played the final three months of the season with a ruptured tendon in his right bicep... despite the injury, carried a .400 average (20-for-50) with 3 home runs in 22 August games.

» Got off to a slow start collecting just one hit in his first 24 at-bats...hit at a .297 (71-for 239) clip the remainder of the way.

◆ Played the 2003 season with the Twins appearing in a career-high 121 games.

» For the second straight year, reached 20+ doubles (22) and double digits in home runs (10)

» Hit in a career-high 12 straight May 18-31 batting .419 (18-for-43)...was part of a torrid month in which he batted .395 with 9 doubles, 5 home runs, 15 RBI and 20 runs scored in 28 games.

» Following the club's acquisition of Shannon Stewart on July 25, had just 89 at-bats the remainder of the season...was on the Twins' American League Division Series roster against Boston, but did not appear.

◆ Played the entire 2002 season with the Twins batting .269 in 120 games with a career-high 23 doubles, 45 RBI and 55 runs scored.

» Connected for 12 home runs on the year including his first major league homer April 7 at Toronto, a solo shot off Brian Cooper.

» Batted .304 off righthanders (76-for-250) opposed to .203 against lefties (27-for-133).

» Excelled on the road carrying a .326 average (60-for-184) and hitting just .216 at the Metrodome (43-for-199).

» Played in 9 games batting .500 (7-for-14) during Minnesota's 2002 playoff run to the American League Championship Series.

◆ Made his major league debut with the Twins in 2001...Had his contract purchased from Double-A New Britain on Aug 29 and appeared in 20 games with the Twins batting .235 with a pair of doubles.

» Made his debut that night against Texas starting in right field...his first hit and RBI came in the 5th with a two-run single off Rob Bell.

» Led the Eastern League at the time he was called up with a .336 average...also owned 24 homers and 91 RBI...ranked second on the circuit in doubles (41), total bases (293), on-base pct. (.395) and slugging pct (.566)...named an EL All-Star and connected for a home run in the mid-season game.

◆ Played with single-A Fort Myers in 2000 batting .265 in 101 gms with a then-career high 75 RBI.

◆ Opened the 1999 season with Double-A Akron but struggled to a .162 average in 12 games...completed the year at class-A Kinston batting .280 with 29 doubles in 112 games.

◆ With Kinston in 1998, ranked among Carolina League leaders in games (134, 3rd), total bases (217, 4th), triples (9, 5th), home runs (19, 5th) and extra base hits (51, 5th).

◆ Taken by the Indians in the 9th round of the 1997 June Draft...Began his pro career with class-A Watertown earning New York-Penn League All-Star honors.

X-RAY REPORT

» Pronounced Shin-jee Mor-ee.

» Shinji graduated from Iwakuni-kogyo High School in Yamaguchi in 1993 and went to work at Shin Nippon steel, the largest steel company in Japan. Shinji was there for four years and played on the company baseball team before he was drafted by the Seibu Lions in 1996.

HOW HE BECAME A DEVIL RAY

» On December 12, 2005, the Seibu Lions of the Japanese Pacific League accepted the Rays bid to obtain the negotiating rights to Mori and on January 11, 2006 the Rays signed him. He became the Tampa Bay organization's first agreement with a player from the Japanese Leagues and second Japanese player to sign with the Rays, joining pitcher Hideo Nomo (2005).

TRIBUTE TO NOMO

» Mori wore No. 11 in Japan in tribute to Hideo Nomo, and continues that honor with the Rays by wearing No. 11, which Nomo wore in 2005 for the Rays. He became the 16th pitcher to join a Major League team after playing professionally in Japan's Central or Pacific Leagues.

2006 SEASON

» Was sidelined the entire season after suffering a torn labrum in his right shoulder during spring training...the reliever opted to forego surgery and instead spent the season rehabbing his shoulder in St. Petersburg.

» Tossed a scoreless inning in the Rays intrasquad game Feb. 28 (2-SO).

» The injury occurred on the 3rd pitch March 20 at a minor league game at the Naimoli complex...was his first game action since being scratched from his debut March 3 with right shoulder soreness.

» Resumed throwing on July 3 when he made 25 tosses from 45 feet.

CAREER IN JAPAN

» Was a five-time member of Japan's Pacific League All-Star team: 1998, 2000, 2002, 2003, 2004.

» During his career with Seibu, the Lions won the Pacific League championship in 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2004 and the Japan Series Championship in 2004...The Lions were 671-541 (.627) during Mori's time there...Played with the Mets' Kaz Matsui for 7 years.

» Had at least as many strikeouts as innings pitched in all but one of his 9 seasons with Seibu...That one season was in 1998 when he had 110 Ks in 111.0 innings.

» Averaged 10.4 strikeouts per 9 innings during his career.

» Led Japan's Pacific League with 71 appearances in 2002 and was 2nd in 2003 with 61 and was named the league's best set-up man both seasons.

» Has excelled in his only experience against major league hitters...Pitched for the Japan All-Stars in the MLB All-Star Series in 2000 and 2002... In 7 appearances combined in the two series: 0-0, SV-1, ERA-1.13, IP-8.0, H-4, R-1, ER-1, BB-3, SO-7... Had 4 scoreless appearances in the 2000 series and on November 9, saved Japan's 1-0 win over the MLB All-Stars as Japan combined on a one-hitter...In the November 2002 series he made 3 appearances without a decision: IP-4.0, H-3, R-1, ER-1, BB-1, SO-5)....Allowed a home run to Bernie Williams... In one outing he fanned Jacque Jones, Barry Bonds, and Jason Giambi consecutively.

» As a rookie in 1997, he won six games and saved nine, then claimed Seibu's only win in the Japan Series Championship over the Yakult Swallows with 2.2 scoreless innings.

PERSONAL

» Single.

» Shinji is known for his frequent changes in hair styles.

» Enjoys golf. His average score is 85-to-88 with his best a 74.

Dirt Basepaths

Tropicana Field is the first major league park in more than 20 years to feature artificial turf and dirt base paths. The two other current major league parks with artificial turf have only dirt cutouts around the bases and at the pitcher's mound (Rogers Centre, Metrodome).

Only four other artificial turf stadia have ever featured dirt base paths: Houston's Astrodome (1966-71); San Francisco's Candlestick Park in 1971, Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium in the early '70s and the most recent, St. Louis' Busch Stadium (1970-76). Chicago's Comiskey Park had dirt basepaths with an Astroturf infield and grass outfield in the early '70s.

2006 SEASON

» Named Pitcher of the Year by the organization as well as AA Montgomery after posting a staff-best 2.67 ERA and a team-high 153 strikeouts.

» Won a Rays minor league single-season record 15 games, tied for the most victories in all of Double-A and 6th most wins among minor league hurlers.

» His team-high 185.2 innings pitched were the second-most among all minor league pitchers and the second-highest total ever by a Rays minor leaguer behind only Pablo Ortega's 188.2 IP in 1997...tossed 6.0 or more innings in 22 of his team-high 28 starts.

» The Southern League tabbed him as the league's top right-handed pitcher in 2006 and Baseball America's Best Tools Survey awarded him Best Control in the Southern League and the Rays organization...also named by the publication as the 19th best prospect in the Southern League.

» From June 13 to July 30, he won 9 consecutive starts as he posted an ERA of 1.15 over the stretch with 51 strikeouts and only 8 walks...tied for the second longest win streak in Double-A.

» Over the stretch, recorded a minor league-high four shutouts, three of the 9.0-inning variety...held opponents to 3 hits or less in each of those games...only Chattanooga's Tim Redding (5) threw more complete games in the minors.

» Garnered the organization's July Pitcher of the Month and the TOPPS Southern League Player of the Month after going 6-0 with a 1.35 ERA, striking out 39 batters in 46.2 innings of work...Lance Carter, in August 2002 with Durham, is the only other Rays pitcher to go 6-0 in a month in franchise history.

» Tied his career high with 11 K's July 13 against Carolina (Marlins).

» Won both his postseason starts for the SL Champion Biscuits going 2-0 with a 2.57 ERA and 15 strikeouts in 14 IP.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

» Has earned Pitcher of the Year at his respective level in each of his first three professional seasons (2004-SS-A Hudson Valley, 2005-A Visalia, 2006-AA Montgomery).

» Andy's 29 wins over the last two seasons are the most among all minor league pitchers.

◆ In 2005, combined at Southwest Michigan (A) and Visalia (A) to record 178 strikeouts leading all Rays minor leaguers and setting a franchise record for Rays farmhands...was the 6th most K's in the minors.

» Worked to a 14-5 record becoming just the third Rays minor leaguer ever to win 14 games in a single season joining Scott Autrey (2003) and Chris Seddon (2004)...also led Rays hurlers with 180.2 IP, 7th most in the minor leagues.

» His 14 victories were tops among all Rays farmhands while his 2.99 ERA was 4th lowest ...only five minor league hurlers had more wins.

» Walked only 18 batters all year in 180.2 IP...His 9.89 K/BB ratio ranked second among all minor leaguers with 10 or more starts.

» Named the Visalia Pitcher of the Year...joined the Oaks at the July All-Star Break going 4-1 with a 3.80 ERA in 10 starts over the remainder of the year.

» Set a career high with 11 strikeouts Aug. 18 at Rancho Cucamonga (Angels) in 8.0 innings.

» Led SW Michigan with 10 wins and tossed the staff's only complete game, and the first of his career, on July 5 vs. Clinton (7.0-IP, 4-H, 1-R/ER, 0-BB, 6-SO).

» Was 5 outs from a perfect game May 12 at Ft. Wayne...came away with the win throwing 8.0 shutout innings (2 hits, BB, 7-SO)...named MWL pitcher of the week for his efforts.

» Tabbed as having the Midwest League's best control by Baseball America.

◆ Split the 2004 season between Hudson Valley (SS-A) and Charleston (A).

» Earned Renegades Pitcher of the Year honors...allowed just 3 ER in 27.0 IP (1.00 ERA) and struck out 24 while walking only 3 batters..did not allow a run in 4 road games (14.1 IP) with the 'Gades.

» Promoted to Charleston on July 29...surrendered just two earned runs in 30.2 innings of work over eight appearances, two starts, with the RiverDogs for a 0.59 ERA...Held opponents to a .171 (36-210) average combined...Did not allow a HR in 57.2 innings.

Signing Scout: Kevin Elfering (Devil Rays)

X-RAY REPORT

» Doug's family has long been involved in a Christian ministry team that visits prisons throughout the Tampa Bay area.

» Doug's wife Kristin teaches emotionally handicapped students in St.Petersburg.

» Is a 1999 graduate of Northeast High School in St. Petersburg, located 4 1/2 miles from Tropicana Field. He's the 10th Florida-born player to play for the Rays, first from Pinellas County.

» As a high school junior, he attended the Rays' inaugural game, March 31, 1998 vs. Detroit at Tropicana Field. He sat behind former Buccaneers and current Colts head coach Tony Dungy.

» Following the 2005 season he became a certified scuba-diver while playing in Puerto Rico. He had never dived before.

» Threw the first 9-inning no-hitter in Devil Rays history, striking out 10 and walking 3 for short-season A Hudson Valley against Pittsfield (Mets) on August 10, 2000...He struck out the last hitter of the game, but the batter advanced all the way to third when the ball eluded the catcher. Waechter calmly got the next batter to pop out to end the game.

» Pronounced WECK-ter.

2006 SEASON

» The 25-year old St. Petersburg native underwent right shoulder surgery on October 11 with an expected recovery time of eight to 10 months ...procedure was performed by Dr. Koco Eaton.

» He was 1-4 with a 6.62 ERA in 11 games, 10 starts, for the Rays striking out 25 while walking 19.

» Faired much better at home in 2006 (1-0, 4.94 ERA) than away from Tropicana Field (0-4, 8.42 ERA).

» Lone win came in his final start for the Rays June 4 against the Blue Jays and Gustavo Chacin... snapped a 4-game losing streak to start the year and a career-high 8 straight losing decisions dating back to last Aug. 27 spanning 15 starts...only Jeremi Gonzalez (11, Aug 24, 2003-July 5, 2004) and Albie Lopez (10, April 29-July 2, 2001) have had longer slides in club history.

» Was optioned to AAA Durham the following day.

» Rays were just 2-8 in his starts and have won just 3 times in his last 16 starts dating back to 2005.

» Has not won on the road (as a starter) since Sept 17, 2004 at Toronto...is 0-9 in 14 road starts since...did win in relief June 3 at Seattle.

» Opponents batted .311...righties hit at a .331 (40-121) clip, 5th highest among AL starters with 10 or more starts this season.

» Career as a starter: 12-24, 5.88 ERA (298.1-IP, 342-H, 195-ER, 54-GS)...As a reliever: 2-1, 1.04 ERA (17.1-IP, 13-H, 2-ER, 6-G)

» Led the staff in the spring with a 1.76 ERA (min. 15 IP) and edged out Edwin Jackson for the 5th spot in the Rays rotation to open the season.

» Appeared in 17 games for the Bulls, making 15 starts...was 1-12 with an 8.37 ERA allowing 129 hits and 82 runs (73 earned) in 79.0 innings pitched, leading the team in losses.

» He was taken off the roster on November 20; released on November 22; then re-signed to minor league deal on December 22.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Appeared in 29 games in 2005, making 25 starts, going 5-12 with a 5.62 ERA.

» Four of his 5 wins came at home despite working to a higher ERA at Tropicana Field (5.87) than on the road (5.26).

» Tossed 157.0 innings in 2005...had just 105.2 total ML innings entering the season.

» Seven times he exited a game in line for the win, but ended up with a no-decision or loss after the bullpen could not hold the lead–the most among major league pitchers.

» Allowed a team-high 29 home runs (8th most in the AL), despite a month stay on the DL and a 31-inning homerless stretch.

» Allowed 17 long balls at Tropicana Field, tied for the third most among American League hurlers in their home parks.

» Was touched for a career-high 3 HR twice – Aug 5 at Los Angeles and Aug 22 vs.Cleveland... Five times he allowed 2 home runs in the same inning.

» Of his 109 runs allowed on season, 44 came via the home run (40%).

» Tied with Casey Fossum with a team-high 12 losses.

» Began the year at AAA Durham and made two starts before he was recalled Apr 15 afterJesus Colome was placed on the DL with shoulder tendinitis: 0-1, 6.30 ERA, 10-IP, 10-H,7-R/ER, 2-BB, 15-SO, 2-HR.

» Made two scoreless relief appearances (3.1 IP) with the Rays before replacing Rob Bell in the rotation.

» In his first start of the season Apr 23 vs. Boston, didn't get the decision in Rays 6-5 win butallowed 2 HR to David Ortiz including a 455 foot blast in the 3rd inning, the longest homerun to right field in Tropicana Field history.

» Earned his first win of the season May 3 (in his 3rd start) over New York, 11-4.

» Lost 9-6 to Bradenton native Joe Mays and the Twins on May 8, allowing a season-high 6 earned runs...was the first matchup of Bay Area natives to face each other in a game at Tropicana Field.

» Made a spot relief appearance June 3 at Seattle after starting pitcher Casey Fossum left thegame in the 4th with a tight left groin...tossed 5.0 shutout innings (3-H, 0-BB, 2-SO) for his lone road victory.

» Landed on the DL June 29 with tendinitis in his right index finger... missed nearly 3 months in 2004 with a similar injury.

» Was reinstated July 25 and started that night against the Red Sox... allowed just a run over 5.1 and left with a 2-1 lead over David Wells...Rays eventually won on Aubrey Huff's RBI double in the 10th.

» Fell victim to another St. Pete connection when he allowed a solo home run to the Angels' Casey Kotchman Aug 5 at LA...was the Seminole HS grad's first career HR...was taken deep again by Kotchman the next time he faced him on Aug. 27 at the Trop.

» Allowed a Terrence Long solo home run in the 6th inning of a 7-3 win over Kansas City on July 30 snapping a career-long 31-inning stretch in which Waechter did not allow a homer.

» Became the first Rays pitcher in 2005 to go 9 innings when he did so Aug 16 vs. NYY and Randy Johnson...was not credited with a CG, as the contest was locked 3-3 after 9...Rays won 4-3 in 11, on a bases loaded walk by Jonny Gomes...was Doug's second career 9.0 inning performance.

» Sep 13 at home against the Yankees, he joined Mark Hendrickson as the only starting pitchers in club history to leave a game without recording an out when Doug left after facing only 7 batters (H-5, R-5,ER-3,BB-1), a game the Rays would lose 17-3.

◆ Despite a 2004 season plagued by injuries, the 23-year-old placed among AL rookie leaders in wins with 5 (T-7th), starts with 14 (6th) and IP with 70.1 (9th).

» His .252 opponents batting average was bettered by only SEA Bobby Madritsch (.232) and OAK Justin Duchscherer (.241) among AL rooks with at least as many innings pitched ...and only TOR David Bush (.206) was tougher against righthanders than Doug's .216.

» Allowed 20 home runs in 70.1 innings...only 2 other pitchers in major league history have finished a season allowing 20+ home runs in 80 or fewer innings: Scott Klingenbeck (Balt-Minn, 1995, IP-79.2, HR-22) and Scott Allred (Minn, 1977, IP-77.1, HR-20).

» Rookie officially made the opening day roster March 30 in Tokyo, Japan, but was optioned to AAA Durham before game time to make room for outfielder Charles Gipson as Rays cut to 11 pitchers.

» Was slowed early in the season by a blister on the tip of his right middle finger and didn't make his season debut until April 15.

» Was initially recalled from Durham on April 24 when the Rays needed a 5th starter for thefirst time...started that day at Chicago and defeated Dan Wright 4-1 (6.0-IP, 4-H, 1-R/ER,0-BB, 5-SO)...lone run allowed was a 4th-inning solo shot by Frank Thomas.

» His next start, April 30 vs. Oakland, was his season debut at Tropicana Field and lost 4-2... was ejected with two outs in the 7th after he hit Bobby Crosby with a pitch...Crosbyfollowed Erubiel Durazo, who homered twice.

» June 2 at Minnesota he defeated fellow Tampa Bay area native Brad Radke, 4-2 (IP-7.0, H-3, R-2, ER-2, BB-2, SO-1, HR-1)...had a no-hitter for 5.2 innings before

» Lew Ford singled...Allowed 2-run HR to Corey Koskie in the 7th...Trever Miller and Danys Baez finished up fora combined 4-hitter.

» Remained in the rotation until being placed on the 15-day disabled list following his start on June 8 vs. San Francisco where he exited after 2.0 innings with a strained tendon in his right middle finger

» Was shelved two days later and missed the next 79 games...was 3-6 with a 4.97 ERA.

» Was leading all AL rookie pitchers in innings pitched at the time of his injury (50.2 IP).

» Allowed 16 home runs, which were tied for 3rd most in the AL at the time of his injury... including AAA, surrendered 31 gopher balls on the season in 99.2 total innings.

» Reinstated off the DL on Sep 6 and made 5 starts, going 2-1 but pitching to an 8.69 ERA (19.2-IP, 24-H, 19-ER).

» Won his last outing, Sep 29, 9-4 over Boston and Pedro Martinez at Tropicana Field (5.0-IP, 5-H, 3-R/ER, 3-BB, 5-SO).

» Fared better away from Tropicana Field (3-3, 4.82) than at home (2-4, 7.36).

◆ Began the 2003 season at Double-A and finished in the big leagues.

» Was promoted from AAA Durham on Aug. 25 and made 6 appearances (5 starts) for theRays over the final five weeks of the season.

» Rays went 3-2 in his 5 starts.

» Made his major league debut Aug. 27 at Seattle, entering the game in the 5th with the Rays holding a 5-3 lead...struck out his first batter faced, Edgar Martinez...worked a scoreless 2.1 (2-H, 2-BB, 3-SO) to earn the victory as Rays held on 8-4.

» TROPICANA FIELD DEBUT/FIRST MAJOR LEAGUE START: Sept. 3, 2003 vs. Seattle... hometown boy pitched a complete game 2-hit shutout in his first big league start for the7-0 win (walked 2, struck out 7, 100 pitches)...was his mom's birthday (Nancy Waechter).

» Following the game he was congratulated in the clubhouse by Hall of Fame pitcher and Tampa Bay resident Robin Roberts who was in attendance.

» He became the first Devil Ray and 9th American Leaguer since 1970 to throw a CG SHO in his first big league start...the others.

» He became just the 3rd major leaguer since 1970 to do it in his hometown, joining San Francisco Bay area native Mike Norris who did it for Oakland over CWS on April 10, 1975 and Los Angeles native Wayne Simpson who did it for Cincinnati in LA on April 9, 1970.

» He is only the second St. Petersburg native to throw a shutout in the major leagues, joining Jeff D'Amico, who has three.

» Became the 5th Ray to win his ML debut joining Rolando Arrojo (1998), Mickey Callaway (1999), Joe Kennedy (2001) and Seth McClung (2003).

» Went into the rotation and became the 14th pitcher to start a game in 2003 (team record) when he took the mound Sep 3 vs. Seattle at Tropicana Field...tossed a two-hit complete-game shutout in the 7-0 win (see above).

» Was one of 4 AL rookies to throw a CG SHO in 2003 and the 3rd Rays rookie ever to record a CG SHO joining Rolando Arrojo (2 in 1998) and Travis Harper (2000).

» Took his next turn Sept. 9 vs. Toronto and beat Cory Lidle 11-6 (6.0-IP, 8-H, 4-R/ER, 1-BB, 6-SO)...allowed 3 first-inning runs on a Josh Phelps HR, then settled down and allowed just one run (Orlando Hudson HR) over his remaining 5 frames.

» Became the first Devil Ray to earn a win in his first 3 major league appearances...Only major leaguer to do it in 2003...the last major leaguer to do it was the Dodgers' Kazuhisa Ishii in 2002 (won his first 6 games, all starts April-May, 2002)...he is the 2nd Devil Ray to win his first 2 major league starts joining Joe Kennedy who did it in 2001.

» Began his career with 11.1 scoreless innings, a club record to start a career.

» Lost two of his next three starts...suffered his first ML defeat Sept. 19 vs. the Yankees, despite allowing just a pair of runs over 7.0 innings (8-H, 2-BB, 4- SO)...allowed a leadoff HR to Alfonso Soriano...lost 2-1 to Jose Contreras.

» Was his second straight start against NY...Pitched to a respectable 3.00 ERA against the Bronx Bombers (12-IP, 4-ER).

» Dropped final start, 5-3, Sept. 24 at TOR (6.0-IP, 5-H, 5-R/ER, 4-BB, 6-SO).

» Went a combined 8-6 with a 3.81 ERA in 23 games, 22 starts for AA Orlando and AAA Durham.

» Opened the season with the O-Rays...promoted to AAA on June 20.

» Started the Hall of Fame Game vs. Philadelphia June 16 at Cooperstown (2.0-IP, 6-H, 5-R/ER, 1-BB, 1-SO, 2-HR, 1-WP).

◆ Led the Devil Rays organization with 155 strikeouts in 2002 and helped lead Class A Bakersfield's pitching staff to a 2002 minor league high 1,281 Ks...Was 3rd in the organization in innings pitched (162.2) and tied for 3rd in wins (10)...Was 10-9 with a 3.54 ERA in 162.2 innings and 28 starts combined at Class A Charleston and Bakersfield and AA Orlando... Promoted from Bakersfield to Orlando on August 9 with the 2nd best ERA in the California League...He won his first start at Orlando, 4-2, over Carolina (Rockies) with five shutout innings...Rated by Baseball America as the 4th-best pitching prospect behind Dewon Brazelton, Seth McClung and Jon Switzer.

AFTER THE ALL-STAR BREAK » The Rays were 22-51 (.301) after the All-Star Break, the lowest mark after the break by a major league club since 2004...in the last 25 years only two American League clubs have been worse after the break (see box)...Tampa Bay was just 3-31 on the road after the All-Star Break, matching the 1943 Philadelphia Athletics for the fewest post All-Star Game road wins since the first ASG in 1933.

BLOWN LEADS » The Rays lost an AL-record 60 times after having owned a lead this season...that's 15 more than the next closest team (CWS-45) and six shy of the major league record of 66 held by the 1998 Marlins...Rays also had 94 different blown leads, most in the majors...Rays actually led in 121 of their 162 games.

Lowest Winning Pct After The All-star Break (Since 1980)

	W-L	Pct
2004 Milwaukee	22-53	.293
2004 Arizona	20-53	.274
2003 Detroit	18-52	.257
1998 Florida	22-53	.293
1980 Seattle	24-58	.293
2006 TAMPA BAY	22-51	.301

ANGELS IN THE OUTFIELD » The Rays went with an outfield of Delmon Young, Rocco Baldelli and Carl Crawford –with an average age of 23- for the last six weeks of the season...Over that span no other AL outfield combination produced more hits (106) or stolen bases (20)...The Twins trio of Torii Hunter, Michael Cuddyer and Rondell White also combined for 106 hits.

INJURIES » The Rays placed 17 players on the disabled list, tied for 3rd most in the majors (see box) and lost 965 total days to the DL, 7th most in the majors and 218 more days than the major league average of 747 days per team...Due to injuries to Rocco Baldelli, Julio Lugo, Aubrey Huff and Jorge Cantu, it wasn't until June 7th in the 60th game of the season that the Rays had their projected starting lineup on the field at the same time...Due mainly to injuries and trades, the Rays had only one player (Carl Crawford) receive enough plate appearances to qualify for the batting title (502)...All other major league clubs had more than one qualifier...The Rays also had no pitcher qualify for the ERA title (Min. 162 IP), the only team with that distinction.

ROSTER/LINEUP » For most of the season, the Rays were the 3rd youngest team in the majors...Prior to September 1, the Rays had an average age of 27.71 behind the Marlins (26.63) and Indians (27.05)...The Rays used a whopping 145 different lineups...Only 5 players from the Rays opening day 25-man roster were active all season: RHP Shawn Camp, RHP Brian Meadows, C Josh Paul, OF Carl Crawford and OF Damon Hollins...Of that 25-man opening day roster, 9 were not in the organization by season's end...The Rays used 49 players, 3 shy of the club mark (52 in 2000) and tied for the 4th most in the AL...Tampa Bay's 25 different pitchers were a club record...Nine of those pitchers were rookies – 5 teams used more including Florida and Seattle with the most at 12...The Rays used 12 starting pitchers only slightly above the major league average of 10.5.

TRADES » The Rays made six trades during the season involving five players (DH-INF Aubrey Huff, SS Julio Lugo, LHP Mark Hendrickson, OF Joey Gathright and C Toby Hall) off the Opening Day roster...Five of those trades were made in a little over two months (June 20-Aug 24)...The Rays acquired 10 players in the six deals, five of whom played for the major league club during 2006.

April 28 » Acquired RHP Tyler Walker from the San Francisco Giants in exchange for RHP Carlos Hines

June 20 » Acquired LHP J.P. Howell from the Kansas City Royals in exchange for OF Joey Gathright and INF Fernando Cortez.

June 27 » Acquired RHP Jae Seo, C Dioner Navarro, and a player to be named later (OF Justin Ruggiano-July 19) from the Los Angeles Dodgers in exchange for C Toby Hall, LHP Mark Hendrickson, and cash considerations.

July 12 » Acquired RHP Mitch Talbot and SS Ben Zobrist from the Houston Astros in exchange for 3B Aubrey Huff and cash.

July 31 » Acquired INF Joel Guzman and OF Sergio Pedroza from the Los Angeles Dodgers in exchange for SS Julio Lugo.

Aug. 24 » Acquired RHP Evan Meek and a player to be named later (RHP Dale Thayer-Sep 15) from the San Diego Padres in exchange for OF Russell Branyan.

RAYS FINISH WITH A 20% INCREASE AT THE TROP » The Rays drew over 230,000 more fans in 2006 than in 2005 (1,372,193 to 1,141,669) an increase of 20.0%, 3rd highest increase behind the Tigers (28.2%) and White Sox (26.2%) ... it's their highest attendance total in six years - since the 2000 season (1,549,412)...In addition, more than 50,000 fans visited the Ted Williams Museum and approximately 31,000 fans visited the Rays Touch Tank, two attractions added to Tropicana Field in 2006.

HOME RUNS » The Rays set a club record with 190 home runs - 28 more than they have ever hit - yet scored a major league low 689 runs...No team has ever hit that many home runs and finished last in the majors in runs scored...The previous mark belonged to the 1957 Kansas City A's who led the AL with 166 homers yet scored a major league low 563 runs...The Rays became just the 9th team all-time with 10 different players with 10+ home runs...The Rays allowed only 180 homers, their fewest since 1999...It was the first time in club history the Rays have out-homered their opposition.

SPEED AND POWER » While the Rays finished tied for last in the majors in batting (.255) with Houston, only 11 teams in major league history matched the Rays numbers for steals (134) and home runs (190) in one season and six of those teams advanced to postseason.

MORE BATTING » The Rays batted a major league low .240 with runners in scoring position, their lowest since 1998 when they batted only .230...Tampa Bay hit only .218 on the road with runners in scoring position...They also batted only .236 (150-636) with runners in scoring position and 2 outs (23rd in the majors), .209 (37-177) with men on third (29th in the majors) and .273 (24-88) with the bases loaded (22nd in the majors)...The Rays' .314 on-base pct. was the lowest in the majors, matched the franchise low for one season and was the lowest by an American League club since 2003 (Detroit, .300)... Rays DH's batted a league low .224, just two points better than the club's all-time low of .222 in 2004...That, despite Greg Norton's .327 (34-104) average, 2nd best among DH's with 100 or more plate appearances behind Vladimir Guerrero (.363).

PITCHING » The Rays used 25 pitchers, a club record, 15 of whom made their Rays debut... While the Rays team ERA actually decreased from 2005 (5.39 to 4.97), the Rays finished 27th in the majors overall...The Rays bullpen was 27th in the majors with a 4.98 ERA...Rays starters won only 36 games despite working to a lower ERA (4.96) than the Red Sox (5.00) whose starters won 61 games...Lefthander Scott Kazmir won 10 of 24 starts while the rest of the staff won only 26 of 138 starts...Three different Rays earned six saves...The Rays bullpen allowed 15.01 base runners per 9 innings and 10.55 hits per 9, both the worst ratio in the majors and allowed a major league-worst 113 of 283 (40%) inherited base runners to score...On the road, the Rays allowed nearly half of their inherited runners to score (67 of 144)...The Rays walked 165 more batters than they received, the 2nd worst ratio in the majors ahead of only the Cubs (292)...The Rays were out-hit by the opposition .286 to .255, the 31 point difference was the biggest in the majors...Rays starters won only 24 of 66 quality starts...Rays starters struck out 10 or more batters 7 times in 2006...it had only been done 10 times total entering the season...the staff's 979 K's were their most since 2001 (1,030).

DEFENSE » On September 2 vs. Seattle, the Rays turned the second triple play in club history and the first 2-6-2 in major league history... Shortstop Ben Zobrist and catcher Dioner Navarro collaborated on the never before seen gem...The Rays 116 errors were 3rd highest in the AL and led to 74 unearned runs, 4th highest in the AL behind CLE (84), LAA (80) and KC (75)...The Rays had 11 games with 3 or more errors...The left side of the Rays infield made a combined 55 errors (3B-27, SS-28), tied with Toronto for the most in the AL...Rays outfielders made 21 errors, 2nd most in the AL behind the Angels (23).

Devil Rays Enter Partnership With International Plaza And Bay Street

In March, the Rays and Tampa's International Plaza and Bay Street agreed to a unique, multi-year sponsorship and marketing partnership making the Rays the exclusive sports team partner of International Plaza and Bay Street. The centerpiece of the agreement is the Rays sponsorship of a new baseball- themed children's play area at International Plaza integrating Looney Tunes characters and the Devil Rays.

The innovative indoor playscapes allow kids to rub elbows with three dimensional Looney Tunes favorites, from Bugs Bunny and Daffy Duck to Pepe Le Pew and the Tasmanian Devil. The area will have a distinct Devil Rays design as well and is expected to open March 1.

HISTORIC BOX SCORES

RAYS INAUGURAL GAME - MARCH 31, 1998 » St. Petersburg, FL – Hall of Famers Ted Williams, Stan Musial, Al Lopez and Monte Irvin threw out the ceremonial first pitches and minutes later, at 5:08 p.m. on March 31, 1998, ML baseball was born in Tampa Bay as Wilson Alvarez delivered a ball to Detroit's leadoff hitter Brian Hunter. Alvarez retired the Tigers 1-2-3 in the first inning, then 9 of the next 13 batters hit safely. The Rays fell behind 11-0 in the 5th inning before Wade Boggs hit a 2-run homer off Justin Thompson in the 6th to account for the first two runs in Rays' history. Tampa Bay rallied for four runs in the 9th and left the tying run in the on-deck circle when Paul Sorrento struck out to end the game. Every starter on both sides hit safely except Rays' LF Mike Kelly. Tampa native Luis Gonzalez hit the first home run at Tropicana Field and added a single and double.

RAYS FIRST WIN - APRIL 1, 1998 » St. Petersburg, FL – April First, but it was no joke, the Rays won their first game. In game #2 of the season opening series, Tampa Bay rallied from a 3-0, first inning deficit and banged out 18 hits on their way to an 11-8 victory. Rookie Rolando Arrojo earned the win in his ML debut and Fred McGriff had three run scoring hits including a 2-run single in the Rays' decisive 4-run 8th inning. The Rays batted around in the 4th and 8th innings (they batted around 4 times in the 3-game series). Two-out, RBI singles by Wade Boggs and McGriff were the big hits in the 4th inning in which the Rays entered trailing 3-2. The Rays got a hit in every inning except the 5th.

RAYS IN 2005

» The Rays fashioned a 39-34 (.534) record after the All-Star Break, an improvement of 219 pct. points over their mark before the All-Star Break (28-61, .315)...That's the 7th greatest All-Star Break turnaround by a major league team since the first All-Star Break in 1933 (excluding abbreviated seasons)...It is also the A.L.'s 4th best turnaround behind the 1935 St. Louis Browns (+.279), 2001 Oakland A's (+.267) and the 1944 Detroit Tigers (+.222).

» During the second half, the Rays played 16 series against teams that were in contention for a playoff spot and won 9 of those series, going 27-24.

» The Rays finished with a .274 team batting average tying their best ever and 3rd best in the majors behind the Red Sox (.281) and Yankees (.276).

RAYS IN 2004

» On June 26, the Rays became the first team in history to climb over .500 after being 18 or more games under .500...The Rays were 10-28 on May 19, but went 26-7 in their next 33 games to get to 36-35...They reached a season-high 2 games over .500 on July 3 at 40-38.

» Thru the first 7 weeks of the season (thru May 19), the Rays had the worst record in the majors (10-28), over the next 7 weeks (May 20-July 7), they had the best record at 32-13 ...They went 28-50 the rest of the way.

» The Rays, who won 12 consecutive games, June 9-22, tied with Houston for the longest win streak in the majors, also lost 12 straight, Aug 27-Sep 10, becoming only the 2nd team in major league history to win 12+ in a row and lose 12+ in a row in the same season...The 1987 Milwaukee Brewers also did it.

RAYS IN 2003

» Tampa native Lou Piniella returned home and in his first year as Rays manager he led the club to its greatest improvement over a previous year (55 wins to 63).

» Rays were just 7 games under .500 after the All-Star Break (31-38, .449) compared to 28 games under in the season's first half (32-60, .348).

» Rays played 90 games decided by one or two runs (39-51), most by a major league team since 1993...Rays also played in an AL-high 51 one-run games (23-28), 6 more than any other AL club and one shy of the club mark (52 in 2000, 26-26).

» Rays finished with 142 stolen bases, 13 more than any other AL club...Only Florida stole more with 150...The Rays also finished with the 2nd best success rate in the majors (77.1%) behind Oakland (77.4%)

» Rays used 51 players on the season, one shy of the club record (2000)...15 of those were rookies...For most of the season, and for the 2nd straight year, the Rays were the youngest team in the majors (26.85 avg. age).

RAYS IN 2001

» The Rays became the first AL team to lose 100 games since the 1996 Detroit Tigers, but went 24-23 starting August 10. During that stretch, the Rays most often used starting lineup had an average age of 25 years: Steve Cox (1B), Brent Abernathy (2B), Chris Gomez (SS), Jared Sandberg (3B), Jason Tyner (LF), Randy Winn (CF), Ben Grieve (RF) and Toby Hall (C). And the starting rotation was Joe Kennedy (22), Nick Bierbrodt (23), Tanyon Sturtze (30), Ryan Rupe (26) and Paul Wilson (28).

» The Rays became just the 2nd major league team to throw just one complete game in a season, joining the 1995 Colorado Rockies.

» With the trades of Fred McGriff, Mike DiFelice and Albie Lopez, the Rays became the youngest team in the majors in late July. The Rays played a club record 16 rookies.

RAYS IN 2000

» Due to injuries, the Rays had employed 38 players by May 28...Thru the team's first 79 games, the Rays had lost Jose Canseco (heel), Vinny Castilla (rib, back), Greg Vaughn (hamstring) and Gerald Williams (hip) for a combined total of 84 days due to injury... Castilla, Vaughn and Canseco were all on the DL at the same time June 18 thru July 3. The Rays had Jose Canseco-Fred McGriff-Greg Vaughn-Vinny Castilla in the lineup together for only 38 of 109 games before Canseco was claimed by the Yankees on August 7.

» The Rays had 47 games decided in the last inning (they were 23-24) most in the majors...Kansas City was 2nd with 45 (23-22).

» The Rays had 20 games decided in walk-off fashion, tied with Kansas City and Milwaukee for 2nd most in the majors behind Los Angeles (21). The Rays were tied for 3rd in the majors and 2nd in the AL in walk-off wins with 11.

RAYS IN 1999

» The Devil Rays suffered the most injuries in the major leagues in 1999. The Rays put 18 different players on the disabled list (22 total moves to the DL) after Opening Day. That number doesn't include INF Aaron Ledesma who dislocated his left thumb in the final spring training game and was out until May 12, or Randy Winn who was out from Sept 5 to Oct 2 with a sprained right ankle.

» All told, the 22 in-season moves accounted for 863 days on the DL. Fifteen of the Rays' 25-man Opening Day roster spent time on the disabled list including 8 of the 11 pitchers and four of the five pitchers in the club's season-opening rotation. Of the 13 pitchers who started a game for the Rays in 1999, eight spent time on the DL.

» On May 22, the Rays were 22-20, 2nd best record ever by a 2nd year expansion team, but an injury ridden, 16-day span, May 12-28, left the Rays reeling.

RAYS IN 1998

» The Rays finished in the top five in the American League in fielding pct. (2nd) and ERA (4th)...Only one other expansion team has ever finished in the top five in its league in either pitching OR fielding. Arizona finished 3rd in the NL in fielding this season.

» The Rays were the first expansion team ever to go four games over .500 at any point in the season when they were 10-6 on April 19...Among the four major sports (MLB, NFL, NHL, NBA) only two expansion teams reached four games over .500 at any point in their season, both NHL teams in 1967: Philadelphia Flyers (15-9-5) and the Los Angeles Kings (10-6-3).

» The Rays spent a total of 22 days above .500. Only one expansion team had more: 1969 KC Royals with 28.

» The Rays' 12 wins in April were the most ever by a first-year expansion team.

» The Rays won nine straight games against defending AL Division Champs (5-Bal., 2-Cle. and 2-Sea.)

SEPTEMBER 26, 1995

The Devil Rays sign their first player - pitcher Adam Sisk, a 6-4 righthander from Edison Community College in Fort Myers, Florida.

MAY 7, 1996

The Devil Rays announce they will become the first team in the "modern era" to host spring training in their home city in 1998. The National League's St. Louis Cardinals will leave after training in St. Petersburg since 1946.

JUNE 3, 1996

Devil Rays begin first mini-camp as 24 players, all free agents signed before the June draft, assemble at Huggins-Stengel complex in St. Petersburg under the watchful eye of the Rays' coaching staff directed by Field Coordinator Tom Foley.

JUNE 4, 1996

Outfielder-first baseman Paul Wilder becomes the Rays' first ever draft pick as the team participates in its first free agent amateur draft. Devil Rays Managing Partner Vince Naimoli announces the selection while in the team's "war room" at the Stouffer-Vinoy Resort in St. Petersburg. The Rays eventually select 97 players, fifth highest total ever taken in the 32-year history of the June draft.

JUNE 18, 1996

The first game involving Devil Rays players is held at Skylands Park in Augusta, NJ, where the visiting Hudson Valley Renegades, the Rays' cooperative team in the New York-Penn League with the Texas Rangers, face the New Jersey Cardinals. Catcher Chris Anderson, the Devil Rays' 66th round draft choice from Southeast Oklahoma State University, delivers an RBI single in the second inning for the first hit ever by a Devil Rays player. The Renegades lose 7-6 in 10 innings.

JUNE 19, 1996

The First Devil Rays Game. A Gulf Coast League record crowd of 7,582 are on hand at Al Lang Stadium as the GCL Devil Rays host their Yankee counterparts. A 10-1 loss can't dim the festive atmosphere nor the unbridled affection that is showered down on the young Rays. The game was carried live by News Radio 970 WFLA and SportsChannel Florida. Eighteen-year old right-hander Pablo Oretga throws the first Devil Rays pitch (a ball).

JUNE 19, 1996

RAYS VS. ORIOLES

MAY 18, 1998 » The Rays beat the Orioles at Camden Yards, 6-3, and complete a 4-game sweep. No first-year expansion team had ever swept a 4-game series from a reigning division champion in their own ballpark.

MAY 11, 2002 » Randy Winn hits a 3-run "walk-off" homer in the 9th inning off Orioles closer Jorge Julio to snap the Rays 15-game losing streak. It was the longest losing streak of all-time to be ended with a "walk-off" home run.

APRIL 9, 2003 » The Rays overcome deficits of 4-0 and 7-4 and defeat Baltimore 10-7. It was the second time in club history that the Rays have come back from a four-run deficit and a three-run deficit in the same game. Marlon Anderson was a big contributer, tying a career-high by driving in four runs.

APRIL 6, 2006 » Mark Hendrickson hurls a 3-hit complete game shutout as the Rays beat the Orioles 2-0 in Baltimore for Manager Joe Maddon's first victory as the Rays skipper.

JULY 22, 2006 » The Rays and Baltimore both put up an inning with at least 9 runs scored, the first time that has happened in 73 years (since a June 3, 1933 contest between the Yankees and Athletics). After the Rays 10-run 5th, which included two Julio Lugo home runs, the Orioles would score 9 runs in the 7th, slicing the Rays lead to 13-12. Tampa Bay hangs on to win when closer Brian Meadows worked himself out of a bases loaded with no outs situation in the 8th.

RAYS VS. RED SOX

MARCH 31, 2003 » The Rays win in dramatic fashion, coming back from a 4-0 deficit to eventually win 6-4 on a Carl Crawford 3-run "walk-off" homer off Boston's Chad Fox with two outs in the ninth inning to give the Rays their fourth straight Opening Day victory, and Lou Piniella a victory in his first game as Rays manager.

APRIL 1, 2003 » The Rays lose a 16-inning affair with the Red Sox, their longest ever game (by innings). Kevin Millar won it for the Sox with a pinch-hit home run off Jorge Sosa in the top of the 16th. Rays set a club record by leaving 21 men on base, including the potential game-winning run in scoring position in six straight innings.

APRIL 17, 2003 » The game time temperature in Boston was 33 degrees, the coldest in Devil Rays history. The bats were cold as well, mustering only 4 hits against Pedro Martinez and Mike Timlin as the Rays lost their 500th game in team history.

APRIL 22, 2005 » The Rays allow Boston to score twice in the top of the 9th inning to tie the game at 4-4, but on the first pitch he sees in the bottom of the inning pinch-hitter Eduardo Perez blasts an Alan Embree offering over Tropicana Field's left field wall to win the game 5-4. It is only the second Rays pinch-hit "walk-off" home run, coming exactly 5 years after the first.

APRIL 24, 2005 » Tension boils over at Tropicana Field between the Rays and Boston. In the final game of a 3-game series seven batters get beaned leading to two bench-clearing incidents. Six Rays and Red Sox were ejected from the contest. The Rays also allow a Jay Payton grand slam in the loss and become the first team in major league history to allow five grand slams in April.

RAYS VS. ANGELS

APRIL 19, 1998 » Behind rookie Rolando Arrojo the Rays defeat the Angels 6-0 and go to 10-6 on the season to become the only major league expansion team ever to be four games over .500 at any point in their inaugural season.

MAY 23, 1999 » Rookie Ryan Rupe throws what remains perhaps the best start in Rays history and didn't get a decision in a game the Rays lost 4-0 in 10 innings. Rupe went 9 innings and faced 28 batters allowing only two base runners and one hit: a bloop single to Darin Erstad. The Angels scored 4 times in the top of the 10th inning off Roberto Hernandez to win.

MAY 30, 2003 » Rays broadcaster Dewayne Staats calls his 4,000th career game against the Angels and the Rays Dewon Brazelton wins his first big league game.

AUGUST 17, 2004 » BJ Upton belts his first major league home run becoming the first teenager to hit a home run since the Dodgers' Adrian Beltre in 1999...Upton also doubles as Rays win 8-3, snapping a 6-game losing streak.

 Tokyo, Japan*

RAYS VS. YANKEES

MAY 11, 2000 » Steve Trachsel becomes the first pitcher ever to win 1-0 games at Yankee Stadium and Fenway Park in the same season and he did it in back-to-back starts. On May 6 he defeated Pedro Martinez in a complete game win and five days later he beat the Yankees' Orlando Hernandez with 7 shutout innings. He was also the pitcher in 25 years (since Bert Blyleven in 1976) to win back-to-back 1-0 games.

JUNE 18, 2003 » The Rays and Yankees play the longest 1-0 game in Yankee Stadium in 30 years when they battle into the 12th inning before the Yankees put up the game's only run on a RBI single by Alfonso Soriano off Lance Carter. Through seven innings of play Rays starter Victor Zambrano had allowed one hit and Yankees starter Roger Clemens had a no-hitter.

MARCH 30, 2004 » Rays defeat the Yankees 8-3 on Opening Day in Tokyo, Japan, their fifth straight victory on Opening Day. The game marked the second time that Major League Baseball has played regular season games in Japan. Victor Zambrano earns the victory, becoming the Rays 6th different Opening Day starter, as well as the all-time leader in wins with 27.

APRIL 18, 2005 » The Yankees score 13 runs in the 2nd inning, the most they have ever scored in an inning at Yankee Stadium (amazingly they do it again two months later) en route to a 19-8 win. Every Yankee had a hit and scored a run in the inning. Aubrey Huff hit his 100th career home run later in the ballgame, surpassing Fred McGriff as the franchise's all-time home run leader.

RAYS VS. ATHLETICS

SEPTEMBER 11, 1999 » In his 3rd ML game, Dan Wheeler strikes out 12 A's in 6 innings, still a Rays record.

SEPTEMBER 17, 2000 » Rays-A's game at Tropicana Field is postponed due to Hurricane Gordon. It was the first time a game had been postponed due to the weather in an indoor stadium since Apr 14, 1983 when the roof of the Metrodome collapsed under the weight of heavy snow forcing the cancellation of the Twins-Angels game.

AUGUST 31, 2003 » Rays right-hander Jeremi Gonzalez throws a complete game in a 4-3 loss at Oakland and is ejected from the dugout with the Rays batting in the 9th inning. He becomes the first pitcher in major league history to throw a complete game and get ejected from the game.

SEPTEMBER 7, 2003 » The Rays beat 2002 Cy Young winner Barry Zito for the second time in 2003 in a game that featured the second matchup in ML history of starting pitchers whose last name began with the letter "Z". Victor Zambrano won his 10th game as the Rays snap a string of 15 straight losing series to the A's. The first "Z" matchup occured in 1925 (Wash.'s Tom Zachary vs. Boston's Paul Zahniser).

MAY 25, 2005 » The Rays set a club record for most runs in the first inning when they score 10 times. It was the 2nd biggest inning in club history (TB scored 11 in the 8th inning May 28, 2000 vs. Seattle). Rays also set a club record for most extra base hits in an inning (6).

RAYS VS. MARINERS

MAY 28, 2000 » M's and Rays are tied 3-3 heading into the 8th before the Rays scored 11 runs on 10 hits in the bottom of the 8th. Jose Guillen had a pair of doubles in the Rays big inning.

AUGUST 29, 2001 » Rule 10:10 (a) comes into play for the only time in a Rays game as Seattle's Tom Lampkin passes teammate David Bell on the base paths and is called out after the M's catcher had singled. Seattle won anyway, 5-2 as Brett Boone hits home run #30, only the 4th AL second basemen to reach that plateau.

SEPTEMBER 3, 2003 » Doug Waechter throws a complete game shutout in his first major league start and the Rays won 7-0 at Tropicana Field.

AUGUST 6, 2004 » Carl Crawford scores the game-winning run in the bottom of the 10th in one of the strangest endings to a game in ML history. CC was on third with one out when Tino Martinez flied out to Raul Ibanez in shallow left field. Crawford bluffed a start home, but returned to third. After Ibanez threw the ball back into the infield, 3B umpire Paul Emmel ruled that SS Jose Lopez attempted to block Crawford's view of Ibanez making the catch. Crawford was awarded home on the obstruction call and Lopez was charged with an error as the Rays won, 2-1 in "walk-off" fashion.

Rays To Steal Home

RAYS VS. RANGERS

SEPTEMBER 18, 1999 » The Rays' thirty-five year old rookie reliever Jim Morris makes his major league debut for the Rays in his home state of Texas and the first batter he faces, Ranger shortstop Royce Clayton, strikes out on four pitches several of which reached 96 miles per hour. Morris, whose life story was later made in to Disney's movie "The Rookie", was the majors' oldest rookie since Minnesota's Minnie Mendoza in 1970.

JUNE 25, 2000 » Ivan Rodriguez' 27-game hitting streak against the Rays comes to an end, but his teammates pound out 14 hits for a 9-5 win.

JULY 19, 2003 » Rays Victor Zambrano tied a major league record when he hit four batters (in only 5 innings) at Tropicana Field.

MAY 4, 2004 » Geoff Blum becomes the first Ray to hit home runs from both sides of the plate in the same game and the Rays hit 5 home runs – all solo- to win at Texas 5-4.

Most Frequently Worn Number

The uniform number most frequently worn by a Devil Ray is number 36. It has been worn by nine different players: Terrell Wade (1998), Matt Ruebel (1998), Mark Guthrie (2000), Tony Fiore (2000-01), Jorge Sosa (2002-04), Luis de los Santos (2002), Jeff Liefer (2003), Tim Laker (2005) and Edwin Jackson (2006).

RAYS VS. BLUE JAYS

SEPTEMBER 23, 2000 » Fred McGriff joins Frank Robinson as the second player ever to collect 200 homers in both the American League and the National League when he homered off Roy Halladay in the first inning. Fellow Tampa native Ozzie Timmons also homered that game off Halladay putting the Rays up 6-0, but the bullpen failed and the Rays fell, 7-6.

SEPTEMBER 22, 2003 » In perhaps the finest moment of his career Rob Bell takes a no-hitter into the 7th inning before Vernon Wells broke it up with a leadoff double. Bell went on to record the 5-2 win over 22-game winner Roy Halladay at SkyDome.

JUNE 24, 2004 » The Rays pound Toronto 19-13 setting team records for runs (19), hits (24), total bases (37) and walks (11-tied). Julio Lugo becomes the first Ray to collect five hits in a game. Carl Crawford, Geoff Blum, and Jose Cruz Jr. all homer. The home run for Cruz is the 165th in his career, matching his father Jose's career total.

JUNE 28, 2005 » With Eric Munson on 3rd base and the scored tied with one out in the 10th inning, Toronto manager John Gibbons substitutes Gabe Gross for Frank Catalanotto in leftfield. The very next batter, Julio Lugo, hits a fly ball to Gross, who promptly guns down Munson, who was attempting to tag up and score. The Blue Jays would score two runs the next inning and win 3-1.

MAY 24, 2006 » Carl Crawford has a banner night as he goes 5-for-5 with 5 runs scored, 4 stolen bases, and a home run as the Rays defeat Toronto 10-8. He set the team record for runs and tied the club record for hits and stolen bases.

2006 SEASON

Results: 64-78, 2nd, South Division

The Bulls finished the 2006 campaign in second place in the International League's Southern Division and was named Baseball America's Bob Freitas Award winner which recognizes the outstanding minor league operations at each level of minor league baseball.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR » KEVIN WITT

Anchored the Bulls offense earning Durham's Player of the Year honors as well as the International League MVP and the TOPPS International League Player of the Year for his All-Star season. Witt led all minor leaguers with 36 home runs setting a Rays minor league record that had stood since 1998 (Scott McClain-34). He also led the IL with 99 RBIs, 66 extra-base hits, a .577 slugging percentage, was 2nd in the league in runs scored (82) and was tied for 4th with 141 hits earning a September call-up to the Rays.

PITCHER OF THE YEAR » JUAN SALAS

Worked to a 1.57 ERA in 27 outings with the Bulls after his promotion from Double-A Montgomery and was perfect in three save opportunities as opponents at the Triple-A level hit just .149 off him. He began the year with a streak of 47.1 innings without allowing an earned run and combined with Jason Hammel on a no-hitter July 16 against Columbus (NYY), the first in Bulls Triple-A history.

Durham Bulls - Did You Know?

Legend has it that the 'bullpen' originated from the area of shaded grass beyond the outfield wall where pitchers warmed up. The cooler ground was created by the large bull-shaped billboards for Bull Durham Tobacco, a subsidiary of American Tobacco, and the original owner of the Durham Bulls.

2006 SEASON

Results: 77-62, Southern League Champions

The Biscuits recorded their first Southern League Championship completing the postseason 6-1. It was the sixth overall championship by a Tampa Bay affiliate, first since Durham won the International League title in 2003 and the second by a AA affiliate (Orlando-1999). It was the city of Montgomery's 6th championship but first title since 1977 when the Rebels won the SL. The club was awarded Baseball America's Double-A Team of the Year as this season marked the 3rd straight year the Biscuits' record has improved since becoming a Rays affiliate.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR » ELLIOT JOHNSON

Batted .281 with a team-high 139 hits, 5th most in the Southern League, and 10 triples, 2nd most in the league in his first full season at the Double-A level. The switch-hitter was one of only six minor leaguers to record double digits in doubles (21), triples (10) and homers (15). Johnson, the starting second baseman on the South Division's midseason All-Star team, also excelled in the field committing the second fewest errors (13) among SL second basemen and finished third among league second basemen with a .976 fielding percentage. Baseball America tabbed him as the starting second baseman on their Double-A All-Star team.

PITCHER OF THE YEAR » ANDY SONNANSTINE

Was 15-8 with a staff-best 2.67 ERA and a team-high 153 strikeouts setting a Rays minor league record for wins in a single season and tied for most wins in all of Double-A. His team-high 185.2 innings pitched were the second-most among all minor league pitchers and the second-highest total ever by a Rays minor leaguer behind only Pablo Ortega's 188.2 IP in 1997. The Southern League tabbed him as the league's top right-handed pitcher in 2006 and Baseball America's Best Tools Survey awarded him Best Control in the Southern League.

Montgomery Biscuits - Did You Know?

The Biscuits are the only team in affiliated Minor League Baseball in the country to be named after a prepared food. The Cedar Rapids Kernels (Class A - Midwest League) are named after corn, while the Independent Kansas City T-Bonz (Central League) are named for steak.

Devil Rays And The Rule V Draft

Minor league players who have played three seasons (if they were signed when they were 20) or four seasons (if they were signed when they were 19) that are not on a 40-man major league roster, are eligible to be drafted by other major league clubs in the Rule V Draft held each year at baseball's winter meetings. When a player is drafted, he must remain on the 40-man roster of the team that selects him until the season ends and must spend at last 90 days on the 25-man roster before he can be optioned to the minors without going through waivers. The team from which he as drafted can reclaim him for half of the draft price ($50,000) if he is placed on waivers.

The Devil Rays have been active in the Rule Draft in seven of the eight drafts during their existence. In 2002, the Rays became the first team since the 1968 Chicago Cubs to have three Rule 5 players on their opening day roster and the first team since the 1981 Minnesota Twins to have three rule 5 players on their roster at any given time during the season. Below are the Rays Rule V players.

2006 SEASON

Results: 75-65, 1st, North Division (at Visalia)

The Oaks finished the season 75-65, winning the North Division in the second half and advancing to the postseason where they made it all the way to the California League Championship Series, falling short against Inland Empire in five games. The Oaks relied on their production at the plate where they batted .289, 2nd in the league, and belted 135 home runs, also 2nd most in the CL.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR » FERNANDO PEREZ

Batted a career-high .307 for Visalia with 19 doubles, nine triples, four home runs and 56 RBI. The Oaks outfielder also scored 123 runs to lead all of minor league baseball and crush the previous Rays record of 107 set by Steve Cox in 1999. In addition, Perez's 168 hits topped all Rays minor leaguers and were the fifth most in the minor leagues. His triples were tied for tops in the California League while his 33 stolen bases and .398 on-base percentage were both fourth best in the league. Baseball America's Best Tools survey touted him as the California League's Best Defensive Outfielder.

PITCHER OF THE YEAR » JAMES HOUSER

Was 12-4 with a 4.41 ERA for the Oaks tying for the California League lead in wins. The Sarasota native's ERA placed 8th best in the league as he set career bests in nearly every category this season striking out a team-high 137 batters in 151.0 innings pitched. Despite beginning the season 1-4 in his first seven starts, Houser went on to win his final 11 decisions not losing a game after May 12. Was the longest winning streak by a single-A pitcher and tied for longest by a lefty this season. Only Jason Hirsh (12-Round Rock) and Jason Windsor (12-Sacramento) had longer win streaks among minor leaguers.

Vero Beach Devil Rays - Did You Know?

Holman Stadium is the only minor league stadium to boast a facility without any covered dugouts. The players sit on aluminum benches in the dugout area. The unique feature makes Holman Stadium one of the most fan-friendly complexes in all of baseball.

Rays Baseball Foundation Receives Grant For Landscaping Project At Tropicana Field

On February 16, 2007, The Rays Baseball Foundation, the charitable arm of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, was awarded a grant from the Pinellas County Environmental Fund (PCEF) for a landscaping project to include the planting of nearly 50 different species of native vegetation along the exterior of Tropicana Field. The project will focus on thearea along Booker Creek, a vital tributary to three counties in the Tampa Bay region that winds near the rotunda entrance on the east side of Tropicana Field.

PCEF awards grants for projects that will implement the on-the-ground habitat conservation recommendations that have been developed through the Tampa Bay Estuary Program and its related partnerships. The project was designed by Phil Graham and Brian Triska of Phil Graham Studio to educate visitors about natural ecosystems and water conservation through interactive signage and displays.

Forty-five different kinds of indigenous plants will account for nearly 200 native trees and over 5,000 shrubs and groundcover.

Informational signs educating guests on the various types of vegetation featured in the project are located throughout the area and the PCEF will have a marketing presence inside Tropicana Field to educate fans on environmental issues such as eliminating pollution and understanding Florida-friendly landscaping

The PCEF is a unique partnership between the Pinellas County Board of County Commissioners, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), and the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation. These three groups share the common goals of actively pursuing the protection, restoration, and enhancement of fish and wildlife habitat around Tampa Bay. PCEF is funded by the Pinellas County Board of County Commissioners, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, and corporate and individual sponsors. The National Fish and Wildlife Foundation administers all grant awards on behalf of PCEF.

2006 SEASON

Results: 62-77, 6th, Eastern Division (at Southwest Michigan)

The Southwest Michigan Devil Rays finished their season 62-77, snapping a minor league-best nine straight winning seasons for the franchise. The pitching staff recorded a Midwest League-most 1,189 strikeouts.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR » J.T. HALL

Led the club with 30 doubles, 8 home runs, 62 RBI and a .421 slugging percentage.

PITCHER OF THE YEAR » JAKE MCGEE

Struck out an organization-most 171 batters, three K's shy of the Rays minor league single-season record. His strikeout total led the Midwest League, set a Southwest Michigan franchise record, was tied for eighth most among all minor leaguers (fifth among lefties) and ranked fourth among all Single-A pitchers.

Columbus Catfish - Did You Know?

Originally constructed in 1906, Golden Park was completely renovated to host the first-ever Olympic Women's Fast-Pitch Softball event during the 1996 Summer Games in Atlanta. Team USA took home the gold medal defeating China in the championship game.

2006 SEASON

Results: 31-43, 4th, McNamara Division

The Hudson Valley Renegades, in their 11th season as a Rays affiliate, finished the season 31-43 for the second straight year placing fifth in the New York-Penn League's McNamara Division. The club was awarded the league's John H. Johnson President's Trophy as the club that exemplifies the standards of the complete baseball franchise.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR » RYAN ROYSTER

Batted .247 in 63 games with 15 doubles, 8 home runs and 29 RBI earning a spot on the New York-Penn League All-Star team. The outfielder's homers led the team and were tied for tops in the league while his RBI total was tied for most on the team. He collected a career-high and team-high 11-game hitting streak from Aug 2-12 batting .310 (13-for-42) over the stretch.

PITCHER OF THE YEAR » JEREMY HELLICKSON

Led the Rays organization with a 2.43 ERA in his first full professional season limiting opponents to three runs or less in each of his 14 starts and holding the opposition to a team-low .193 batting average. He garnered NYPL All-Star recognition striking out a league-most 96 batters while walking only 16 in 77.1 innings pitched. His 10.90 K/9 IP ratio led all short-season pitchers while his strikeout total was second most. Hellickson was named a starting pitcher on Baseball America's short-season All-Star squad.

JEFF DILL
Trainer

Jeff begins his first season in the Rays organization as trainer with the Renegades. A native of Rochester, NY, he played baseball at Ithaca College, graduating in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in Athletic Training and Exercise Science. He returned to Rochester upon graduation serving as the strength and conditioning coach for the Triple-A Red Wings (Twins) the last two seasons. Jeff is single and resides in Rochester.

Erik Walker Community Champion Award

The newly created annual award will recognize a Devil Rays minor league player who exemplifies teamwork, sportsmanship and community involvement, attributes exhibited by Rays minor league pitcher Erik Walker who died tragically in October in a canoeing accident.

The Devil Rays will present the winner with a commemorative plaque at the season-ending minor league award ceremony at Tropicana Field in September and award a check for $2,500 in the winner's name to the charity of his choice. Nominees should embody the qualities of Erik Walker who was recognized as someone who was a great teammate, a caring person and who enriched the lives of people in need and inspired others to do the same.

2006 SEASON

Results: 28-36, 5th, East Division

The Princeton Rays completed the 2006 season with a record of 28-36, finishing in fifth place in the Appalachian League's Eastern Division for the fifth time in the last six years. The P-Rays were aggressive on the basepaths, stealing a league-high 106 bases, nearly 30 more then the next team. On the mound, P-Rays pitchers recorded three complete games, more than any other rookie level team.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR » NEVIN ASHLEY

The Appalachian League All-Star catcher led the Rays organization batting .333 in his first professional season, the sixth best single-season average in Rays history, third highest in the Appalachian League and second-best among all minor league catchers. He also led the league with a .477 slugging pct. and a .440 on-base pct., which was 10th best in all of minor league baseball. The Rays' 2006 sixth round pick out of Indiana State University, Ashley was also solid behind the plate throwing out 52% of potential base stealers (12-23), third best in the Appy League and was recognized as the starting catcher on Baseball America's rookie-level All-Star squad.

PITCHER OF THE YEAR » RYAN MORSE

Made 10 starts for Princeton going 5-3 with a 2.88 ERA (56.1-IP, 18-ER), fifth best in the Appalachian League. He struck out 44 batters while walking only 18 and holding opponents to a .221 batting average before his promotion to Hudson Valley on Aug. 22. The lefthander led the P-Rays in wins and allowed three runs or less in eight of his 10 starts. His 2.78 combined ERA at Princeton and Hudson Valley was fifth best in the organization this season.

2006 RAYS MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

BISCUITS RISE TO THE TOP » The Rays Double-A affiliate Montgomery Biscuits brought home their first Southern League Championship. It was the sixth overall championship by a Tampa Bay affiliate, first since Durham won the International League title in 2003 and the second by a AA affiliate (Orlando-1999). The Biscuits completed the postseason 6-1 sweeping Jacksonville (LAD, 3-0) in the first round then defeating Huntsville (MIL, 3-1) in a best-of-five series for the title. Montgomery batted .292 in the playoffs with nearly half (33) of their 71 hits going for extra bases including 14 home runs (11 coming in the finals) - the other 3 teams combined for 4 HR. Biscuits pitchers worked to a 2.18 ERA (62.0-IP, 15-ER) led by RH Mitch Talbot who in two starts, tossed two complete game shutouts (18.0-IP, 0-ER, 2-BB, 24-SO).

NO RUNS ALLOWED » Montgomery's pitching staff combined for 19 shutouts on the season, tied with the Lakewood Blueclaws (PHI) of the South Atlantic League as the most by a single team. The Rays minor league affiliates combined for 52 shutouts total in 2006.

NO HITS ALLOWED » The Rays organization recorded three no-hitters this season, more than any other organization. Durham recorded a no-no July 16 against Columbus (NYY) when Jason Hammel and Juan Salas combined to no-hit the Clippers. The Southwest Michigan Devil Rays did it twice, Aug 16 vs. Peoria (Mike Wlodarczyk and Celso Rondon) and again Aug 31 vs. Beloit (Wade Davis).

15 WINS » Biscuits RH Andy Sonnanstine was 15-8 in 2006 setting a Rays minor league record for victories in a single season and tied for most wins in all of Double-A. He was anchored by an outstanding July in which he went 6-0 with a 1.35 ERA. Lance Carter, in August 2002, is the only other Rays pitcher to go 6-0 in a month in franchise history. From June 13th to July 30th, Sonnanstine won 9 consecutive starts, including 4 shutouts, as he posted an ERA of 1.15.

2006 RAYS MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

DOUBLE DIGITS » Elliot Johnson, Montgomery's switch-hitting second baseman, collected 21 doubles, 10 triples and 15 home runs on the season - one of only six minor leaguers to record double digits in each category.

THIEVERY » The Rays affiliates accumulated a total of 680 stolen bases on the season, which ranked 9th among all organizations. B.J. Upton paced the International League with 46 steals and Desmond Jennings led the Appalachian League with 32. Princeton led the Appalachian League in team steals, swiping 106 bases, nearly 30 more than the second place club.

STRIKE THREE » Rays affiliates combined for 5,277 strikeouts on the season, good for third among all major league organizations, trailing only the Dodgers and Indians. Durham and Southwest Michigan each led their respective leagues in strikeouts. Jake McGee struck out 171 on the season to pace the Midwest League and the organizaiton.

GOING DEEP » On April 12th, the Visalia Oaks put on a power display belting 8 home runs in a 17-15 win at Bakersfield. The 8 HR tied a California League record. It was the third time the feat had been accomplished, first since the Lancaster Jethawks did it against Lake Elsinore in Aug. 15, 1999...interestingly enough, the Cal League record was set the previous night, Aug 14, 1999, when the Modesto A's knocked 8 homers off the San Jose Giants.

The Oaks were led by Brignac who clubbed a career-high 3 home runs (2-R, 3-R, 3-R) and drove in a career-most 8 RBI...Shaun Cumberland accounted for 2 HR (2-R, solo), Patrick Breen also had a pair (solo, 2-R) and Patrick Cottrell rounded out the power surge with a 2-run shot.

PLAYER AND PITCHER OF THE YEAR

PLAYER OF THE YEAR » Reid Brignac (VIS,MON)

Twenty year-old combined to hit .321 with 24 home runs and 99 RBI at Single-A Visalia and Double-A Montgomery, the fourth highest average among all minor league shortstops. Also ranked in the top 10 among all minor leaguers with 167 hits (sixth), 100 runs (ninth) and 281 total bases (sixth).

PITCHER OF THE YEAR » Andy Sonnanstine (MON)

Twenty-three year-old was 15-8 with a staff-best 2.67 ERA and a team-high 153 strikeouts with the Montgomery Biscuits. His 15 victories set a Rays minor league record for wins in a single season and tied for most wins in all of Double-A.

Interleague Play

Baseball begins its 11th season of interleague play in 2007. The American League now leads the series 1,250-1,202 (.510) after taking last season's set 154-98 (.611). The Rays are 67-93 (.419) all-time vs. the N.L. The Rays went 11-7 in 2006, their 2nd-best record against the N.L. behind a 15-3 record in 2004. Only three teams have had more IL wins in one season (2002 Athletics-16, 2006 Red Sox-16, 2006 Twins-16). Tampa Bay's 13 straight interleague victories in 2004 matched the Yankees (2003-04) for the longest in interleague history.

2005 INDUCTEE WADE BOGGS ARTIFACTS AT THE HALL » Former Rays third baseman Wade Boggs was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame by the Baseball Writers' Association of America in 2005. Boggs received 474 votes out of 516 ballots cast (91.9%) in his first year of eligibility. Boggs spent his final two seasons (1998-1999) in his hometown of Tampa Bay. Artifacts from Boggs' career in the Museum's collection include:

- Rays jersey, cap, spikes & batting gloves worn Aug. 7, 1999 to record 3,000th career hit, as well as game tickets and lineup cards (Boggs was first player to hit a home run when achieving this milestone.)
- Bat used on March 31, 1998 for the first home run in Rays franchise history.
- Batting gloves and bat from 200th hit of 1989 season and bat from the 1989 All-Star Game.
- Bat from the 1988 season, sixth consecutive season of 200+ hits.
- Bat used on Oct. 4, 1985 to set new A.L. records of 187 singles and hit safely in 135 games.
- Red Sox jersey worn during 1984 season; Cap and batting gloves from 1987 season.

OTHER NOTABLE RAYS ARTIFACTS AT THE HALL »

- Ball hit by Rocco Baldelli to establish a ML record for hits (40) by a rookie in one month, April 2003.
- Jersey worn by Fred McGriff when he hit his 400th career home run on June 2, 2000.
- Batting helmet worn by Jose Canseco when he hit his 400th career home run on April 14, 1999.
- Game ball signed by the starting lineup for first game played in franchise history on March 31, 1998.

A LOOK AHEAD TO 2008 » Ballots for the 2008 Hall of Fame/BBWAA election will be distributed in early December with results scheduled to be announced in January 2008. RAYS EXPAND INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS

Rays prospects take battting practice at Campo Las Palmas in the Dominican Republic.

While baseball remains America's national pastime, it has truly become a global game. Today, nearly one-third of all Major Leaguers were born outside the United States, and as a result, the Rays have expanded their global outreach.

To facilitate these new international endeavors, the Rays hired Carlos Alfonso to serve as the team's Director of International Operations and Andres Reiner as a special assistant in 2006. Alfonso joined the Rays after 19 years with the San Francisco Giants. Reiner pioneered baseball's scouting efforts in Venezuela while working with Gerry Hunsicker in the Houston Astros organization. Together, they helped discover and develop future stars such as Johan Santana, Bobby Abreu, Freddy Garcia, Carlos Guillen, Melvin Mora, and Richard Hidalgo.

It wasn't long after Alfonso and Reiner were on board that the Rays agreed to a partnership with the Los Angeles Dodgers where the two clubs would share Campo Las Palmas in the Dominican Republic. Long considered the gold standard for Dominican facilities, Campo Las Palmas is home to a Rays baseball academy and a summer league team.

In 2006, the Rays had five players on the Dodgers team at Campo Las Palmas, but in 2007 they will have enough to field their own team. The Rays have their own field at the complex, and they will host on average 35 young players at a time. According to Major League Baseball policy, players can stay at the academy up to 30 days, at which point the team must make a decision on whether or not to make a signing.

To directly oversee Campo Las Palmas, the Rays hired Eddie Toledo from the New York Mets organization.

In Venezuela, the Rays have already begun scouting and signing talent. In mid-September, the Rays signed an agreement to build a baseball academy in the Pirelli Factory located in Guacara, Venezuela. The Rays plan to build a baseball field complete with a clubhouse, gym and covered batting cages.

The Rays have hired Ronnie Blanco to oversee its Venezuelan operations. Blanco previously had served as general manager of the Magallanes baseball club.

Tampa Bay has also established a presence in Colombia and will soon begin scouting operations there. The Rays have also begun talking about expanding their scouting efforts into Australia and Asia and have shown they are open to acquiring top talent in all corners of the globe. The Rays outbid several other MLB teams for Japanese players Shinji Mori and Akinori Iwamura. The organization also signed knuckleball pitcher Diego Echevarria from Argentina, who hopes to become the first player from that nation to make the big leagues.

RAYS ON TELEVISION

DEWAYNE STAATS

Dewayne Staats anchors the Emmy-Award winning telecast in this, his 31st season broadcasting major league baseball and his 10th with the Devil Rays. In 2003, he celebrated 4,000 major league broadcasts. Before joining the Rays, he spent three years calling play-by-play for ESPN in a variety of sports, including major league baseball and NCAA baseball, basketball and football. He began his major league play-by-play career as the radio and TV voice of the Houston Astros from 1977-84, then called radio and TV action for the Chicago Cubs from 1985-89. He was the lead play-by-play announcer for the New York Yankees carried by the MSG-TV network from 1990-94, and spent the 1994 and 1995 seasons calling the action for The Baseball Network (ABC/NBC). Staats began his career as a sports reporter for WSIE Radio while a student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and began his baseball career as the radio voice of the Oklahoma City 89ers (1973-74). In 1975 and '76 he was sports director at KPLR-TV in St. Louis and received an Emmy nomination. A 1975 graduate of SIU-Edwardsville, Dewayne earned Distinguished Alumnus-of-the-Year honors in 1987 and was recently listed among baseball's top 101 all-time announcers by author Curt Smith. He is married to the former Carla Berry and has two daughters, Stephanie Wheeler (29) and Alexandra (23), and a grandson Gabriel Michael (2).

JOE MAGRANE

Joe Magrane returns as television color analyst for the Rays in 2006, his 10th season with the club. He also appears on numerous FOX Network telecasts. In 2002, he served as postgame reporter for the National League Championship Series. Joe was a color analyst for NBC's baseball coverage of the last two summer Olympic Games: 2000 in Sydney, Austrailia and 2004 in Athens, Greece. Before coming to the Rays, the 10-year major league veteran worked as an analyst on regional ESPN major league games in 1997 and worked with Devil Rays play-by-play man Dewayne Staats on ESPN's coverage of the College World Series. An All-America selection at the University of Arizona in 1985, Magrane compiled a 56-67 major league record with the St. Louis Cardinals (1987-93), California Angels (1993-95), and Chicago White Sox (1996). He finished third in the 1987 N.L. Rookie-of-the-Year voting, helping lead the Cardinals to the World Series. He won the ERA title in 1988 while with the Cards (2.18) and the following year won 18 games, placing third in the N.L. Cy Young voting. His nephew, Jim, is a pitcher in the Nationals' system. He and his wife, Renee, have two daughters, Shannon and Sophia and reside in Tampa.

TODD KALAS

Todd begins his 10th season with the Rays and 15th in the major leagues. Kalas returns as pre-game host and in-game reporter for every Rays telecast on FSN Florida and the Rays Television Network. In addition, he hosts "Inside the Rays" on FSN. Kalas has also filled in with play-by-play and color on both the Rays' television and radio networks. Prior to joining the Rays, Kalas worked on the radio broadcast team of the New York Mets (1992-1993) and the television broadcast team of the Philadelphia Phillies (1994-1996). After graduating with a degree in broadcast journalism from Syracuse University in 1988, he moved to the Bay area as sports director at Vision Cable in Clearwater before beginning his baseball career with the Louisville Redbirds in 1991. In the off-season, Kalas has worked the last four years with Cox Sports Television in Louisiana handling play-by-play of college basketball, football, baseball and arena football. He has also filled in as pre-game host for the Tampa Bay Lightning. Todd is the son of longtime Phillies broadcaster, Harry Kalas, a 2002 Hall of Fame inductee. Thad is single and resides in Tampa.

RAYS ON TELEVISION

RECORD NUMBER OF GAMES ON THE AIR

A total of 146 Tampa Bay Devil Rays games will be televised regionally in 2007, the most in club history.

Seventy five games will be produced and televised statewide on FSN Florida, including approximately half in high definition, with an additional 67 games carried by Rays TV on ION Television's (formerly PAX) WXPX-TV 66. While the Rays over-the-air and FSN Florida regional schedule of 142 total games is the same number as last year's all-time high, fans will have the opportunity to see four additional Rays games against the Florida Marlins, which are being produced and televised statewide by FSN Florida as part of the Marlins regional TV schedule, bringing the total to 146. The Rays over-the-air games will again be available on DirecTV.

The Rays will also air 67 games in Orlando on WOPX-TV 56. All three of the Rays regular season games in Orlando, May 15-17 against the Texas Rangers, will be televised. FSN Florida will carry two of the games and Rays TV will telecast the second game of the series.

ION Media Networks owns and operates the nation's largest television group, and ION Television, reaching over 90,000,000 homes. ION Television, which currently features popular series and movies, has a strong presence throughout Florida, including stations in Orlando and Jacksonville.

FSN Florida's Rays coverage received a 2002 Emmy Award for outstanding achievement in coverage of a live sporting event and received a nomination in the same category in 2006.

All-Star Balloting

Since the first All-Star Game in 1933, selection of the All-Stars has shifted from fans to managers on several occasions. In 1933 and 1934, selection of the All-Star teams was up to the fans, who could vote for the All-Star through newspaper ads featuring official ballots.

From 1935 to 1946, each league's eight managers selected the participants while the All-Star team managers chose the starters. Balloting for the starting lineups, tabulated by the Associated Press, was returned to the fans from 1947 to 1957. However, a case of ballot stuffing by Cincinnati fans in 1957 prompted Commissioner Ford Frick to make player selection the privilege of managers, players and coaches from 1958 to 1969.

Commissioner Bowie Kuhn returned voting to the fans in 1970. Since then, All-Star Fan Balloting has developed into the largest voter participation program in the U.S. outside state and national elections.

RAYS ON RADIO

ANDY FREED

Andy returns to the booth for his third season with the Devil Rays broadcast team. Freed comes to the Rays after serving as the voice of the Triple-A Pawtucket Red Sox for four seasons. From 1996-2001, Freed served as the voice of the Double-A Trenton Thunder in the Red Sox organization and was part of Mid-Atlantic Emmy Award-winning telecasts on The Comcast Network. He began his baseball radio career as a broadcast assistant with the Orioles' flagship station WBAL conducting post-game interviews for all home games during the 1990-93 seasons. He began his play-by-play career with the St. Lucie Mets of the Single-A Florida State League in 1994-95. His other play-by-play experience includes college basketball for ESPN Regional (2004-present), Providence College men's basketball (2003-04), Rider University basketball (1996-2001), The College of New Jersey football (1996-97) and the Baltimore Spirit pro soccer team (1992-93). He also served as a statistician and researcher with Fox Television's coverage of MLB in 1999 and 2000. Freed is a graduate of Towson State University (MD) where he called action for basketball, football and lacrosse during his time at school. He and his wife Amy reside in Bradenton with their daughter Sarah (4). Andy and his wife serve as volunteers for Jackson's Hope, a fund sponsored by Operation Serving Children to raise money for the Batten Disease Suppport and Research Association and the Jackson Robert Smithers Memorial Scholarship Fund.

DAVE WILLS

Dave also begins his third season in the Rays radio booth. Wills came to Tampa Bay having spent 11 seasons as part of the Chicago White Sox radio broadcast team hosting the pre- and post-game shows and filling in for John Rooney in the booth when necessary. His first play-by-play action came with the Single-A Kane County Cougars of the Midwest League from 1991-95 where he was the franchise's first radio voice. He was the radio voice of University of Illinois-Chicago men's basketball from 1997-2005 and served as a play-by-play announcer for various high school basketball and football games on Comcast Network-Chicago as well as the lead anchor for the network's highlight show, Sports Weekly from 2000-2005. He also appeared as the pre- and post-game show host for Notre Dame football and basketball as well as the co-host of the Kevin White Show while with ESPN Radio 1000 in Chicago for nine years before joining TB. Wills gained his baseball knowledge as the pitching coach/recruiting coordinator with Elmhurst College (IL) in 1989 and as the interim head coach at the University of Chicago in 1990. He owns bachelors degrees in Speech Communication and Urban Studies from Elmhurst College (IL) where he played ball for three years. Dave and his wife Elizabeth have a son (Alex) and a daughter (Michelle); they reside in Lutz, Fla.

RICH HERRERA

Rich returns for his third season on the Rays Baseball Network as host of the pre- and post-game shows and post-game player interviews. He also serves as the Rays Director of Radio Operations, running the Rays statewide radio network. Rich came to the Rays from Fox Sports, where he was a national talk show host for the Fox Sports Radio Network and later, a host and program director for Fox Sports Radio in Arizona. He previously worked with the Oakland A's as their post game show host from 1998-2000 and s[pent two years (1996-97) hosting the post game talk shows for the San Francisco Giants and the NBA's Golden State Warriors on KKRB. He has also been a member of the Sports USA Radio football crew working as a sideline reporter for their nationally syndicated NFL and NCAA broadcasts the past four seasons. Herrera graduated from California State University. He and his wife Elizabeth reside in St. Petersburg with their son, Rigney.

RAYS ON RADIO

ENRIQUE OLIU

Enrique returns for his 10th season as color analyst on the Rays Spanish broadcast. Born in Nicaragua, Oliu came to the United States at age 10 and attended the St. Augustine School for the Blind. He called his first professional action in 1989 for the Jacksonville Expos and then served as color commentator for the St. Petersburg Pelicans of the Senior Professional Baseball League. Prior to that, he was the public address announcer for seven years for Florida College Baseball in Tampa. He is currently a regular contributor on Solamente Pelota ("Only Baseball") on XM Satellite Radio, has hosted his own show on WQBN 1300-AM and has appeared as a guest on baseball broadcasts and talk shows in Managua, Nicaragua. He has also called action for the Tampa Bay Storm Arena Football League (2003-2005) and served as the Spanish voice for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2002-03. Oliu owns a communications degree from the University of South Florida. He and his wife, Debbie, reside in St. Petersburg.

RICARDO TAVERAS

Ricardo begins his fifth season calling play-by-play on the Rays Spanish broadcast. The Dominican-born Taveras has 21 years of radio experience. He spent two years as a sports commentator for the major leagues in the Dominican Republic and was Program Director for HIVG 870-AM and HIVP 970-AM in the Dominican Republic from 1990-92. Following that, he served as Assistant Program Director for WRIV in Providence, Rhode Island for three years. He has lived in the Tampa Bay area since July, 1999.

RAYSVISION

"RaysVision" is the entertainment presentation Tropicana Field's guests enjoy when they visit Tropicana Field.

Produced by the Rays Fan Experience Production Department, the term "RaysVision" encompasses video, information and statistics, audio production and live entertainment.

This season marks a major, state-of-the-art upgrade to Tropicana Field's electronic displays. New enhancements include a fully integrated display system designed and installed by Brookings, South Dakota-based Daktronics, Inc. Daktronics is one of the world's leading scoreboard and large screen video display manufacturers.

Fans will be enthralled by a 36' x 64' Daktronics ProStar full color LED video display above the right field bleachers. This high resolution display showcases in-game entertainment, graphics, video features, replays, a multitude of statistics, the linescore, and, most importantly, live shots of our fans having fun. In addition to the in-game production, the RaysVision video crew also writes, shoots, produces and edits nearly every Rays video project.

Supporting the Pro-Star, are two 7' x 50' Daktronics ProAd color LED displays. These vibrant displays will also display a multitude of information, messages, statistics and sponsor content.

Located above the Batter's Eye Restaurant is a new 14' x 54' Daktronics amber LED display. This display offers fans a host of information including the lineups, standings, league leaders, out of town scoring recaps, in-game player updates, and more.

Complementing the '07 upgrades is the existing 6' x 256' Daktronics Pro-Ad LED display adorning the fascia of the upper left field seats. Installed in 2005, this dynamic screen features animations, crowd prompts, out of town scores, sponsor graphics and more in a dazzling array of motion and color.

Prior to the 2006 season, the Rays entertainment arsenal was a Renkus-Heinz Line Array speaker system designed and installed by SportSound (a division of Daktronics). This state-of-the-art sound system provides improved audio intelligibility and frequency range.

This season marks the sophomore season of the Ray Team - our roving, enthusiastic, energetic spirit squad that leads Rays fans in cheers and dances, tosses out free goodies, and imparts smiles, hospitality and home team pride to our guests. The Ray Team is visible during in-game promotions and contests, rallies and interactive dances (7th inning stretch, etc.) and welcoming our guests at the main entrance. Through their efforts, the Ray Team enhances our fan experience, establishing a new Rays standard of fun and entertainment.

Since the Rays first took the field on March 31, 1998, fans have been treated to a live performance of the National Anthem(s) at every game. In keeping with our community spirit, many of these performances have featured local talent. The inaugural Anthem performance was delivered by Ms. Belinda Womack, accompanied by a 75 member choir consisting of vocalists from three choirs, whose churches were relocated when construction began on the Florida Sun Coast Dome in the late 1980's.

Additionally, our Nation's colors are presented at each event by a local honor guard representing a variety of groups: such as the U.S. Armed Forces, U.S. Coast Guard, College and High School ROTC units, Veteran and Civic Associations, Fire and Police Departments, the Boys and Girl Scouts of America, and many more.

RaysVision always invites young Rays fans to be part of the show. At every game, many youngsters can be seen: presenting the first game ball, delivering a ceremonial first pitch, starting the game with a hearty shout of "Play Ball!", announcing a half-inning of action on Sundays, taking part in interactive contests, or even singing "Take Me Out To The Ballgame."

For more info about RaysVision contact: John Franzone, Executive Producer, jfranzone@devilrays.com, 727-825-3246.

Rays First To Train At Home In Modern Era

The Devil Rays' major league spring training home is Progress Energy Park, Home of Al Lang Field, in St. Petersburg, making the Tampa Bay franchise the first major league team to train in its home city since 1919 when the St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Athletics both trained at home. Between 1943-45, the "War Years," travel restrictions forced teams to alter their routine of heading to warmer weather and some teams trained close to home. Six teams stayed within 100 miles of their home city: Boston Red Sox trained in nearby Medford, 1943-45; Washington Senators trained in a Washington suburb, College Park, MD, 1943-45; Philadelphia Phillies (1944-45) and Athletics (1943) each trained in Wilmington, DE, just 30 miles away; New York Yankees spent 1943 training at the home of Bruce Springsteen, Asbury Park, NJ, some 70 miles from the Big Apple; New York Giants were in Lakewood, NJ, 90 miles away, 1943-45; and the Phillies trained in Hershey, PA in 1943, approximately 100 miles from home.

SPRING TRAINING

RAYS WILL MOVE SPRING TRAINING HEADQUARTERS TO PORT CHARLOTTE IN 2009

Over the winter, the Rays won approval to relocate spring training to Port Charlotte beginning in 2009. Charlotte Sports Park, which once hosted Texas Rangers spring training, will undergo an extensive $27 million renovation and be ready in time for the 2009 Grapefruit League season. The site is located approximately 75 miles south of St. Petersburg.

The move will help the team expand its fan base, and expose Rays baseball to more people throughout the state of Florida.

The state-of-the-art facility will contain 6,000 fixed seats, and will also have additional berm seating and party areas. A new suite level and group areas will be added and a 360-dgree pedestrian concourse will ring the stadium. The renovations are being modeled after Clearwater's Bright House Networks Field, home of Philadelphia Phillies spring training.

In addition to spring training games, the facility will house the Rays training complex. There will be five full fields and one-half field at the complex. It will be home to extended spring training for the Rays, and the site could be used for a Florida State League or a Gulf Coast League team.

The renovations to Charlotte Sports Park are being financed by contributions from Charlotte County, the state of Florida, and the Rays. While the Rays will have exclusive access during spring training, the county will be able to use the venue throughout the year for concerts, youth sports, recreation, and community events.

The project is being designed by internationally renowned HOK Sport, designers of 14 of the 30 current major league parks and three spring training facilities including Brighthouse Networks Field. HOK will partner with The Hunt Construction Group. Considered one of the top builders of sports facilities in the world, Hunt built the new Busch Stadium in St. Louis and is currently constructing the new major league park for the Nationals in Washington, D.C. in partnership with HOK. Hunt has had an office in Tampa since 1990.

HISTORY OF PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL IN TAMPA BAY

Although the 1998 Devil Rays played Florida's first regular season major league game outside of Miami, the league's roots in the Tampa Bay Area can be traced back some 91 years. In fact, more major league spring training games have been played in St. Petersburg than in any other city.

Major League Baseball's roots in Tampa Bay can be traced back to 1913 when the Chicago Cubs moved their spring training operation from New Orleans to Tampa. The following year the St. Louis Browns came to St. Petersburg for spring workouts.

Except for the years between 1942 and 1945 when wartime restrictions limited travel for spring training, major league baseball has had a presence in Tampa Bay ever since.

Even during the war years, the area found a way to keep the National Pastime alive. To fill the wartime void, Tampa fashioned the Inter-Social League in 1943. Crowds averaged several thousand in West Tampa and Ybor City to see players that included the fathers of Lou Piniella and Dave Magadan.

Nine teams have trained in St. Petersburg: the Boston Braves (1922-37), St. Louis Cardinals (1938-42; 1946-97), New York Yankees (1925-42; 1946-50; 1952-61), New York Giants (1951), New York Mets (1962-87), Baltimore Orioles (1993-95); St. Louis Browns (1914), Philadelphia Phillies (1915-18) and the Devil Rays.

Tampa has been the spring home of six major league clubs: Chicago Cubs (1913-16), Cincinnati Reds (1931-42; 1946-87), Boston Red Sox (1919), Detroit Tigers (1930), Washington Senators (1920-29), Chicago White Sox (1954-59) and the New York Yankees (1996-).

More than 70 Hall of Famers have trained in Tampa or St. Petersburg alone, not counting dozens of others who spent springs in Sarasota, Clearwater, Bradenton, and Lakeland.

Plant City, Dunedin, and Tarpon Springs have also been spring training hosts bringing the total number of major league teams who trained in Greater Tampa Bay to 19.

The first game between two major league teams in the area took place in 1914, as the Grapefruit League was established, in which teams played a five-week schedule of exhibition games. On March 26 of that year, at Plant Field on the campus of the University of Tampa, the host Chicago Cubs edged the Browns, 3-2, despite making six errors.

The next day, the two teams met at Coffee Pot Bayou in St. Petersburg and the result was the same, a 3-2 Cubs win. James Leslie (Hippo) Vaughn was the winning pitcher for the Cubs as an estimated 4,000 looked on.

Minor League Baseball began in Tampa Bay in 1919, when Tampa became a charter member of the Class D Florida State League. After finishing dead last the first year, Tampa went 89-28 in 1920, a .745 winning percentage, still the best in FSL history. It was that year that the St. Petersburg Saints entered the FSL. By 1922, the Saints had won a FSL crown of their own, the first of eight they would win, most in league history.

The teams from St. Petersburg and Tampa alone have played more than 14,500 minor league games. Add Dunedin, Clearwater and Lakeland and the number soars to 27,000.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

AC Joint (Acromioclavicular joint) » Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abrasion » Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Adhesion » Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Anabolic Steroids » Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormones).

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) » A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Arthrogram » X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscopy » A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Bone Scan » An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labelled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Bursa » A fluid-filled sac located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimized; for example between a tendon and bone.

Cartilage » Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan » Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.

Clavicle » The collar bone.

Coccyx » The "tail bone"; a group of four vertebrae that are fused together, located at the terminal end of the spine.

Contusion » An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cyst » Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Dislocation » Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Edema » Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body.

Femur » Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula » Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Grade One Injury » A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury » A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury » A severe injury in which tissue has been significant, and in some cases, totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Heat Cramps » Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion » Mild form of shock due to to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke » Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat resulting in death if not cared for.

Hematoma » Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer » Contusion to the iliac crest.

Humerus » Upper arm bone, runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Inflammation » The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

Impingement » Caused when rotator cuff muscles swell and the pressure within the muscles increases, which results in compression and loss of blood flow in the small blood vessels and pain when reaching up behind the back or reaching up overhead.

Labrum (Labrum Glenoidale) » The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edged or lip-like structure.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) » Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Ligament » Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae » Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Lumbosacral » Region of low back comprised of lumbar and sacral spine.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) » Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Medial Collateral Ligament » Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.

Meniscus » Crescent-shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." there are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals » Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Metatarsals » Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Oblique Muscles » The two external abdominal muscles on the sides and front of the abdomen that are attached to the ribs and the pelvis.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) » A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles » A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography » Taking of X-rays.

Radius » Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Rotator Cuff » Comprised of four muscles (supraspinatus-most commonly injured, infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis) in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse.

SC Joint » Sternoclavicular joint; where collarbone meets the sternum.

Scapula » Shoulder blade.

Sciatica » Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve » Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint » A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Sprain » Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of a joint which causes the joint's ligament or soft tissue to stretch or tear.

Strain » Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes the muscle or tendon tissue to stretch or tear.

Stress Fracture » A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Subluxation » Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Tendinitis » Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon » Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tibia » Larger of the two bones of lower leg and the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Transverse Process » Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebra that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius » Flat, triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Ulna » Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve » Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

TROPICANA FIELD

Originally named the Florida Suncoast Dome and then the ThunderDome, Tropicana Field's 1.1 million square feet include unique design features and fan amenities found nowhere else in the Major Leagues.

» Tropicana Field is the world's only professional sports facility that features live rays. The Rays Touch Tank opened in 2006, and is located just behind the right centerfield wall. Through a unique partnership with the Florida Aquarium, there are over 30 cownose rays that fans can touch and feed throughout the game. The 10,000 gallon tank is sponsored by the Pinellas County Visitors Bureau and FloridaBeaches.com and is one of the ten-largest in the United States. If a Rays player hits a home run into the tank, then the organization will donate $5,000 to charity – $2,500 to the Florida Aquarium and $2,500 to the player's charity of choice.

» Tropicana Field is the only major league park to feature an artificial surface and all-dirt base paths. All of the other five major league parks that currently feature an artificial surface have only dirt cutouts around the bases and at the pitcher's mound. Only four other artificial turf ballparks have ever featured all-dirt base paths: Houston's Astrodome (1966-1971); San Francisco's Candlestick Park in 1971; Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium in the early '70s; and, most recently, St. Louis' Busch Stadium (1970-1976). Chicago's Comiskey Park had all-dirt base paths with an artificial turf infield and grass outfield in the early 1970's.

» The Rays first installed FieldTurf in 2000 becoming the first pro baseball team to play on the top of the line synthetic playing surface. In February, 2007, the Rays installed FieldTurf's latest upgrade becoming first baseball facility in the world to feature the company's unique duo filament system. It is also used at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, NJ. The system has special fibers, including four that stand up and four that lay over to trap the fill. There is also a clay "lift" grass for the warning track.

» In another addition prior to the 2007 season, the Rays added four new video boards to Tropicana Field. The main video board in right field is 35 feet high and 64 feet wide, making it more than four times larger than the previous board. This ProStar video board from Daktronics will provide video content, highlight pitching matchups, and show pitch speeds, pitch counts, and other detailed statistical information. There are also two 10 by 50-foot strip boards below the main board which will have batter and pitcher statistics. In addition, the Rays will unveil a new video board above the Batter's Eye Restaurant in centerfield. This board will have an in-game box score and will provide statistical information in a baseball card style format.

» In 2006, the Rays added a plethora of fan interactive activities in Left Field Street. Fans can participate in a baseball-themed game show, have their picture on a Topps baseball card, or their name inscribed onto a Louisville Slugger bat, touch and feel real game-used equipment, broadcast play-by-play of baseball highlights, and meet the colorful "Mayor of Tropicana Field."

» In 2007, Right Field Street was renovated to include numerous activities for young baseball fans. Kids can experience the magic of baseball in a carnival-like atmosphere. In addition, fans can still take their swings against computer images of real major league pitchers in a batting cage or test their arms in the speed pitch. Right Field Street also features popular kids-themed areas such as "Bats, Balls, and Brushes," presesnted by The Arts Center and the "St. Petersburg Times Pressbox."

» Unique seating location can be found throughout the stadium including The Checkers Bull Pen Café, located directly behind the Rays' bullpen in the right field corner and offers picnic-style seating. Fans can also enjoy the game from the Kane's Club located only 50 feet from home plate.

TROPICANA FIELD

» Tropicana Field features the world's second-largest cable-supported domed roof (Georgia Dome is the largest). It's made of six acres of translucent, Teflon-coated fiberglass and it virtually supports itself with 180 miles of cables connected by struts. Opposing forces of tension and compression keep the roof in an arc. Tropicana Field's roof is slanted at a 6.5-degree angle, dropping from 225 feet above second base to 85 feet at the center field wall. The slanted roof reduced the overall construction costs and decreased the volume of air under the dome by 16.8 million cubic feet. Accordingly, that reduced the amount of air that requires climate control treatment. It is built to withstand wind of up to 115 miles per hour.

TROPICANA FIELD HISTORY

The original Florida Suncoast Dome was opened to the public on March 3, 1990, at a cost of $138 million. It became the ThunderDome in 1993 with the arrival of the area's National Hockey League expansion franchise, the Tampa Bay Lightning. It was renamed Tropicana Field on Oct. 4, 1996, in accordance with a naming rights agreement between the Devil Rays and Tropicana Dole Beverages North America, located in Bradenton.

Though originally built for baseball, there have been 16 other sports and competitions events in the facility. These include hockey, basketball, football, sprint car racing, gymnastics, soccer, tennis, weightlifting, ping-pong, karate, motorcycle racing, equestrian events, track and figure skating.

The facility has set attendance records in a number of sports. During their three seasons playing in the building, the Lightning established the top 20 attendance marks in NHL history. On April 23, 1996, a crowd of 28,183 attended Game Four of the Eastern Conference Quarterfinals between the Lightning and the Philadelphia Flyers - the largest indoors, single-game attendance figure in NHL history.

The Arena Football League's Tampa Bay Storm set all its records while playing in the facility, including the largest single-game record of 28,746. In 1990, Davis Cup tennis was played at the dome, with a record crowd of 53,150 attending the three-day event. Also in 1990, 25,710 NBA fans saw the Chicago Bulls play an exhibition game against the Seattle Supersonics in what was then the largest crowd ever to attend a basketball game in the state of Florida. That figure was surpassed first by the 26,102 who attended the 1994 first-round NCAA Regionals, then again on March 20 and 22, 1998, when sellout crowds of 40,589 - a record for a non-Final Four game - watched the NCAA Regional and semifinal games featuring Syracuse, UCLA, Duke and Kentucky. The 1999 Final Four, featuring Duke, Ohio State, Michigan State and eventual-champion Connecticut, drew capacity crowds of 40,632 and 39,113 on March 27 and 29. The largest crowd to date - 47,150 - appeared at the Aug. 11, 1990, concert featuring The New Kids on the Block.

Tropicana Field closed its doors in October 1996 for a 17-month, $85 million facelift that transformed the facility from functional to intriguingly innovative, incorporating baseball traditions throughout the dining, shopping and entertainment complex while adding 319,000 square feet of space. Using Ebbets Field as an influence, the ballpark's grand, eight-story-high rotunda entrance is designed from the very blueprints used for the rotunda at Ebbets Field, built in 1913. Fans can enter the rotunda by following a 900-foot, tropical-theme ceramic mosaic walkway. The walk is the largest outdoor ceramic mural in Florida and one of the five largest in the United States. Made with 1,849,091 brightly colored 1x1 inch tiles, it depicts the sun, sea and beach.

In 2006, the Rays spent more than $10 million on improvements to Tropicana Field. The renovations included major overhauls to all of the bathrooms on the 100 and 200 levels, new lighting, new fixtures, new wall treatments, a new premium seating club, changes to the press box, and much more. In addition, interactive baseball-themed areas were added throughout the ballpark for families to enjoy a new kind of fan experience.

In 2007, the upgrades continued with improvements to the interior and the exterior of the facility.
